Society And Exchange In Nias:

Exchange, Action, and Social Structure Milan Zafirovski, 2001-07-30 This unique volume provides a new interpretation and synthesis of network exchange theory in an effort to contribute to a neo Weberian economic sociology Arguing against commonly held assumptions about network exchange theory and its interpretation of all social actions as economic exchanges Zafirovski seeks to explain these processes by employing an interdisciplinary approach and by examining the impact of social and institutional structures on market economic exchange The author argues that economic structure processes and actions are the outcomes of social action and institutions not the other way around This rehabilitation of economic sociology begins with a reconsideration of the character scope and development of the field The author then grounds his sociological approach to economic exchange in social action and structure before examining the role of social motivations in economic exchange He then examines the political structuration the cultural constitution and the social construction of economic exchange and exchange cycles The book concludes with a discussion of the character and variation of economic exchange in comparative social systems and the relationships of exchange economic development and social variables This unique and persuasive book is an important contribution to the study of economic sociology and sociological theory

Ancient Religions of the Austronesian World Julian Baldick, 2013-05-07 Austronesia is the vast oceanic region which stretches from Madagascar to Taiwan to New Zealand Encompassing both scattered archipelagos and major landmasses Austronesia derived from the Latin australis southern and Greek nesos island is used primarily as a linguistic term designating a family of languages spoken by peoples with a shared heritage Julian Baldick a celebrated historian of ancient religion here argues that the diverse inhabitants of the Philippines Taiwan Indonesia New Guinea and Oceania show a common inheritance that extends beyond language This commonality is found above all in mythology and ritual which reach back to an ancient prehistoric past From around 1250 BCE the original proto Oceanic speakers migrated eastwards from South East Asia Navigating by the sun the stars bird flight the swells of the sea and cloud swathed mountain islands Austronesian voyagers used canoes and outriggers to settle on new territories They developed a unified pattern of religion characterised by mortuary rites headhunting and agrarian rituals of the annual calendar culminating in a post harvest festival often sexual in nature This unique overview of Austronesian belief and tradition the author's final book and published posthumously will be essential reading for students of religion prehistory and anthropology

How Kinship Systems Change Robert Parkin, 2021-07-16 Using some of his landmark publications on kinship along with a new introduction chapter and conclusion Robert Parkin discusses here the changes in kinship terminologies and marriage practices as well as the dialectics between them The chapters also focus on a suggested trajectory linking South Asia and Europe and the specific question of the status of Crow Omaha systems The collection culminates in the argument that whereas marriage systems and practices seem infinitely varied when examined from a very close perspective the terminologies that accompany them are much more

Traditions and Transformations of Habitation in Indonesia Bagoes Wiryomartono, 2020-03-04 This book raises the issue of the practice of patrimonial power with a focus on habitations particularly in the urban areas of Indonesia. An assemblage of interdisciplinary studies within the framework of environmental humanities covering the arts, architecture, urban studies, geography, cultural anthropology, and sociology, this multifaceted framework divulges the interactive connectivity between Indonesia's patrimonial culture and the socio-culturally constructed system of habitation. The interdisciplinary study of the pertinent practices of patrimonial power that have been represented and been manifested by various political and traditional regimes in terms of the built environment and habitation in Indonesia contributes to a new understanding of Indonesian urban spatial development from the pre-colonial era to the present. The book poses that in order to understand the politics of Indonesia, one must understand the culture and tradition of the political leadership of the country. The author presents such an understanding in exploring and unpacking the relationship between people and place that constructs, develops, sustains, and conserves Indonesian culture and traditions of habitation. This book is of interest to graduate scholars and researchers in Asian Studies in numerous disciplines including urban studies, urban planning, and design, political science, architecture, anthropology of space, public administration, and political philosophy.

Perspectives on Traditional Settlements and Communities Bagoes Wiryomartono, 2014-02-18 This book covers the relationship between societies and their culture in the context of traditional settlement in Indonesia. The focus of the study is on the search for meanings of local concepts. This study reveals and analyzes the concepts concerning home and their sociocultural strategies for maintaining a sense of community and identity. In this study, identifying local concepts becomes the hallmark and the hub of analyses that explore, verify, and establish relations between ideas and phenomena. Based on these relations, this study attempts to capture the reality of the local world that upholds and sustains the communities' values, norms, and principles for what they may call a homeland. The book is organized into two parts. Part I describes a cross-regional habitation in Indonesia, while Part II presents four ethnic regions of Indonesia: Sunda, Toraja, Bali, Naga, and Minangkabau. Their unique traditions, customs, beliefs, and attitudes serve to provide diversity in terms of their backgrounds and lifestyles, though they share the challenge of sustaining their sense of home in the face of modernity as characterized by changes and developments toward a technologically industrialized society. The central research questions are: What is development in terms of culture and environmental sustainability? How do these communities respond to modernity?

Encyclopedia of Stateless Nations James B. Minahan, 2016-08-01 This book addresses the numerous national movements of ethnic groups around the world seeking independence, more self-rule, or autonomy, movements that have proliferated exponentially in the 21st century. In the last 15 years, globalization, religious radicalization, economic changes, endangered cultures and languages, cultural suppression, racial tensions, and many other factors have stimulated the emergence of autonomy and independence movements in every corner of the world, even in areas formerly considered immune to self-government demands, such as

South America Researching the numerous ethnic groups seeking autonomy or independence worldwide previously required referencing many specialized publications This book makes this difficult to find information available in a single volume presented in a simple format accessible to everyone from high school readers to scholars in advanced studies programs The book provides an extensive update to Greenwood's Encyclopedia of the Stateless Nations Ethnic and National Groups around the World that was published more than a decade earlier Each ethnic group receives an alphabetically organized entry containing information such as alternate names population figures flag or flags geography history culture and languages All the information readers need to understand the motivating factors behind each movement and the current situation of each ethnic group is presented in a compact summary Fact boxes at the beginning of each entry enable students to quickly access key information and consistent entry structure makes for easy cross cultural comparisons The Pastoral Continuum Paul Spencer, 1998-01-29 Paul Spencer presents the definitive study of the ways of life of the cattle herding peoples of East Africa drawing on many years of research This region has offered a prime example of a traditional culture resisting the inevitability of change it provides the best known and most extensive instance both of cattle pastoralist society and of social organization based primarily on age Pastoral peoples were once dominant in the East African interior but development of the market economy has progressively polarized the region and forced them into the most marginal drought ridden areas in this ecological trap they have become a peripheral underclass The Pastoral Continuum examines the richness and resilience of their cultures and illuminates the role of indigenous practices and institutions in adaptation and survival The pastoralists systems of age organization in particular are notable for their resilience it is demonstrated that these are bound up with problems of growth and succession in family enterprises and that marriage is a critical link in the web of alliance that governs the problematic relations between old and young Spencer's exploration of the development of the pastoralist phenomenon yields a unique view of its place in the modern world and its prospects for the future This landmark work by a leading authority will be of lasting value to any reader interested in traditional social systems of this kind The Cognitive Science of Religion D. Jason Slone, William W. McCorkle Jr., 2019-01-10 The Cognitive Science of Religion introduces students to key empirical studies conducted over the past 25 years in this new and rapidly expanding field In these studies cognitive scientists of religion have applied the theories findings and research tools of the cognitive sciences to understanding religious thought behaviour and social dynamics Each chapter is written by a leading international scholar and summarizes in non technical language the original empirical study conducted by the scholar No prior or statistical knowledge is presumed and studies included range from the classic to the more recent and innovative cases Students will learn about the theories that cognitive scientists have employed to explain recurrent features of religiosity across cultures and historical eras how scholars have tested those theories and what the results of those tests have revealed and suggest Written to be accessible to undergraduates this provides a much needed survey of empirical studies in the cognitive science of religion

Nationalism and Hybridity in Mongolia Uradyn Erden Bulag,1998 Uradyn Bulag presents a unique study of what it means to be Mongolian today Mongolian nationalism emerging from a Soviet dominated past and facing a Chinese threatened future has led its adherents to stress purity in an effort to curb the outside influences on Mongolian culture and identity This sort of nationalism views the Halh the indigenous Mongols as pure Mongols and other Mongol groups as impure This Halh centrism excites and exploits fears that Mongolia will be swallowed by China it stands in opposition to pan Mongolism the view that links between Mongols of all kinds should be strengthened Bulag draws on an abundance of illuminating research findings to argue that Mongols are facing a choice between a purist racialized nationalism inherited from Soviet discourses of nationalism and a more open adaptive nationalism which accepts diversity hybridity and multiculturalism He calls into question the idea of Mongolia as a homogeneous place and people and urges that unity should be sought through acknowledgement of diversity

Enjoying the Beat of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Society And Exchange In Nias

In a world taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic elegance and mental symphony produced by the prepared term often fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Society And Exchange In Nias an enchanting fictional value overflowing with fresh emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching examination, we will discover the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
