Soja, 1989 Written by one of America's foremost geographers Postmodern Geographies contests the tendency still dominant in most social science to reduce human geography to a reflective mirror or as Marx called it an unnecessary complication Beginning with a powerful critique of historicism and its constraining effects on the geographical imagination Edward Soja builds on the work of Foucault Berger Giddens Berman Jameson and above all Henri Lefebvre to argue for a historical and geographical materialism a radical rethinking of the dialectics of space time and social being Soja charts the respatialization of social theory from the still unfolding encounter between Western Marxism and modern geography through the current debates on the emergence of a postfordist regime of flexible accumulation The postmodern geography of Los Angeles exposed in a provocative pair of essays serves as a model in his account of the contemporary struggle for control over the social production of space Giddens' Theory of Structuration Christopher Bryant, David Jary, 2014-06-03 Anthony Giddens is one of the most respected and influential social theorists at work today This wide ranging and stimulating volume first published in 1991 provides an authoritative and penetrating critical assessment of social theory It will be of use to all students of sociology and social theory Geographies of Globalization Andrew Herod, 2009-02-02 Exploring a wide range of issues from the integration of the world economy to how contemporary processes are shaping and shaped by nation states and how workers are organizing transnationally in response to transformations in the planet's economic geography Geographies of Globalization is a critical examination of what has become the leitmotif of our contemporary world Challenges neoliberal assumptions on the nature of globalization Provides a conceptual overview of how globalization is a spatial process and of its relation to capitalism Explores whether we are in fact living in a more globalized world or only in a more internationalized one Considers arguments concerning whether globalization is a new phenomenon or simply the latest manifestation of processes many hundreds of years in the making Focuses on how nation states have shaped and been shaped by contemporary processes of globalization how globalization has been imagined discursively and how workers are responding to such processes Explores how workers are creating new organizing strategies in response to globalization The Intelligible Metropolis Nora Pleßke, 2014-08-15 Writings on the metropolis generally foreground illimitability stressing thereby that the urban ultimately remains both illegible and unintelligible Instead the purpose of this interdisciplinary study is to demonstrate that mentality as a tool offers orientation in the urban realm Nora Pleßke develops a model of urban mentality to be employed for cities worldwide Against the background of the Spatial Turn she identifies dominant urban specific structures of London mentality in contemporary London novels such as Monica Ali's Brick Lane J G Ballard's Millennium People Nick Hornby's A

Key Thinkers on Space and Place Phil Hubbard, Rob Kitchin, 2010-11-30

In this latest edition of Key Thinkers on Space and Place editors Phil Hubbard and Rob Kitchin provide us with a fully revised and updated text that highlights the work of over 65 key thinkers on space and place. Unique in its concept, the book is a comprehensive guide to the life and work of some of the key thinkers particularly influential in the current spatial turn in the social sciences. Providing a synoptic overview of different ideas about the role of space and place in contemporary social, cultural, political and economic life, each portrait comprises biographical information and theoretical context. An explication of their contribution to spatial thinking. An overview of key advances and controversies. Guidance on further reading. With 14 additional chapters including entries on Saskia Sassen, Tim Ingold, Cindi Katz and John Urry, the book covers ideas ranging from humanism, Marxism, feminism and post-structuralism to queer theory, post-colonialism, globalization and deconstruction, presenting a thorough look at diverse ways in which space and place has been theorized. An essential text for geographers, this now classic reference text is for all those interested in theories of space and place, whether in geography, sociology, cultural studies, urban studies, planning, anthropology or women's studies.

Economies of Signs and Space Professor Scott M. Lash, Scott Lash, John Urry, Professor John Urry, 1993-12-09. This is a novel account of social change that supplants conventional understandings of society and presents a sociology that takes as its main unit of analysis flows through time and across space. Developing a comparative analysis of the UK and US, the new Germany and Japan, Lash and Urry show how restructuration after organized capitalism has its basis in increasingly reflexive social actors and organizations. The consequence is not only the much vaunted postmodern condition but also a growth in reflexivity. In exploring this new reflexive world, the authors argue that today's economies are increasingly ones of signs, information, symbols, images, desire and of space, where both signs and social subjects, refugees, financiers, tourists and flâneurs are mobile over ever greater distances at ever greater speeds.
