Social Context And Proclamation A Socio Cognitive Study In Proclaiming The Gospel Cross Culturally:

Social Context and Proclamation David Filbeck,1985-01-01 Sharing Jesus Holistically with the Buddhist World David S. Lim,Steve Spaulding,2005 This book contains the works of a group of Evangelical mission reflective practitioners who are committed to developing ways to evangelize the Buddhist peoples of the world As various forms of Buddhism gain popularity this network tries to disclose creative approaches to reach them with the gospel communicated in culturally sensitive ways and with transformational impact The five major dimensions of a holistic witness among Buddhist peoples discussed in this book are experiential dialogue intellectual dialogue biblical exposition cultural sensitivity and economic development We invite readers to gain access to the first volume Sharing Jesus in the Buddhist World which consists of nine papers that provide the framework and some concrete models of cultural sensitive contextualized witness to peoples of Buddhist faith It will serve as a rich resource for those concerned with the issues raised in this book Preparing Missionaries for Intercultural Communication: Lyman E. Reed,Arthur F. Glasser,1985-06-01 Missionaries while being prepared in the Bible often receive little training in understanding the world in which we live and some experience great hardship out in the field as a result The purpose of this book is to enable cross cultural missionaries to be more adequately prepared for the task of intelligent communication The authors set forth the major areas which are important in training the missionary to communicate with other cultures Christianity Confronts Culture Marvin Keene Mayers,1987 In this revised edition you will find discussions and definitions of the impact of Christian gospel its ethics and its lifestyle Numerous case studies are included Evangelicals in Mexico Dinorah B. Méndez,Dinorah Mendez,2008 Hymns as a potential tool of theological contextualisation have never been fully explored This study looks at this function of hymnody in relation to Mexican culture A sample of hymnody used by evangelicals of different traditions was selected to examine its theology and to compare which kind of hymns or songs were more reliable and appropriate to communicate the evangelical faith in the Mexican context After-Mission, Beyond Evangelicalism Najib George Awad,2020-11-04 After Mission touches on on three questions The first question is about self perception and identity formation strategies and the various views that we have on the Protestants relation to their Arab Muslim Middle Eastern context This will furnish the basis for the ensuing parts as it will provide the study with coherent and analytical readings of the cultural situation and intellectual views of the Arab Eastern Protestants in their Sitz im Leben from the perspective of the hermeneutic tripod of identity othering relationality The second question about the theological dimension asks what kind of a theological discourse do the Protestants need to develop and how do they need to re form their own theological heritage in such a manner that will allow them to heal the historical enmity and suspicion towards them from the Eastern Orthodox Christian community in the region How should they re think their traditional view on theological subjects common to them and the Eastern Christian tradition Traditional Protestant attitudes towards Eastern Christianity which have been viewed through the lens of evangelicalism and mission have failed to grant the Protestants an influential and truly indigenous presence in the region and have led to them being constantly accused of being a foreign transplant and alien entity In the light of this it is clear that going beyond missiology and traditional evangelicalism demands re thinking certain mutually shared but contentious theological subjects from a new perspective with the focus on more constructive attempts to build fellowship through dialogue Finally the third question touches on the Protestants future in the Arab Muslim Middle East by viewing this inquiry from a broader perspective that is related to all the Middle Eastern Christian communities presence and role in the Muslim majority context It will discuss questions about the kind of presence and role that Christians Protestants included should hope to play in order to guarantee survival and a continuing presence in the region The question of identity formation and the managing of difference without trapping it in the mud of otherizing and self otherizing will also be tackled so that the theological dimension is integrated with the broader multifaceted contextual one

Telling God's Stories with Power Paul F. Koehler,2010-06-01 Biblical Storytelling in Oral Cultures This is a complete and practical introduction to storying especially for people who want to learn about using biblical storytelling in cross cultural contexts and who want to train others to become storytellers It includes many fascinating accounts of the responses of tribal people to the first proclamation of the gospel through storytelling The result of years of research and field testing Telling God s Stories with Power is a product of the author s own journey as he confronted the challenges of teaching the Bible in parts of the world where people are unaccustomed to a Western style of learning Full of innovative and groundbreaking insights this study is packed with ideas explanations and constructive suggestions stated in clear and simple language Throughout the book there are extensive examples from the storytellers own experiences Tracing the movement of the biblical stories across multiple generations of tellers and listeners storytelling is found to be superior for knowledge transfer and for bypassing resistance to the gospel in oral contexts thus presenting clear evidence of the effectiveness of biblical narrative among oral learners

The Church and Cultures Louis J. Luzbetak,2015-03-31 Why should the church be concerned about cultures Louis J Luzbetak began to answer this question twenty five years ago with the publication of The Church and Cultures An Applied Anthropology for the Religious Worker Reprinted six times and translated into five languages it became an undisputed classic in the field Now by popular demand Luzbetak has thoroughly rewritten his work completely updating it in light of contemporary anthropological and missiological thought and in face of current world conditions Serving as a handbook for a culturally sensitive ministry and witness The Church and Cultures introduces the non anthropologist to a wealth of scientific knowledge directly relevant to pastoral work religious education social action and liturgy in fact to all forms of missionary activity in the church It focuses on a burning theological issue that of contextualization the process by which a local church integrates its understanding of the Gospel text with the local culture context

Introducing World Missions (Encountering Mission) A. Scott Moreau,Gary R. Corwin,Gary B. McGee,2015-06-09 This bestselling textbook by leading missionary scholars offers an engaging introduction to the work of missions in the contemporary world It provides a broad overview of the biblical theological and historical foundations for missions It also considers personal and practical issues involved in becoming a missionary the process of getting to the mission field and contemporary challenges a mission worker must face Sidebars charts maps and numerous case studies are included This new edition has been updated and revised throughout and features a full color interior Additional resources for professors and students are available online through Baker Academic s Textbook eSources The Four Codes of Preaching John S. McClure, 2003-01-01 The Four Codes of Preaching John McClure s first book length treatment of homiletical theory is a sophisticated and at times controversial contribution to the field of homiletics
