Social Structure Of Islam Vol 12 Orientalism

Andrew Wilcox

Social Structure Of Islam Vol 12 Orientalism:

Orientalism: Early Sources ,2000 Islamic Law and Society in the Sudan Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban,2013-10-15

Few studies exist which deal with Islamic law in practice and this is among the first such studies in the English language for Islamic Africa It is significant that the present study was completed just prior to the extension of Islamic law as the sole governing law in the Sudan in 1983 for it captures many essentials of the Shari'a as it has been applied for decades prior to this important change Numerous movements for reform and change are discussed in the book which reflect the contemporary debate in the Sudan over the position of Shari'a in society Islam and the Orientalist World-system

Khaldoun Samman,Mazhar Al-Zo'by,2015-11-17 Featuring Immanuel Wallerstein Joseph Massad Marnia Lazreg and other well known and emerging new authors this book seeks a more accurate understanding of Islam and Islamic societies role and relations to global cultural and economic realities The book confronts a trend today of analyzing Islam as a cultural system that stands outside of and even predates modernity The authors see this trend as part of a racist discourse unaware of the realities of contemporary Islam Islamic societies today are products of the world capitalist system and cannot be understood as being separate from its forces The authors offer a more carefully constructed and richer portrait of Islamic societies today and forcefully challenge the belief that Islam is not part of nor much affected by the modern world system Yearbook of

Islamic and Middle Eastern Law, Volume 12 (2005-2006) Eugene Cotran,Martin Lau,2007-12 Practitioners and academics dealing with the Middle East can turn to the Yearbook of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law for an instant source of information on the developments over an entire year in the region The Yearbook covers Islamic and non Islamic legal subjects including the laws themselves of some twenty Arab and other Islamic countries The publication's practical features include articles on current topics country surveys reflecting important new legislation and amendments to existing legislation per country the text of a selection of documents and important court cases a Notes and News section and book reviews

Social Theory: Volume II Roberta Garner,Black Hawk Hancock,2014-05-29 The organization of this popular social theory reader which pairs classical articles with contemporary theoretical and empirical studies highlights the historical flow of social theory and demonstrates how disagreements and confrontations shape theory over time Written in clear down to earth language the introductions to each selection link theorists to one another illustrating how theoretical traditions are not rigidly separate but are always in conversation addressing and challenging each other Volume II From Modern To Contemporary Theory uses key transitional theorists to illustrate how contemporary theory emerged from the past New chapters on race on culture and on media as well as a significantly reworked gender chapter deepen coverage As well new contextual and biographical materials surround each reading and each chapter includes a study guide with key terms and innovative discussion questions and classroom exercises The result is a volume of readings that offers instructors flexibility in how they approach teaching and students an affordable and accessible introduction to the most important contemporary social theorists Orientalism and Imperialism Andrew Wilcox, 2018-07-12 Using the work of Edward Said as a point of departure this book dissects the concept of Orientalism through the lens of 19th century missionary impressions of Kurdistan Wilcox argues that dominant interpretations of Said's work have a tendency to present Orientalism as an essentialist practice and instead offers an alternative manifestation in which the Oriental is perceived as the mutable product of cultural forces The relationship between missionaries and imperialism has long been a contentious issue with many scholars highlighting their apparent ambiguity This study reveals how Protestant missionaries can be identified as anti imperialist in their rhetoric of ecumenical independence yet through their preconceptions of Oriental inferiority they contributed to a more subtle undermining of local forms of knowledge and identity Wilcox argues that this apparent ambiguity is in part a consequence of the ways in which the term imperialism is frequently used to allude to diverse and even contradictory meanings therefore it is not so much the missionaries who are ambiguous as the ways in which they are judged by today's multivalent standards The analysis also makes clear the complex discursive processes which can undermine the actions of altruistic individuals By drawing threads from this 19th century example into the current geopolitical foreground of Middle East West relations this book not only sheds light upon a little known historical case study but also illuminates larger questions of the present and future encouraging a more vigorous examination of contemporary Orientalist prejudices The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 6, Muslims and Modernity: Culture and Society since 1800 Robert W. Hefner, 2010-11-04 Unparalleled in its range of topics and geographical scope the sixth and final volume of The New Cambridge History of Islam provides a comprehensive overview of Muslim culture and society since 1800 Robert Hefner's thought provoking account of the political and intellectual transformation of the Muslim world introduces the volume which proceeds with twenty five essays by luminaries in their fields through a broad range of topics These include developments in society and population religious thought and Islamic law Muslim views of modern politics and economics education and the arts cinema and new media The essays which highlight the diversity and richness of Islamic civilization engage with regions outside the Middle East as well as within Islam's historic heartland Narratives are clear and absorbing and will fascinate all those curious about the momentous changes that have taken place among the world's 1.4 billion Muslims in the last two centuries Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri, 2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women's rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa aor equality in marriage between so called high and low socio economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles Islam, Liberalism, and Ontology Joseph J.

Kaminski,2021-03-30 This book offers comparative ontologies of both Islam and liberalism as discourses more broadly construed The author argues that despite recent efforts to speak of overlapping consensuses and discursive congruence the fundamental categories that constitute Islam and Liberalism remain very different and that these differences should be taken seriously Thus far no recent scholarly works have explicitly or meticulously broken down where these differences lie The author rigorously explores questions related to rights moral epistemologies the role of religion in the public sphere and more general approaches to legal discourse via primary and canonical sources constitutive of both Islam and liberalism He then goes on to articulate why communitarian modes of thought are better suited for engaging with Islam and contemporary socio political modes of organization than liberalism is This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of politics and international relations Islam liberalism and communitarianism Empires and Nations from the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Century Antonello Biagini,2014-08-11 This volume is the result of an international conference held at Sapienza University in Rome on June 20 and 21 2013 as the final stage of the PRIN Progetto di rilevante interesse nazionale project Empires and Nations from the 18th to the 20th century during which scholars from all over the world academics specialists young researchers PhD students and post doctorates confronted diverse but connected topics on the relations between multinational empires and the idea of the nation In this way the reality of the historical empires and national states was represented and concepts such as identity nationality and sovereignty analyzed The second volume is dedicated to the age of empires and colonialism with particular reference to the colonial policy of the Great Powers England Russia and Italy the reality of post colonial states and to the different patterns of decolonization including specific cases such as South Sudan Azerbaijan Iraq Afghanistan and Palestine Particular attention is paid to the economic systems of different countries and to the area of Southeastern Europe particularly to Romania and its multicultural area Transylvania To the Great War and the dissolution of the multinational empires ample space is dedicated providing insights on border issues ethnic conflicts foreign policies the Adriatic question and the territorial conflict between Yugoslavia and Italy The final part of the book analyzes communism the bipolar system and the East West conflict that divided Europe for almost half a century with specific contributions that discuss post communist nations and states
