Social Work And Dementia Good Practice And Care Management:

Best Practice in Social Work Karen Jones, Barry Cooper, Harry Ferguson, 2007-11-27 Social work has laboured too long under a deficit model that focuses on failings and problems of practice Emphasising best practice strengths and collaborative partnership this ambitious book seeks to redress the balance Undergraduate and post qualifying social work students alike will find it a useful resource

Primary Care and Dementia Steve Iliffe, Vari Drennan, Murna Downs, 2001 This practice and training guide is written with the needs of health and social care professionals working with people with dementia in mind The book is illustrated with case studies and includes a chapter on understanding and responding to the needs of the carer such as access to information and support and the effect on their own health

Healing Arts Therapies and Person-centered Dementia Care Anthea Innes, Karen Hatfield, 2002 Offers practical advice for arts therapists and health care professionals delivering person centered dementia care By using case studies of different arts therapies the contributors show the beneficial effects of this approach leading to the benefits of a sense of community and group interaction

Palliative Care, Social Work, and Service Users Peter Beresford, Lesley Adshead, Suzy Croft, 2007 This unique book provides a rare look at social work and palliative care from the perspective of service users Drawing on new original research the authors examine service users experiences tracking their journeys through it exploring the care they receive and the effects of culture and difference through their first hand comments and ideas

Critical Issues in Social Work With Older People Mo G. Ray, Miriam Bernard, Judith Phillips, 2018-06-26 This timely text highlights the importance of informed and critical practice in social work with older people With an emphasis on reflection throughout it argues for the need to rethink how social workers support some of the most vulnerable people in society The text begins with an exploration of the relationship between gerontology the study of aging and social work and demonstrates that a gerontological approach has long been missing from social work practice The central chapters consider key issues affecting older people and social work practice such as Risk of poverty Memory loss and dementia Palliative and end of life care Loss and bereavement Moving into a care home Bringing together theoretical and research insights this agenda setting text provides a sound base for creative practice with older people All those looking to make a positive and discernible difference to older people will find this text rewarding reading

Including the Person with Dementia in Designing and Delivering Care Elizabeth Barnett, 2000 Looking at the roles of those who decide on how what where and when care is given as well as those who deliver care this text outlines recommended measures for working with elderly people who have dementia

Specialist Communication Skills for Social Workers Johanna Woodcock Ross, 2017-09-16 This book gives students a solid understanding of the key issues involved in effective communication within social work settings Now going into its second edition it combines practical examples with a clear theoretical approach and demonstrates the subtleties of communication with specific and diverse service users and carers

difficult day to day decisions to be faced when caring for a person with dementia This book considers these ethical decisions in the context of relationships treatment safety and quality of life offering practical guidance and advice Design for Nature in Dementia Care Garuth Chalfont,2008 Adopts a holistic and person centred approach to caring for dementia sufferers by considering their emotional psychological and spiritual well being Provides comprehensive examples of the wide range of ways a person can connect to nature through indoor and outdoor activities elements and environments
