Social Mobility In Kerala Modernity And Identity In Conflict:

Social Mobility in Kerala Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2000-12-20 The Izhavas are an ex untouchable community in the southern Indian state of Kerala Politically and economically weak stigmatised as toddy tappers and devil dancers and considered unapproachable by clean caste Hindus a century ago Izhavas were associated with other manual labouring untouchable castes In recent decades they have sought to improve their position by accumulating economic symbolic and cultural capital through employment religion politics migration marriage education and have tried to assert their right to mobility often in the face of opposition from their high status Christian and Nayar neighbours This study examines how Izhavas through repudiation of their nineteenth century identity and search for mobility have come into complex relationships with modernity colonialism and globalisation Filippo Osella and Caroline Osella highlight the complexities and contradictions of modern identity both locally and globally The authors approach builds upon and goes beyond a south Asian focus showing how the Izhavas represent the rise of formerly stigmatised groups who remain at the same time trapped by stereotype and material disadvantage Absolute mobility they argue has not led to relative mobility within a society which remains stratified and prone to new forms of social exclusion The Handbook of Food and Anthropology Jakob A. Klein, James L. Watson, 2016-08-25 Winner of the CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title of the Year Award 2017 Interest in the anthropology of food has grown significantly in recent years This is the first handbook to provide a detailed overview of all major areas of the field 20 original essays by leading figures in the discipline examine traditional areas of research as well as cutting edge areas of inquiry Divided into three parts Food Self and Others Food Security Nutrition and Food Safety Food as Craft Industry and Ethics the book covers topics such as identity commensality locality migration ethical consumption artisanal foods and children s food Each chapter features rich ethnography alongside wider analysis of the subject Internationally renowned scholars offer insights into their core areas of specialty Examples include Michael Herzfeld on culinary stereotypes David Sutton on how to conduct an anthropology of cooking Johan Pottier on food insecurity and Melissa Caldwell on practicing food anthropology The book also features exceptional geographic and cultural diversity with chapters on South Asia South Africa the United States of America post socialist societies Maoist China and Muslim and Jewish foodways Invaluable as a reference as well as for teaching The Handbook of Food and Anthropology serves to define this increasingly important field An essential resource for researchers and students in anthropology and food studies Gods, Guns and Missionaries Manu S Pillai, 2024-11-21 When European missionaries first arrived in India in the sixteenth century they entered a world both fascinating and bewildering Hinduism as they saw it was a pagan mess the worship of devils and monsters by a people who burned women alive performed outlandish rites and fed children to crocodiles But soon it became clear that Hindu idolatry was far more complex than white men s stereotypes allowed and Hindus had little desire to convert But then European power began to grow in India and under colonial rule missionaries assumed a forbidding appearance

During the British Raj Western frames of thinking gained ascendancy and Hindus felt pressed to reimagine their religion This was both to fortify it against Christian attacks and to resist foreign rule It is this encounter which has in good measure inspired modern Hinduism s present shape Indeed Hindus subverted some of the missionaries own tools and strategies in the process triggering the birth of Hindu nationalism now so dominant in the country In Gods Guns and Missionaries Manu S Pillai takes us through these remarkable dynamics With an arresting cast of characters maharajahs poets gun wielding revolutionaries politicians polemicists philosophers and clergymen this book is ambitious in its scope and provocative in its position Lucid and exhaustive it is at once a political history a review of Hindu culture and a study of the social forces that prepared the ground for Hindu nationalism Turning away from simplistic ideas on religious evolution and European imperialism the past as it appears here is more complicated and infinitely richer than popular narratives allow

Youth, Place and Theories of Belonging Sadia Habib, Michael Ward, 2019-07-30 Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives Youth Place and Theories of Belonging showcases cutting edge empirical research on young people s lifeworlds The scholars demonstrate that belonging is personal infused with individual and collective histories as well as interwoven with conceptions of place In studying how young people adapt to social change the research highlights the plurality of belonging as well as its temporal and fleeting nature In the field of youth studies we have seen a recent emphasis on studying the ways youth live out everyday multiculturalisms in an increasingly globalised world How young people negotiate belonging in everyday life and how they come to understand their positions in fragmented societies remain emerging areas of scholarship Composed of twelve chapters the collection references key sites and institutions in young people s lives such as schools community cultural centres neighbourhoods and spaces of consumption Drawing from diverse areas such as the rural the urban as well as displacements and mobilities this international collection enhances our understanding of the theories employed in the study of youth identity practices Written in a direct and clear style this collection of essays will be of interest to researchers working in geography theories of affect gender mobility performativities and theories of space place Investigating how young people come to belong can open up new spaces and provide critical insights into young people s identities

Kerala's Pulluvass and Pampum Tullal Deborah L. Neff, 2025-10-27 Kerala s Pu uvass and P mpum Tu al is a story about the lives of Kerala s Pu uva ritual specialists and their days long ritual performance p mpum tu al or the jumping dance of the serpent deities n gam or p mpu The ritual is commissioned by members of Kerala s landed communities to bring health and prosperity to their extended families Belonging to an ancient South Indian tradition the ritual is orchestrated by Pu uva ritual specialists who hold the sole hereditary right to perform it This book is the first in Kerala to approach this ritual tradition from the viewpoints and agency of its Dalit formerly known as untouchable ritual specialists men and women and to examine Pu uva ritual practice in the context of rapid and extensive social change The study sheds important light upon Pu uva rituals lives and livelihoods within the broader contexts of changing class caste and kinship relations land tenure and ritual patronage labour migration and the decline of N yar matrilineality and old landed families These wide ranging social trends indexed and acted out in ritual are the backdrop for understanding Pu uva ritual practice from the 1980s and in terms of history point to multiple structures and hierarchies of practice and meaning The combination of the focused study of ritual performance and traditional ethnography allows readers to witness the ritual practices and lives of members of a small real world community rendered virtually absent from the historical record It s extraordinary to hear from Pu uvas in their own words and to witness their dedication to their sacred profession at a time when the world they knew was rapidly falling apart But thirty plus years later the story at least for now has a happy ending both Pu uvas and p mpum tu al are thriving

Quality Enhancement in Madrasa Education K. Mohammed Basheer, 2016-12-14 This unique empirical study focuses on the different quality dimensions of the Madrasa education system in Kerala southwestern India Madrasa education is one of the largest networks of non governmental organisations NGOs in the world Despite originating several centuries ago in a vastly different social and cultural context it continues to address the educational needs of a large section of the Muslim population in India Although the Madrasa system has seen many significant developments over time academia has not paid much attention to its functions strengths and contributions This study fills this lacuna and is grounded in detailed empirical investigation based on ethnographic surveys and interviews with various stakeholders from the field comprising students teachers parents management committees Madrasa boards and educationists It critically examines the existing Madrasa education system in terms of different quality dimensions including curriculum planning and designing curriculum transaction assessment and evaluation institutional management and infra structure While appreciating the contributions of Madrasas in promoting education among the Muslim minority of India the book also identifies their problems and suggests creative modalities A timely contribution to a subject with great international appeal it will be of great interest to policy planners researchers educators students and scholars of formal and informal education minority studies political Islam Middle East and Asian studies sociology history and contemporary studies

Youth, Class and Education in Urban India David Sancho, 2015-12-22 Urban India is undergoing a rapid transformation which also encompasses the educational sector Since 1991 this important new market in private English medium schools along with an explosion of private coaching centres has transformed the lives of children and their families as the attainment of the best education nurtures the aspirations of a growing number of Indian citizens Set in urban Kerala the book discusses changing educational landscapes in the South Indian city of Kochi a local hub for trade tourism and cosmopolitan middle class lifestyles Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork the author examines the way education features as a major way the transformation of the city and India in general are experienced and envisaged by upwardly mobile residents Schooling is shown to play a major role in urban lifestyles with increased privatisation representing a response to the educational strategies of a growing and heterogeneous middle class whose educational choices reflect broader projects of class formation within the context of religious and caste diversity particular to the region This path breaking new study of a changing Indian middle class and new relationships with educational institutions contributes to the growing body of work on the experiences and meanings of schooling for youths their parents and the wider community and thereby adds a unique anthropologically informed perspective to South Asian studies urban studies and the study of education Young Muslim Women in India

Kabita Chakraborty, 2015-12-14 This book based on extensive original research details the changing lives of youth living in slum communities bustees in Kolkata formerly Calcutta Using young people's own photos art and narratives the book explores how Muslim girls and young women are contributing to and impacted by changing youth culture in India We are invited into the risky world of mixed sex dance taking place in clandestine spaces in the slums We join young people on their journeys to find premarital romance and witness their strategic and savvy risk taking when participating in transgressive aspects of consumer culture The book reveals how social changes in India including greater education and employment opportunities as well as powerful middle class Muslim reform discourses are impacting youth the very local level More than just fantasy we see that Bollywood is an important role model which young people consult By carefully negotiating risks and performing multiple identities inspired by modernity globalization and most of all Bollywood culture young people actively participate in a changing India and disrupt dominant discourses about slum youth as poor victims who are excluded from social change Consumption Norms and Everyday Ethics L. Pellandini-Simányi, Léna Pellandini-Simányi, 2014-03-11 How much is acceptable to consume What is appropriate to consume and which goods fall into the disapproved category Answers to these questions vary widely across time and space This book examines the sources of this variation by providing an account of how everyday consumption norms develop why they differ and why they change
