Social Problems Issues And Solutions:

Social Problems Charles Zastrow, 1996 The fourth edition of this popular text covers an even greater number of contemporary social problems including welfare and health care reform types of sexual harassment immigration problems and physician assisted suicide Unlike other social problems texts a major focus of this book is to present proposals and programs that have been advanced to attempt to alleviate each of the social problems reviewed This text is organized to cover material in this sequence first deviances and social variations experienced by individuals then inequality problems experienced by certain groups next problems of troubled institutions and finally problems of the changing world This progression from individual problems to more complex problems assists the reader in grasping and understanding increasingly complex material

Understanding Social Problems, Policies, and Programs Leon H. Ginsberg, Julie Miller-Cribbs, 2005 In this fourth edition of a social work standard Leon Ginsberg and Julie Miller Cribbs offer an updated version of the text that has introduced thousands of social work students to the defining policies and procedures of the profession Concise yet comprehensive the volume surveys the span of social welfare history explains the elements of social welfare policy education and describes the impact of executive legislative and judicial initiatives on the delivery of social services

Social Problems in Global Perspective Ronald M. Glassman, William H. Swatos, William H. Swatos, Jr., Barbara J. Denison, 2004-11 The global high tech economy has generated a technological and scientific productive miracle But along with the miracle has come problems Social Problems in Global Perspective focuses on some of these problems including family decline divorce and single parenting the gender war with men and women distrustful and threatened by one another in the workplace the home and the bedroom the moral malaise created by science and religion the media and morality This book presents detailed chapters on the high tech economy religious fundamentalism terrorism and ethnic conflicts It also includes chapters on homosexuality and AIDS the world population explosion and pop culture

Social Issues in Living Color Arthur W. Blume, 2017-02-16 Offering fresh and exciting approaches to solving global problems this book creatively views challenging social issues through the lens of racial and ethnic psychology As the demographic makeup of the American population continues to evolve understanding and addressing the psychological needs of ethnic minorities in the United States becomes more important to the overall health and well being of society This three volume set is the first publication to explicitly tackle social issues from the perspective of racial and ethnic psychology It uniquely presents racial and ethnic psychological perspectives on topics such as media criminal justice racism climate change gender bias and health and mental health disparities Volume one introduces readers to the basic scientific concepts of racial and ethnic minority psychology and then examines the intersectionality of race ethnicity gender and sexual orientation It also addresses how race and ethnicity affect communication styles leadership styles and media The second volume discusses the experiences of individuals within racial and ethnic minorities including overt racism covert racism and colonialism and addresses how ethnic minority psychology plays a role in our educational system poverty global climate change and sustainability The third volume covers ethics in health and research considers the causes of health and mental health disparities and identifies diversity initiatives that can improve the health and well being of all citizens not just racial and ethnic minority citizens Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero, 2022-05-13 The new Seventh Edition of Social Problems Community Policy and Social Action goes beyond the typical presentation of contemporary social problems and their consequences by emphasizing the importance and effectiveness of community involvement to achieve real solutions Constructing Global Challenges in World Politics Alina Isakova, Malte Neuwinger, Robin Schulze Waltrup, Oday Uraiqat, 2024-06-24 This interdisciplinary book investigates the problematization of global challenges in world politics by analyzing what they are and how they come to be Offering a conceptual framework including four modes of construction universalizing bundling upscaling and creating urgency this book provides a heuristic method for understanding how the process of rendering an issue a global challenge unfolds It examines the role of the global challenges discourse which may either reinforce or challenge the dominant orders of world politics such as the capitalist market based system and the liberal international order As a consequence the global challenges discourse facilitates the emergence of new actors and policy fields The book will be of interest to students academics and practitioners of global governance international organizations and more broadly international political economy and international relations

Social Constructionisms Titus Hjelm, 2014-05-22 Social constructionism is one of the key ideas in the social sciences offering different frameworks for understanding the human world But what does it mean when we say that something is socially constructed What exactly do we construct in our social interaction And what actually does the constructing This dynamic text invites critical reflection on these questions and more outlining the various ways that social constructionist theory has been utilised in the social sciences Hjelm introduces the basic assumptions of social constructionism before examining the differences between various constructionist traditions and perspectives from Berger and Luckmann's sociology of knowledge to constructionist approaches in social psychology and discourse analysis Through a diverse range of case studies on religion crime gender and the media the chapters demonstrate how to apply constructionist ideas in empirical social research Social Constructionisms is thus an invaluable source for students and scholars across the social sciences Introduction to Global Social Problems Isaac Zvi Christiansen, 2025-09-08 Introduction to Global Social Problems introduces undergraduate students to national and international social problems from a critical sociological perspective Isaac Zvi Christiansen presents clear descriptions of each social problem explains key concepts and provides students with the relevant theoretical tools needed to grasp the interconnected nature of these phenomena This volume covers significant and interconnected issues The book begins with an explanation of how corporate interests distort the depiction of social problems Chapters 2 and 3 provide empirical explorations of poverty and inequality on national and global scales together with clear and accessible expositions of relevant sociological theories Chapter 4 examines health and educational inequalities exacerbated by the economic inequalities discussed in Chapters 2 and 3 Chapter 5 introduces students to issues of racial inequalities in the United States and abroad while Chapter 6 takes a comparative approach to examining crime and criminal justice Chapter 7 examines modern day imperialism and war with special attention given to the military industrial complex and a brief review of US interventions around the world in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Chapter 8 examines politics and human rights including a critical historical and sociological analysis of Israeli settler colonialism and successive US Israeli assaults on Gaza The book closes with an examination of population and the environment with special attention given to climate change and the pressing contradictions between capitalism and the environment This textbook will be a vital resource for introductory students across the social sciences especially in sociology political science and global studies It provides critical wraparound coverage of the momentous embedded social problems that interconnect across social national and regional boundaries
