Selected Poems, 1933-1988 Gavin Ewart, 1988 Gavin Ewart one of Britain's finest and most original poets is presented here in a half century retrospective His subjects various and his approach toothsome scathing he believes good light verse is better than bad heavy verse any day of the week Consider one of his briefest poems The Lover Reflects Afterwards Perhaps I was greedy I know I should be grateful You wanted a snack and I wanted a plateful An inventive technical master creator of the Ewart form he stalks his favorite prey hypocrisy love's foibles the pseudos with a razor sharp wit There is iron in irony although you smile he writes in one poem I have my language you have yours a lower archy is a hierarchy viewed from above

Coming to Age Carolyn Hopley, Mary Ann Hoberman, 2020-04-14 This exquisitely giftable anthology of poems about age and aging reveals the wisdom of trailblazing writers who found power and growth later in life At eighty two the novelist Penelope Lively wrote Our experience is one unknown to most of humanity over time We are the pioneers Coming to Age is a collection of dispatches from the great poet pioneers who have been fortunate enough to live into their later years Those later years can be many things a time of harvesting of gathering together the various strands of the past and weaving them into a rich fabric They can also be a new beginning an exploration of the unknown We speak of growing old And indeed as we too often forget aging is growing growing into a new stage of life one that can be a fulfillment of all that has come before To everything there is a season Poetry speaks to them all Just as we read newspapers for news of the world we read poetry for news of ourselves Poets particularly those who have lived and written into old age have much to tell us Bringing together a range of voices both present and past from Emily Dickinson and W H Auden to Louise Gluck and Li Young Lee Coming to Age reveals new truths offers spiritual sustenance and reminds us of what we already know but may have forgotten illuminating the profound beauty and significance of commonplace moments that become more precious and radiant as we grow older

The Gavin Ewart Show Gavin Ewart, 1986-01-01      A Wild Perfection James Wright, 2005-08-17 The life and work of a major American poet described in his own words There is something about the very form and occasion of a letter the possibility it offers the chance to be as open and tentative and uncertain as one likes and also the chance to formulate certain ideas very precisely if one is lucky in one's thoughts wrote James Wright one of the great lyric poets of the last century in a letter to a friend A Wild Perfection is a compelling collection that captures the exhilarating and moving correspondence between Wright and his many friends In letters to fellow poets Donald Hall Theodore Roethke Galway Kinnell James Dickey

Mary Oliver and Robert Bly Wright explored subjects from his creative process to his struggles with depression and illness A bright thread of wit gallantry and passion for describing his travels and his beloved natural world runs through these letters which begin in 1946 in Martin s Ferry Ohio the hometown he would memorialize in verse and end in New York City where he lived for the last fourteen years of his life Selected Letters is no less than an epistolary chronicle of a significant part of the midcentury American poetry renaissance as well as the clearest biographical picture now available of a major American poet
