SOCIAL GOD

Beth Felker Jones, Jeffrey W. Barbeau

Social God:

The Social God Kenneth Leech, 2003-10-28 The central theme of The Social God is the belief that God is social and that both Christian prayer and Christian social action are rooted in the nature of God Christian action in the fields of social justice and the political arena is rooted in Christian doctrine The Social God stresses the essential unity of doctrine and action of prayer and politics examining the Christian understanding of God and his relationship with the world Kenneth Leech emphasizes the centrality of the Incarnation and reveals the other aspects of Christian spirituality the dangers of a new fascism and the need for a renewal of Christian theology

The Social God and the Relational Self Stanley J. Grenz, 2001-01-01 In this the first of a six volume contribution to systematic theology Grenz creatively extends the insights of contemporary Trinitarian thought to theological anthropology The Social God and the Relational Self is an example of theological construction as an ongoing conversation involving biblical texts the theological heritage of the Christian tradition and the contemporary historical social context

Sharing Catholic Social Teaching, 1998 In this thoughtful reflection the bishops present a compelling explanation of how Catholic social teaching is central to keeping the Church strong

God's Church-Community David Emerton, 2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer's thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action

Current Literature, 1918

The Image of God in an Image Driven Age Beth Felker Jones, Jeffrey W. Barbeau, 2016-03-18 Humans are created in the image of God yet by choosing to rebel against God we become unfaithful bearers of his image But Jesus who is the image of God restores the divine image in us At the intersection of theology and culture these essays offer a unified vision of what it means to be truly human and created in the divine image in the world today

Paul, the Community, and Progressive Sanctification James M. Howard, 2007 What role does the Christian community play in the process of growing in Christian maturity This book argues that in Pauline theology the redeemed community is a necessary means for the progressive sanctification of the individual believer an idea that is largely misunderstood in parts of the Western church It evaluates foundational theological considerations traditionally omitted from sanctification studies and places them within the context of Pauline theology Included are the missiological nature of holiness the initiatory character of God the creation of the new humanity as reflecting the image of God and the impact upon the church resulting from the radical redefinition by Christ of the cultural symbols surrounding the Jewish temple system This book offers a corrective to the individualized approach to Christian growth For Paul the focus of God's transformative activity culminates with the community rather than the individual the goal of which is to reveal God's glory to the broader creation

Relational Spirituality Todd W. Hall, 2021-05-25 Human beings are fundamentally relational we develop heal and grow through relationships Integrating insights from psychology and theology Todd W Hall and M Elizabeth Lewis Hall present a definitive model of spiritual transformation based on a relational paradigm showing how transformation works practically in the context of relationships and community

Make/Believing the World(s) Mark S. McLeod-Harrison, 2009-11-10 A vigorous defence of a radical ontological pluralism that requires theism and is consistent with traditional Christianity

True Prayer Kenneth Leech, 1995-10 True Prayer
