Social Work Practice With The Elderly:

Social Work with the Aging Carol H. Meyer, 1986 Social Work Practice with Older People Rory Lynch, 2014 Older people are the biggest service user group for social workers and an increasing portion of the population In this refreshingly positive and practical textbook Rory Lynch draws on years of practice and teaching experience to show how to achieve best social work practice with older adults He takes a person centred approach which fosters respect by valuing the fact that elderly people have more lived experience than others Exploring the key theoretical approaches and methods of intervention this book helps social workers to identify understand and facilitate their service users wishes for wellbeing and a fulfilling older age Chapters are practice driven containing case studies drawn from a range of care settings reflective questions and exercises Mapping directly onto the key modules on the social work degree this is Gerontological Social Work Practice Enid Opal Cox, Rosemary Chapin, Elizabeth Kelchner, 2014-02-25 What are the challenges facing gerontological social workers today and in the near future This book gives you an essential overview of the role status and potential of gerontological social work in aging societies around the world Drawing on the expertise of leaders in the field it identifies key policy and practice issues and suggests directions for the future Here you ll find important perspectives on home health care mental health elder abuse older workers issues and death and dying as well as an examination of the policy and practice issues of utmost concern to social workers dealing with the elderly With Gerontological Social Work Practice Issues Challenges and Potential you ll explore the differences between real situations and what demographics lead one to expect the need for social workers to focus on economic political and social issues in order to promote positive change the long term care insurance issues facing elderly Japanese citizens a Canadian perspective on social work practice with aging people practice techniques to use with aging African Americans strengths based and empowerment oriented ways to work with frail elderly the impact of multiculturalism on social policy and much more Social Work Practice with the Elderly Marvin David Feit, Michael J. Holosko, 2004 The third edition describes significant practice issues and challenges facing gerontological social workers working with the fastest growing demographic cohort in North America Insightful and creative practitioners provide current accounts and case examples from their work in a variety of settings The material includes both micro and macro practice and offers a focus on advanced specialty practice while also providing an advanced generalist model All the chapters have been rewritten and updated by adding related additional readings and websites Six new chapters have been added on sensory impairment HIV AIDS elder abuse community assisted living rural elderly retirement and volunteerism Social Work Practice with the Elderly offers an exciting collection of well crafted readings and will be useful for any social work student at the undergraduate or graduate level It will also be a valuable resource for those in other helping professions who work side by side with social workers in this field nurses physiotherapists music and art therapists psychologists physicians recreational therapists speech and language therapists and clergy Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman, 2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume s 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today Social Work with the Aged and Their Families Roberta R.

Greene, Colleen Galambos, Harriet L. Cohen, Nancy Greene, 2016-11-30 Social Work with the Aged and Their Families presents the functional age model FAM of intergenerational treatment an integrative theoretical framework for social workers practicing with older adults and their families In keeping with the Council on Social Work Education s curriculum mandate of 2015 social workers are now encouraged to use human behavior theories in working with their geriatric clients This fourth edition incorporates much needed additional techniques to address the mental health assessments of the elderly FAM addresses the assessment of older adults biological psychological socio cultural and spiritual age It also incorporates an evaluation of the family system family roles and family development in this assessment Interventions at the individual family group and community levels are discussed This volume augmented with recent concepts related to successful aging spirituality and resiliency presents the major converging conceptual trends that constitute a model for twenty first century social work practice in the field of aging It is an indispensable text for those training in social work practice with the elderly or those currently in practice Social Work with Older People Ann McDonald, 2010-03-08 Social Work with Older People provides an authoritative and practical guide to working with older people in a range of settings It addresses the complexities of individual work with older people as well as work with families groups and the wider community and is not afraid to tackle the challenges as well as opportunities of practice in this area The book begins by explaining the demographic changes that have led to a greying of the general population It goes on to discuss the diversity in experiences of ageing across society and the range of issues which confront older people and those who wish to work proactively with them Clear attention is paid to the processes of assessment care planning and review with readers encouraged to reflect on developing good practice through case studies and exercises Although it has a strong practical emphasis the book also stresses the value of theoretical perspectives with insights from fields such as sociology and psychology woven throughout the book Clear links are also made to policy guidelines and organizational standards without losing sight of the deeper often more complex issues that arise when working with older people Social Work with Older People will be essential reading for social work students and practitioners but also for others who are interested in the development of practice with older people as citizens and service users Social Work Practice with Individuals and Families Michael J.
