Meds, Money, and Manners Jerry Floersch,2002-03-06 As case management has replaced institutional care for mental health patients in recent decades case management theory has grown in complexity and variety of models But how are these models translated into real experience How do caseworkers use both textbook and practical knowledge to assist clients with managing their medication and their money Using ethnographic and historical sociological methods Meds Money and Manners The Case Management of Severe Mental Illness uncovers unexpected differences between written and oral accounts of case management in practice In the process it suggests the possibility of small acts of resistance and challenges the myth of social workers as agents of state power and social control

Work, Money and Duality Raven Bowen,2021-05-19 Winner of the British Society of Criminology Annual Book Prize 2022 As the labour market continues to exploit workers by offering precarious low paid and temporary jobs for some duality offers much needed flexibility and staves off poverty Based on extensive empirical work this book illustrates contemporary accounts of individuals taking extraordinary risks to hold jobs in both sex industries and non sex work employment It also opens a dialogue about how sex industries are stratified in the UK in terms of race and culture against the backdrop of Brexit Debunking stereotypes of sex workers and challenging our stigmatisation of them this book makes an invaluable contribution to discourses about work society and future policy

Aging and Money Ronan M. Factora,2014-09-09 Increasingly we hear of more and more elders falling victim to financial exploitation Although this form of elder abuse has been recognized for years its incidence prevalence and impact on the common individual has been only more recently brought to the spotlight Despite these circumstances recognition of risk factors and indicators of financial exploitation are not widely disseminated Additionally once situations are identified and confronted the knowledge of what to do next is lacking These gaps are present within the medical community law enforcement and the finance community areas where opportunities for recognition and intervention are common Our elders often have no idea of what to do when they see their own risk or when they fall victim

Aging and Money Reducing Risk of Financial Exploitation and Protecting Financial Resources helps clinicians to integrate identification of such indicators of abuse into their geriatric assessment as well as guide them in performing an assessment of an individuals financial decision making capacity when appropriate
