Social Suffering:

Social Suffering Arthur Kleinman, Veena Das, Margaret M. Lock, 1997-12-30 Social Suffering takes in the human consequences of war famine depression disease and torture problems that result from what political economic and institutional power does to people Experts have joined together to investigate the cultural representations of A Passion for Society Iain Wilkinson, Arthur Kleinman, 2016-01-26 What does human suffering mean for society And how has this meaning changed from the past to the present In what ways does the problem of suffering serve to inspire us to care for others How does our response to suffering reveal our moral and social conditions In this trenchant work Arthur Kleinman a renowned figure in medical anthropology and Iain Wilkinson an award winning sociologist team up to offer some answers to these profound questions A Passion for Society investigates the historical development and current state of social science with a focus on how this development has been shaped in response to problems of social suffering Following a line of criticism offered by key social theorists and cultural commentators who themselves were unhappy with the professionalization of social science Wilkinson and Kleinman provide a critical commentary on how studies of society have moved from an original concern with social suffering and its amelioration to dispassionate inquiries The authors demonstrate how social action through caring for others is revitalizing and remaking the discipline of social science and they examine the potential for achieving greater understanding through a moral commitment to the practice of care for others In this deeply considered work Wilkinson and Kleinman argue for an engaged social science that connects critical thought with social action that seeks to learn through caregiving and that operates with a commitment to establish and sustain humane forms of society Theoretical Psychology International Society for Theoretical Psychology. Conference, Niamh Stephenson, 2003

Remaking a World Veena Das, 2001-06-04 The ethnographic studies in this volume are outstanding and together offer a brilliant mix of materials for throwing light on the representation of violence and suffering in the public sphere Das and Kleinman introduce the collection with an elegant and deeply insightful set of theoretical reflections on narrative voice and social suffering Kenneth M George author of Showing Signs of Violence Oberdiek, 2003-01-01 Beyond Communication. A Critical Study of Axel Honneth's Social Philosophy Jean-Philippe Dr. Deranty, 2009-06-24 Few thinkers have made such significant contribution to social and political thinking over the last three decades as Axel Honneth His theory of recognition has rejuvenated the political vocabulary and allowed Critical Theory to move beyond Habermas Beyond Communication is the first full scale study of Honneth's work covering the whole range of his writings from his first sociological articles to the latest publications By relocating the theory of recognition within the tradition of European social theory the book exposes the full depth and breadth of Honneth's philosophical intervention The book will be an indispensable resource for anyone interested in contemporary philosophy and the social sciences The Development of Generativity across Adulthood Feliciano Villar, Heather L. Lawford, Michael W. Pratt, 2024-07-15 This volume brings together experts in generativity and related fields to provide a compelling overview of contemporary research and theory on this topic. Generativity refers to a concern for or acting towards the benefit of future generations as a legacy of the self it has implications for outcomes at the individual, relational and social and broader societal levels. Understanding the role and expressions of generativity at various stages of our lives is important to our sense of well being and purpose and it impacts our parenting, caregiving and social relationships as well as having implications for our activities and experiences in the workforce and in voluntary activities in our communities and the wider society. The chapters in this volume explore the meaning and impact of generativity across development and across life contexts and roles. They address generativity within a particular area or life domain or period of the lifespan and outline key methods and findings as well as theoretical issues and applied implications. The volume represents the first comprehensive exploration of generativity from early to late adulthood; it offers a broad international perspective and will inform research into generativity across multiple cultures.

Power and Pilgrimage Sanne Derks, 2009. Power and Pilgrimage is an in depth anthropological study of life at a Bolivian pilgrimage site. It focuses on the experiences of pilgrims and how in their Marian devotion they express and learn to live with the various inequalities they experience in everyday life. Issues of poverty and class inequality lead them to approach the Virgin of Urkupina to support them in their quest for economic betterment. Another social inequality that comes to the fore is based on gender; in particular Bolivian women seek Mary's support to deal with violence and oppression in their homes. Finally ethnic inequalities are discussed by analysing the dance processions in honour of the Virgin since these reflect contested ethnic identities.

Handbook on the Sociology of Health and Medicine Alan Petersen, 2023-11-03. This timely Handbook provides an essential guide to the major topics, perspectives and scholars in the sociology of health and medicine. Biomedicine, Healing and Modernity in Rural Bangladesh Md. Faruk Shah, 2019-12-02. This book provides an ethnographic account of the ways in which biomedicine as a part of the modernization of healthcare has been localized and established as the culturally dominant medical system in rural Bangladesh. Dr Faruk Shah offers an anthropological critique of biomedicine in rural Bangladesh that explains how the existing social inequalities and disparities in healthcare are intensified by the practices undertaken in biomedical health centres through the healthcare bureaucracy and local gendered politics. This work of villagers' healthcare practices leads to a fascinating analysis of the local healthcare bureaucracy, corruption, structural violence, commodification of health, pharmaceutical promotional strategies and gender discrimination in population control. Shah argues that biomedicine has already achieved cultural authority and acceptability at almost all levels of the health sector in Bangladesh. However, in this system healthcare bureaucracy is shaped by social capital, power relations and kin networks and corruption is a central element of daily care practices.
