Socialismo Yel Hombre en Cuba Ernesto Che Guevara, 1988-01-01 El Socialismo y el hombre en Cuba Che Guevara, 1971 Abstract Expressionism Joan M. Marter, 2007 A collection of essays that discuss abstract expressionist art Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process Cuba and the New Origenismo James Buckwalter-Arias,2010 While Cuban literature was being recommodified for an international publishing industry various Cuban writers reclaimed the cultural movement associated with the magazine Or genes The literary texts examined in this study were written in the 1990s in the wake of a paradigm crisis for socialism and revolution The Social Life of Literature in Revolutionary Cuba Par Kumaraswami,2016-10-05 This study explores the social functions of literature from the perspective of policymakers writers readers and residents in contemporary Cuba It provides a new perspective on post 59 Cuban literature that underlines how cultural policy has made literature a hybrid activity between elite and mass culture with inherent social rather than aesthetic or political value Whilst many traditional studies of Cuban literature assume either its subjugation to politics and ideology or conversely its role in resisting political discourse via a rather na ve notion of artistic freedom this project explores the varied dynamic and multiple ways in which literature works in Cuban society as a catalyst for identity construction aimed at consensus and belonging but also as an instrument of self differentiation and self definition even in the more recent context of a more market oriented system The study reviews policy from 1959 to the present and presents contemporary casestudies exploring the social functions of literature for writers readers and ordinary Havana residents El socialismo y el hombre en Cuba Ernesto Guevara,1992 El socialismo y el hombre en Cuba Ernesto Guevara,1965 Culture and the Cuban State Yvon Grenier,2017-11-08 Culture and the Cuban State examines the politics of culture in communist Cuba It focuses on cultural policy censorship and the political participation of artists writers and academics such as Tania Bruguera Jes s D az Rafael Hern ndez Kcho Reynier Leyva Novo Leonardo Padura and Jos Toirac The cultural field is important for the reproduction of the regime in place given its pretense and ambition to be eternally revolutionary and to lead a genuine cultural revolution Cultural actors must be mobilized and handled with care given their presumed disposition to speak their mind and to cherish their autonomy This book argues that cultural actors also seek recognition by the main for a long time the only sponsor and patron of the art in Cuba the curator state The curator state is also a gatekeeper state arbitrarily and selectively opening and closing the space for public expression and for access to foreign currencies and the global market The time when everything was either mandatory or forbidden is over in Cuba The regime seems to have learned from egregious mistakes that led to a massive exodus of artists writers and academics In a country where things change so everything could stay the same the controlled opening in the cultural field playing on the actors ambition and fear illuminates a broader phenomenon the evolving rules of the political game in the longest standing dictatorship of the hemisphere Homosexuality and Invisibility in Revolutionary Cuba María Encarnación Martín López,2015 Offers alternative insights into the complex relationship between politics and intelligentsia in revolutionary Cuba Corporeal Readings of Cuban Literature and Art Christina M. Tracing corporeality and materiality across Cuban texts and images of the twentieth century This volume looks at Cuban literature and art that challenge traditional assumptions about the body Examining how writers and artists have depicted racial gender and species differences throughout the past century Christina García identifies historical continuities in the way they have emphasized the shared materiality of bodies García shows how these works interact with ecologies of the human and nonhuman across diverse media time periods and ideologies García examines corporeality in a variety of works including the poetry of Nicolás Guillén and experimental writings of Severo Sarduy transspecies drawings paintings and sculptures by Roberto Fabelo Tomás Gutiérrez Alea's popular queer film Fresa y chocolate and contemporary narrative fictions by Ena Lucía Portela Antonio José Ponte and Ahmel Echevarría Using the lenses of new materialism critical race studies critical animal studies queer studies and poststructuralism García engages with Cuban cultural production at the intersection of diverse social issues In this book García explores how certain artistic practices focus on portraying ecological relationships instead of recognizable subjects or shared identity Corporeal Readings of Cuban Literature and Art demonstrates that through their attention to the connections that different kinds of bodies share Cuban creators have long undermined rules of classification and unification reimagining community as shared vulnerability and difference Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Ford, 2010-02-01 This book looks at Cuban and Argentine theater of the late 1960s and early 1970s to see how the idea of spectacle as violence was used to comment on and question the social and political violence that was unfolding offstage

Forms of Disappointment Lanie Millar, 2019-09-01 Analyzes parallel developments in post Cold War literature and film from Cuba and Angola to trace a shared history of revolutionary enthusiasm disappointment and solidarity In Forms of Disappointment Lanie Millar traces the legacies of anti imperial solidarity in Cuban and Angolan novels and films after 1989 Cuba's intervention in Angola's post independence civil war from 1976 to 1991 was its longest and most engaged internationalist project and left a profound mark on the culture of both nations After the fall of the Berlin Wall Millar argues Cuban and Angolan writers and filmmakers responded to this collective history and adapted to new postsocialist realities in analogous ways developing what she characterizes as works of disappointment Revamping and riffing on earlier texts and forms of revolutionary enthusiasm works of disappointment lay bare the aesthetic and political fragmentation of the public sphere while continuing to register the promise of leftist political projects Pushing past the binaries that tend to dominate histories of the Cold War and its aftermath Millar gives priority to the perspectives of artists in the Global South illuminating networks of anticolonial and racial solidarity and showing how their works not only reflect shared feelings of disappointment but also call for ethical gestures of empathy and reconciliation Forms of Disappointment offers an insightful and unique comparative analysis of a body of works produced in the post Cold War period By focusing on the Global South instead of the customary north south relationship favored by Cuba experts the book contributes significantly to the fields of Cuban African and Latin American Studies and more broadly to affect theory and postcolonial studies It is remarkably well written with elegant and clear prose Marta Hernández Salvá n author of Mimicry Cuba Heretical Poetics and Power in Post Soviet Cuba
