Runner and Restoration Theatre Manager R. E. Pritchard,2022-05-30 Sir William Davenant 1606 1668 was in his time widely known as Davenant the Poet The son of an Oxford vintner or quite possibly the natural son of his godfather William Shakespeare he wrote poems for and about the Court of Charles I and despite losing his nose to mercury treatment for the clap which other people thought funny went on to replace Ben Jonson as Poet Laureate and collaborate with Inigo Jones in composing spectacular Court masques as well as writing many successful plays a few fashionably blood thirsty most showing a real comic gift humanity and sympathy with ordinary life In the Civil War he earned a knighthood as an especially successful gun runner for the Royalists before escaping to Paris where he worked on an epic poem Then sent off by Charles II to colonize Virginia but captured by the Parliamentarians he escaped execution but was imprisoned for five years With the Restoration he practically re-invented English theater with the first English opera women actors movable scenery and the proscenium arch as well as reviving interest in Shakespeare with inventive adaptations Energetic affable and resilient he was an appealing and well liked character Celebrated and important in his day Davenant is now surprisingly little known This enterprising study introduces modern readers to his wit poetry and growing scepticism as to Court and aristocratic values and his developing feminist sympathies Here select excerpts and summaries bring this entertaining writer to a new wider audience The Last Will and Testament of John Davenant, Vintner, of the Crown Tavern, Oxford; the House at which Shakespeare Lodged in Some of His Journeys Between Stratford-on-Avon and London.
