Proceedings of the 2025 4th International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2025) Sun Jing, Sun Hefei, Liu Shuli, Ren Xianpin, Cuneyt Birkok, 2025-07-22 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today s increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc International Conflict Analysis in South Asia Safeer Tariq Bhatti, 2015-12-03 International Conflict Analysis in South Asia A Study of Sectarian Violence in Pakistan analyzes the ideological relationship of the Muslim identity to its perceived practice of Islam among the Shia and Deobandi sects A Muslim identity defined as the parameters of who is and who isn t a Muslim has led to the political conundrum of Pakistan to an anticipated single interpretation of Islam causing severe sectarian violence across the country Sectarianism has been rooted in Pakistan s affairs since 1953 but most recently the country has been victimized by political and sectarian Islamic movements The collective mobilization and propaganda campaigns of these movements have led exclusion of certain religious minorities and their practices The study takes root in Punjab Pakistan among twenty seven interviews where the Deobandi sect and the Shia sect face severe fatalities and undefined conflict Agents, Structures and International Relations Colin Wight, 2006-10-12 The agent structure problem is a much discussed issue in the field of international relations In his comprehensive 2006 analysis of this problem Colin Wight deconstructs the accounts of structure and agency embedded within differing IR theories and on the basis of this analysis explores the implications of ontology the metaphysical study of existence and reality Wight argues that there are many gaps in IR theory that can only be understood by focusing on the ontological differences that construct the theoretical landscape By integrating the treatment of the agent structure problem in IR theory with that in social theory Wight makes a positive contribution to the problem as an issue of concern to the wider human sciences At the most fundamental level politics is concerned with competing visions of how the world is and how it should be thus politics is ontology
