All Poets Welcome Daniel Kane, 2003-03-26 This landmark book together with its accompanying CD captures the heady excitement of the vibrant irreverent poetry scene of New York s Lower East Side in the 1960s Drawing from personal interviews with many of the participants from unpublished letters and from rare sound recordings Daniel Kane brings together for the first time the people political events and poetic roots that coalesced into a highly influential community From the poetry reading venues of the early sixties such as those at the Les Deux M gots and Le Metro coffeehouses to The Poetry Project at St Mark s Church a vital forum for poets to this day Kane traces the history of this literary renaissance showing how it was born from a culture of publicly performed poetry The Lower East Side in the sixties proved foundational in American verse culture a defining era for the artistic and political avant garde The voices and works of John Ashbery Amiri Baraka Charles Bernstein Bill Berkson Ted Berrigan Kenneth Koch Bernadette Mayer Ron Padgett Denise Levertov Paul Blackburn Frank O Hara and many others enliven these pages and the thirty five track CD includes recordings of several of the poets reading from their work in the sixties and seventies The Lower East Side s cafes coffeehouses and salons brought together poets of various aesthetic sensibilities including writers associated with the so called New York School Beats Black Mountain Deep Image San Francisco Renaissance Umbra and others Kane shows that the significance for literary history of this loosely defined community of poets and artists lies in part in its reclaiming an orally centered poetic tradition adapted specifically to open up the possibilities for an aesthetically daring playful poetics and a politics of joy and resistance

Better Red Constance Coiner, 1995 Better Red is an interdisciplinary study addressing the complicated intersection of American feminism and the political left as refracted in Tillie Olsen s and Meridel Le Sueur s lives and literary texts The first book length study to explore these feminist writers ties to the American Communist Party it contributes to a reenvisioning of 1930s U S Communism as well as to efforts to promote working class writing as a legitimate category of literary analysis At once loyal members of the male dominated Communist party and emerging feminists Olsen and Le Sueur exhibit in their writing tendencies both toward and away from Party tenets and attitudes at points subverting formalist as well as orthodox Marxist literary categories By producing working class discourse Olsen and Le Sueur challenge the bourgeois assumptions often masked as classless and universal of much canonical literature and by creating working class women's writing they problematize the patriarchal nature of the Left and the masculinist assumptions of much proletarian literature anticipating the concerns of second wave feminists a generation later

Ordinary Paradise Richard Teleky, 2018-04-09 While representing the best of human endeavor works of art have become ordinary features of our lives familiar and reliably present writes Richard Teleky They are however extraordinary So extraordinary in fact that in themselves they are a kind of paradise In Ordinary Paradise acclaimed author critic and editor Richard Teleky considers a variety of artistic forms from novels and poems to paintings and sculptures to movies and musical compositions in celebration of the creative achievements that surround us and affect our daily lives He examines as well some of the challenges and tensions in any artist's life The essays in Ordinary Paradise challenge conventional wisdom and exemplify a dynamic and lively critical approach pointing out troubling trends in contemporary appreciation of art and culture They reveal the rewarding complexities of the demanding art of translation the nostalgic power of re-reading in provoking self-assessment and the fraught connection between language silence and identity as they relate to marginalized voices Teleky immerses himself into ideas of truth beauty and humanity and in so doing provides a compelling exemplar for engaging with contemporary culture and learning the innumerable lessons that artistic accomplishments have to teach us

The Genre of Silence Duncan Bush, Victor Bal, 1988 Duncan Bush's new work brings to life at times painfully the work of the Russian poet Victor Bal who disappeared under Stalinism This surprising and original new book recalls the period by an intermingling of history and fiction which imaginative writers have always understood but that historians have rarely admitted The Genre of Silence is illustrated by the artist John Selway from original etchings Duncan Bush was born and brought up in Cardiff Wales He was educated at Warwick Duke and Oxford Universities His collection Masks 1994 was a PBS Recommendation and Arts Council of Wales Book of the Year He has also published novels Glass Shot Secker and The Genre of Silence as well as scripts for stage and screen He currently divides his time between Wales and Europe

The Word

Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task In the Shadow of Vietnam W.D. Ehrhart,2016-03-02 Twenty three powerful moving angry and wise essays published over a period of 15 years on subjects ranging from South Africa to Central America the United States to the Soviet Union all bound together by the lingering physical psychological political and intellectual sensibilities the author first developed as a young enlisted Marine during the Vietnam war Four of the essays deal with Ehrhart s second return to Vietnam in 1990 The Riddle of Cantinflas Ilan Stavans,2012-12-01 Ilan Stavans s collection of essays on kitsch and high art in the Americas makes a return with thirteen new colorful conversations that deliver Stavans s trademark wit and provocative analysis A Dream Act Deferred discusses an issue that is at once and always topical in the dialogue of Hispanic popular culture immigration This essay generated a vociferous response when first published in The Chronicle of Higher Education as the issue of immigration was contested in states like Arizona and is included here as a new addition that adds a rich layer to Stavans s vibrant discourse Fitting in this reconfiguration of his analytical conversations on Hispanic popular culture is Stavans s Arrival Notes from an Interloper which recounts his origins as a social critic and provides the reader with interactive insight into the mind behind the matter Once again delightfully humorous and perceptive Stavans delivers an expanded collection that has the power to go even further beyond common assumptions and helps us understand Mexican popular culture and its counterparts in the United States Children Beware! Filipa Antunes,2020-02-07 How does a culture respond when the limits of childhood become uncertain The emergence of pre adolescence in the 1980s which is signified by the new PG 13 rating for film disrupted the established boundaries between childhood and adulthood The concept of pre adolescence affected not only America s pillar ideals of family and childhood innocence but also the very foundation of the horror genre s identity its association with maturity and exclusivity Cultural disputes over the limits of childhood and horror were explicitly articulated in the children s horror trend 1980 1997 a cluster of child oriented horror titles in film and other media which included Gremlins The Gate the Goosebumps series and others As the first serious analysis of the children s horror trend with a focus on the significance of ratings this book provides a complete chart of its development while presenting it as a document of American culture s adaptation to pre adolescence Each important children s horror title corresponds to a key moment of ideological negotiation cultural power struggles and industrial compromise Strong Opinions Chris Danta,Sue Kossew,Julian Murphet,2011-07-14 This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee s work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee's most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure. The first is the exposure of place, Coetzee's decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia. The second is the exposure of form, Coetzee's direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels. And the third is the exposure of limits, Coetzee's explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life. The Place It Was Done Šárka

Bubíková, Olga Roebuck, 2023-03-03 Locations play an important role in every story, but in British and American contemporary crime fiction they are often inextricable from the narrative. This work examines the city, the countryside and the wilderness as places ripe with literary significance and symbolism. Using works by authors like Robert Galbraith, Ian Rankin, Denise Mina, Chris Brookmyre, John Knox, Peter Robinson, Linda Barnes, Dana Stabenow, Nevada Barr, Les Roberts, Philip R. Craig and others, this work offers a fresh assessment of how place and space are employed in contemporary crime fiction. Highlighted are similarities and differences among the authors' approaches to setting and how they relate to the history of crime fiction and to the general literary representation of place. Going beyond mere literary geography, the book engages the sociocultural dimensions of the communities affected by crime. Chapters also analyze the reader's perception, recognition and appreciation of place and community. The Poetry of Robert Browning Britta Martens, 2016-01-01

Robert Browning's pre-eminent status amongst Victorian poets has endured despite the recent broadening of the literary canon. He is the main practitioner of the period's most important poetic genre, the dramatic monologue, while his engagement with many aspects of nineteenth-century culture makes him a key figure in the wider field of Victorian studies. This stimulating introduction to Browning criticism provides an overview of the major responses to the poet's work over the last two hundred years. It offers an insightful guide to criticism from various theoretical perspectives, elucidating Browning's participation in Victorian debates about aesthetics, history, politics, religion, gender and psychology. Criminals as Heroes in Popular Culture Roxie J. James, Kathryn E. Lane, 2020-03-07 This book delves into humanity's compulsive need to valorize criminals. The criminal hero is a seductive figure, and audiences get a rather scopophilic pleasure in watching people behave badly. This book offers an analysis of the varied and vexing definitions of hero, criminal and criminal heroes, both historically and culturally. This book also examines the global presence, gendered complications and gentle juxtapositions in criminal hero figures such as Robin Hood, Breaking Bad, American Gods, American Vandal, Kabir Plunkett and Maclean. Martha Stewart, Mary Read, Anne Bonny, Ocean's 11, Ocean's Eleven and Let the Bullets Fly. Speaking Out Tanya Serisier, 2018-11-19

This is the first critical study of feminist practices of speaking out in response to rape. This book argues that feminist anti-rape politics are characterised by a belief in the transformative potential of women's personal narratives of sexual violence. The political mobilisation of these narratives has been an incredibly successful strategy, but one with unresolved ethical questions and political limitations. The book explores both the successes and the unresolved questions through feminist archival materials, published narratives of sexual violence and mass media and internet sources. It argues that that a rethinking of the role and place of women's stories and the politics of speaking out is vital for a rethinking of feminist politics around sexual violence and key to fresh approaches to combating this violence Narratives of the Unspoken in Contemporary Irish Fiction M. Teresa Caneda-Cabrera, José Carregal-Romero, 2023-07-21 This Open access book is a collection of essays and offers an in depth analysis of silence as an aesthetic practice and a textual strategy which paradoxically speaks of the unspoken nature of many inconvenient hidden truths of Irish society in the work of contemporary fiction writers The study acknowledges Ireland's history of damaging silences and considers its legacies but it also underscores how silence can serve as a valuable even productive means of expression From a wide range of critical perspectives the individual essays address among other issues the conspiracies of silence in Catholic Ireland the silenced structural oppression of Celtic Tiger Ireland the recovery of silenced stories voices of the past and their examination in the present as well as millennial disaffection and the silencing of vulnerability in today's neoliberal Ireland The book's attention to silence provides a rich vocabulary for understanding what unfolds in the quiet interstices of Irish writing from recent decades This study also invokes the past to understand the present and thus demonstrates the continuities and discontinuities that define how silence operates in Irish culture Grant FFI2017 84619 P AEI ERDF EU INTRUTHS

Traditions of Writing Research Charles Bazerman, Robert Krut, Karen Lunsford, Susan McLeod, Suzie Null, Paul Rogers, Amanda Stansell, 2009-10-16 Traditions of Writing Research reflects the different styles of work offered at the Writing Research Across Borders conference Organized by Charles Bazerman one of the pre eminent scholars in writing studies the conference facilitated an unprecedented gathering of writing researchers Representing the best of the works presented this collection focuses solely on writing research in its lifespan scope bringing together writing researchers interested in early childhood through adult writing practices It brings together differing research traditions and offers a broad international scope with contributor presenters including top international researchers in the field The volume's opening section presents writing research agendas from different regions and research groups The next section addresses the national political and historical contexts that shape educational institutions and the writing initiatives developed there The following sections represent a wide range of research approaches for investigating writing processes and practices in primary secondary and higher education The volume ends with theoretical and methodological reflections This exemplary collection like the conference that it grew out of will bring new perspectives to the rich dialogue of contemporary research on writing and advance understanding of this complex and important human activity The Poetry of Anna Akhmatova Alexandra Harrington, 2006-05-01 This book outlines a fresh and coherent framework for the apprehension of Akhmatova's oeuvre in its totality seeing her as a poet who moves beyond modernism in her later period The appeal to postmodernism which is in itself

innovatory with regard to Akhmatova studies also allows exploration of a second problematic issue how to account for the shift in self presentation in the later verse and the different concept of poetic self which it advances This new account of Akhmatova s path to maturity challenges the conventional view of the early Akhmatova as poet in the classical Russian tradition and of the later Akhmatova as paradigmatically modernist Contesting Media Power Nick Couldry,James Curran,2003 Contesting Media Power is the most ambitious international collection to date on the worldwide growth of alternative media that are challenging the power concentration in large media corporations Media scholars and political scientists develop a broad comparative framework for analyzing alternative media in Australia Chile China Indonesia Malaysia Russia Sweden South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States Topics include independent media centers gay online networks and alternative web discussion forums feminist film political journalism and social networks indigenous communication and church sponsored media This important book will help shape debates on the media s role in current global struggles such as the anti globalization movement
