Hanlan Book Award Winner the Association for the Study of Connecticut History's Homer D. Babbidge Jr. Award Incomparably vivid as enthralling a portrait of family life in colonial New England as we are likely to have Wall Street Journal In the tradition of Laurel Thatcher Ulrich's classic A Midwife's Tale comes this groundbreaking narrative by one of America's most promising colonial historians Joshua Hempstead was a well-respected farmer and tradesman in New London Connecticut As his remarkable diary kept from 1711 until 1758 reveals he was also a slave owner who owned Adam Jackson for over thirty years In this engrossing narrative of family life and the slave experience in the colonial North Allegra di Bonaventura describes the complexity of this master-slave relationship and traces the intertwining stories of two families until the eve of the Revolution Slavery is often left out of our collective memory of New England's history but it was hugely impactful on the central unit of colonial life the family In every corner the lines between slavery and freedom were blurred as families across the social spectrum fought to survive In this enlightening study a new portrait of an era emerges

Reared in a Greenhouse Dorothy B. Wexler, 2014-03-05 Beloved as the family storyteller Dorothy Winthrop Bradford left behind at her death in 1987 diaries letters scrapbooks and memorabilia that date back to the Civil War and provide a picture of a way of life long gone of a period when leisure time was plentiful and cars were few when her hometown of Hamilton Massachusetts was open country and Boston a closed society These materials provide an intimate view of the vanished lifestyle of the upper classes between the two world wars At the heart of the story is Dorothy Bradford's own life and the 82 years she spent in the small town where she was born It was a life however set against the vast canvas of her extended family whose stories transport the reader back to colonial times where one of her ancestors was the first governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and far across America and to the Caribbean Europe and Africa From the Civil War to the Second World War from turn of the century Puerto Rico to the glories of the still unspoiled West the book is a virtual who's who of American history filled with cameos by Teddy Roosevelt Edith Wharton Oliver Wendell Holmes Henry James Thomas Jefferson and many more Richly illustrated with more than 300 photographs this intriguing volume looks at a woman whose life may have seemed on the surface narrow and predictable but in reality touched upon many of the great currents of American history
