Common Wealth Marjorie Maddox, Jerry Wemple, 2005 Over the years Pennsylvania has been graced with an abundance of writers whose work draws imaginatively on the state the Three Rivers region the Laurel Highlands and Erie and the Allegheny National Forest Theirs is a complex narrative cultivated for centuries in coal mines kitchens elevated trains and hometowns a tale that illuminates the sanctity of the commonplace the daily chores of a Mennonite housewife a polka dance in Coaldale the late shift at a steel factory the macadam of the Pennsylvania Turnpike With its panoramic vision of Pennsylvania its culture and its thriving literary heritage Common Wealth is a collection of remembrance for a state that continues to inspire countless contributions to American literature
Language and Power on the Rhetorical Stage Fiona Harris Ramsby, 2020-12-29 Through a fusion of narrative and analysis Language and Power on the Rhetorical Stage examines how theater can enact critical discourse analysis and how micro instances of iniquitous language use have been politically and historically reiterated to oppress and deny equal rights to marginalized groups of people Drawing from Aristophanes rhetorical plays as a template for rhetoric in action the author poses the stage as a rhetorical site whereby we can observe see and feel 20th century rhetorical theories of the body Using critical discourse analysis and Judith Butler s theories of the performative body as a methodological and analytical lens the book explores how a handful of American plays in the latter part of the 20th century the works of Tony Kushner Suzan Lori Parks and John Cameron Mitchell among others use rhetoric in order to perform and challenge marginalizing language about groups that are not offered center stage in public and political spheres This innovative study initiates a conversation long overdue between scholars in rhetorical and performance studies as such it will be essential reading for academic researchers and graduate students in the areas of rhetorical studies performance studies theater studies and critical discourse analysis
