Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement ,1928 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,Bertha Tannehill,Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer,1919 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1910 Reading Cultures Molly Abel Travis,1998 Molly Abel Travis unites reader theory with an analysis of historical conditions and various cultural contexts in this discussion of the reading and reception of twentieth century literature in the United States Travis moves beyond such provisional conclusions as the text produces the reader or the reader produces the text and considers the ways twentieth century readers and texts attempt to constitute and appropriate each other at particular cultural moments and according to specific psychosocial exigencies She uses the overarching concept of the reader in and out of the text both to differentiate the reader implied by the text from the actual reader and to discuss such in and out movements that occur in the process of reading as the alternation between immersion and interactivity and between role playing and unmasking Unlike most reader theorists Travis is concerned with the agency of the reader Her conception of agency in reading is informed by performance psychoanalytic and feminist theories This agency involves compulsive reiterative performance in which readers attempt to find themselves by going outside the self engaging in literary role playing in the hope of finally and fully identifying the self through self differentiation Furthermore readers never escape a social context they are both constructed and actively constructing in that they read as part of interpretive communities and are involved in collaborative creativity or what Kendall Walton calls collective imagining

Creativity and Sociology Matteo Jacopo Zaterini,Corrado Punzi,Mariano Longo,2025-05-23 Creativity and Sociology Doing Social Research with and on Artistic Sources explores the relationship between artistic and sociological narratives considering the ways in which artistic narratives in their different forms can be both subjects of sociological observation and tools for the sociological analysis of reality Thematically divided into sections that focus on doing sociology on art and doing sociology with art it observes the major forms of art including literature music theatre painting photography cinematography and interactive arts such as videogames examining each as objects and instruments of sociological analysis as narratives that can offer new perspectives on the world Bringing together under a single epistemological framework area of research that frequently remains separate or beyond sociological framing this book will appeal to scholars of sociology social theory and
