Socialism Ideals Ideologies And Local Practice:

Socialism C. M. Hann, 2003-09-02 Socialism as a political system may be on the wane yet no one can doubt that its cultural legacies will make themselves felt for years to come and on a worldwide scale The contributors to this volume adopt a variety of anthropological approaches to illuminate changes which have removed socialists from power in many countries Presenting detailed ethnographic accounts across a wide range of countries they bring out the factors which have given socialism such a profound worldwide impact including a substantial impact upon the discipline of anthropology itself The first sustained and wide ranging investigation of socialism by social anthropologists this volume will enable readers to understand better how socialism has been experienced by millions of people and thereby to now better understand how they may cope with post socialist dilemmas

Socialism C. M. Hann, 1992 Markets and Moralities Caroline Humphrey, Ruth Mandel, 2020-08-05 Before the collapse of the Eastern Bloc private marketeering was regarded not only as criminal but even immoral by socialist regimes Ten years after taking on board western market orientated shock therapy post socialist societies are still struggling to come to terms with the clash between these deeply engrained moralities and the daily pressures to sell and consume This book explores the new market and its resulting contradictions in a rapidly developing Eastern Europe and Russia Will Western fast food industries irrevocably alter local culinary practices What effect has the privatization of land had upon ownership and exchange What role do new commodities play within the household Based on original first hand ethnography this book is a long awaited addition to existing literature on post socialist societies It will be essential reading for students of anthropology sociology European and cultural studies as well as professional groups working in Eastern Europe and Russia including NGOs development organizations and businesses

On the Social Life of Postsocialism Daphne Berdahl, 2010 Anthropologist Daphne Berdahl was one of the leading scholars of the transition from state socialism to capitalism in central and eastern Europe From her pathbreaking ethnography of a former East German border village in the aftermath of German reunification to her insightful analyses of consumption nostalgia and citizenship in the early 21st century Berdahl's writings probe the contradictions paradoxes and ambiguities of postsocialism as few observers have done This volume brings together her essays from an early study of memory at the Vietnam War memorial in Washington D C to research on consumption and citizenship undertaken in Leipzig in the years before her untimely death It serves as a superb introduction to the development of the field of postsocialist cultural studies

, Ritual Revitalisation After Socialism László Foszto, 2009 Although postsocialist Romania ranks as one of the most religious countries in Europe the role of religion in public life is relatively little understood This book investigates a village in Transylvania populated by members of two minority groups Hungarians and Roma Religion and ritual provide important resources for individuals and communities seeking to assert themselves publicly The need for public affirmation among minorities is acute but the forms of ritual they adopt differ Some groups are more receptive to the revival of communal rituals and traditions whereas for others

revitalisation seems to be more effective when it is individually focused through conversion to Pentecostalism The book demonstrates that even within a small community different segments may opt for divergent forms of religious and cultural revival Whereas Calvinism relies on the affirmation of cultural values to mobilise the faithful Pentecostalism advocates a new form of moral personhood which is particularly attractive to Roma The Transition Study of Postsocialist China Wing-Chung Ho,2010 There is no denying that China has experienced and is still experiencing radical changes generally initiated by the vibrant market driven economy that began in the late 1970s The question remains however of what has happened to those who just a few decades before experienced pride and power in being part of the proletariat How do they make sense of the past and face up to the uncertainties of the future This book presents an anthropological investigation into their lives and memories in order to understand their situation Presently a working class neighborhood in Shanghai Cucumber Lane was in the 1960s a well known socialist model community being transformed from an urban slum in the 1940s The neighborhood was further recast as a civilized small community in the 1990s Based on oral histories as well as ethnographic observations and pertinent historical materials this book portrays the ways the Chinese have been making sense of and coping with radical changes during a period punctuated by shifts in political priorities vicissitudes in ideological orientation changes in the way they conceive of their relationship with the state and enterprises the de politicization of social identities the rise and fall of collectivism and the explosive vitality of the new market economy Politics and Drama Onder Cakirtas,2019-01-03 By comparing the literary works of two of the greatest playwrights of our time onder Cakirtas reveals the similarities and contrasts between their political views and the political backdrop of their respective nations In Britain George Bernard Shaw the leading British dramatist for the first half of the twentieth century wrote his plays to explicitly reflect his socialist political and economic views and highlight the need for equal rights for women In Turkey decades later Orhan Asena confronted similar issues with plays that challenged the dominant political powers of his time a stance which ultimately led to his political exile from Turkey Urban Spaces After Socialism Tsypylma Darieva,Wolfgang Kaschuba,Melanie Krebs,2011-11 The two decades following the collapse of the Soviet Union brought great changes to the new nations on its periphery This text offers a detailed ethnographic look at one area of change the use and understanding of public space in the region s cities Nation-building and Identities in Post-Soviet Societies Andrea Friedli,Aline Gohard-Radenkovic,François Ruegg,2017 Research by social scientists on multicultural and multilingual post Soviet societies is manifold However there rarely exists a dialogue between academic fields traditions and ideologies This book critically reunites different academic generations and traditions different disciplines and different geographical and cultural backgrounds by keeping the plurality of the approaches The contributions discuss the roles of ideologies education and ethnic linguistic and religious identities in the post Soviet nation building processes The included case studies show continuities and discontinuities in the ideological and political aspects of nation building and identity management in post
