Society Without The Father A Contribution To Social Psychology:

Society Without the Father Alexander Mitscherlich, 1993 A classic book for the Men's Movement with a new Foreword by Robert Bly In his now famous study Mitscherlich the former director of the Sigmund Freud Institute states that since the rise of industrial mass society the authority structures based on the image of the father have broken down resulting in increasingly impersonal relationships between fathers and sons

Society Without Father Alexander Mitscherlich, 1990

Society Without The Father Alexander Mitscherlich, 1970 Deconstructing Scandinavia's "Achievement Generation"

Ole Jacob Madsen, 2021-04-12 In this book Professor Ole Jacob Madsen analyses the implications of Scandinavia's current concern for the mental health problems of adolescents said to be struggling in the face of increasing demands for achievement and success It critically examines our understanding of this so called achievement generation questioning whether today's youth are really worse off than previous generations and how we have come to believe that this is so The author's wide ranging investigation draws on a large body of research as well as considering socio political historical and regional factors that might be affecting the resilience and mental health among young people It also provides original psycholinguistic studies of popular media concepts associated with these issues including the achievement generation pathological perfection and the good girl syndrome Deconstructing Scandinavia's Achievement Generation presents an engaging contribution to key debates around therapeutic culture and society in the 21st century It will appeal to students and scholars of critical and social psychology sociology anthropology philosophy as well as to those working in education social work and mental health

Jazz, Rock, and Rebels Uta G. Poiger, 2000-03-03 In the two decades after World War II Germans on both sides of the iron curtain fought vehemently over American cultural imports Uta G Poiger traces how westerns jeans jazz rock n roll and stars like Marlon Brando or Elvis Presley reached adolescents in both Germanies who eagerly adopted the new styles Poiger reveals that East and West German authorities deployed gender and racial norms to contain Americanized youth cultures in their own territories and to carry on the ideological Cold War battle with each other Poiger's lively account is based on an impressive array of sources ranging from films newspapers and contemporary sociological studies to German and U S archival materials Jazz Rock and Rebels examines diverging responses to American culture in East and West Germany by linking these to changes in social science research political cultures state institutions and international alliance systems In the first two decades of the Cold War consumer culture became a way to delineate the boundaries between East and West This pathbreaking study the first comparative cultural history of the two Germanies sheds new light on the legacy of Weimar and National Socialism on gender and race relations in Europe and on Americanization and the Cold War

No Direction Home Natasha Zaretsky, 2007 Homeward unbound prisoners of war national defeat and the crisis of male authority Getting the house in order the oil embargo consumption and the limits of American power The great male cop out productivity lag and the end of the family wage The spirit of 76 the Bicentennial and Cold War revivalism

Government is Us 2.0 Cheryl Simrell King, 2014-12-17 This book talks about the relationships amongst and between citizens and their governments the possibilities of governing differently in ways that don't oppress marginalize or limit people and about bringing different sensibilities to the practices of administration in US Another Mother Cesare

Casarino, Andrea Righi, 2018-12-18 A groundbreaking volume introduces the unique feminist thought of the longstanding Italian group known as Diotima Introducing Anglophone readers to a potent strain of Italian feminism known to French Spanish and German audiences but as yet unavailable in English Another Mother argues that the question of the mother is essential to comprehend the matrix of contemporary culture and society and to pursue feminist political projects Focusing on Diotima a community of women philosophers deeply involved in feminist politics since the 1960s this volume provides a multifaceted panorama of its engagement with currents of thought including structuralism psychoanalysis linguistics and Marxism Starting from the simple insight that the mother is the one who gives us both life and language these thinkers develop concepts of the mother and sexual difference in contemporary society that differ in crucial ways from both French and U S feminisms Arguing that Diotima anticipates many of the themes in contemporary philosophical discourses of biopolitics exemplified by thinkers such as Giorgio Agamben Antonio Negri and Roberto Esposito Another Mother opens an important space for reflections on the past history of feminism and on feminism's future Contributors Anne Emmanuelle Berger Paris 8 Vincennes Saint Denis Ida Dominijanni Luisa Muraro Diana Sartori U of Verona Chiara Zamboni U of Verona

Another Cosmopolitanism Seyla Benhabib, 2006-11-09 In these two important lectures distinguished political philosopher Seyla Benhabib argues that since the UN Declaration of Human Rights in 1948 we have entered a phase of global civil society which is governed by cosmopolitan norms of universal justice norms which are difficult for some to accept as legitimate since they are in conflict with democratic ideals In her first lecture Benhabib argues that this tension can never be fully resolved but it can be mitigated through the renegotiation of the dual commitments to human rights and sovereign self determination Her second lecture develops this idea in detail with special reference to recent developments in Europe for example the banning of Muslim head scarves in France The EU has seen the replacement of the traditional unitary model of citizenship with a new model that disaggregates the components of traditional citizenship making it possible to be a citizen of multiple entities at the same time The volume also contains a substantive introduction by Robert Post the volume editor and contributions by Bonnie Honig Northwestern University Will Kymlicka Queens University and Jeremy Waldron Columbia School of Law

Archetype Anthony Stevens, 2013-04-15 Commonly dismissed as mystical by scientists archetypes were described by Jung as biological entities which have evolved through natural selection and which if they exist at all must be amenable to empirical study Anthony Stevens has discovered the key to opening up this long ignored scientific approach to the archetype
