The Life and Work of Professor J.W. Gregory FRS (1864-1932), Geologist, Writer and Explorer Bernard E.

Leake, 2011 Gregory's remarkable career and his scientific work are detailed and critically assessed. Accounts of his heroic 1893 expedition to the Rift Valley, a term he coined in Kenya, now the Gregory Rift; his first crossing of Spitzbergen and his resignation as Leader of the first British Antarctic Expedition of 1901 when racing to the Pole under Scott became the priority; draw on unpublished letters. While in Melbourne he published on mining geology and a series of geography textbooks. His 1901 Lake Eyre expedition in Central Australia initiated the phrase 'The Dead Heart of Australia' and controversy over the source of artesian water. In the Chair of Geology in Glasgow from 1904 he built up the largest first year geology class in the UK over 400 students. He worked in every field of geology and every continent except Antarctica. He was also involved with the search for a homeland for the Jews in Libya and Angola. He shrewdly realized that Wegener's Continental Drift Theory erroneously supposed that the Pacific Ocean was wider than now before the Atlantic opened. This led to his influential rejection of Continental Drift. He drowned in Peru traversing the Andes having published over 30 books and nearly 400 articles.

The Secret Life of Cities Helen Jarvis, Andy C.

Pratt, Peter Cheng-Chong Wu, 2016-07-01 Contemporary urbanisation has two faces: global flows of people, money and information and that of localised social and economic disparities. Recent research has focused on the headlines of global cities as control centres of the world economy and social and economic shock waves that have raged through cities and regions but less attention has been paid to the secret life of cities and the changing nature of everyday life in the wake of such changes. This book challenges current research and policy agendas recommending spatial concentration and relocation as a solution to the problems of environmental sustainability and social dislocation. Instead, this book highlights the key linkages between social and environmental problems; it argues that neither are likely to be resolved with a simple spatial fix. The book draws attention to local contexts of contemporary urbanisation, emphasising consideration of policy making from the perspective of the household as a key unit of analysis in identifying links between labour and housing, markets, transport and leisure. This book draws upon detailed household interviews about the daily experience of life in a global city. It illustrates the dilemmas and solutions that people routinely find in order to go on in their lives. It shows that these local fixes that are managed at the level of the household work in spite of and sometimes against existing policies aimed at sustainability. It concludes that policy making needs to be radically overhauled in order to address the integrated nature of people's everyday lives.

The Oxford Handbook of Developmental and Life-course Criminology David P. Farrington, Lila Kazemian, Alexis Russell Piquero, 2019 The Oxford Handbook on Developmental and Life Course Criminology offers the first comprehensive look at these two approaches. Edited by noted authorities in the field, the Handbook aims to be the most authoritative resource on all issues germane to developmental and life course criminologists from the world's leading scholars School Life, 1937 Community Quality-of-Life Indicators: Best Cases III M. Joseph Sirgy, Rhonda Phillips, Don Rahtz, 2009-08-21 Community quality of life QOL indicators continue to gain attention and interest in their use as many communities and regions design and apply them. Evolving from early use as data systems indicators, they are increasingly being integrated into overall planning and other public policy activities. Their use is found not only in monitoring and evaluation applications but also in the context of increasing citizen participation in guiding communities towards achieving desired goals. Indeed, the emphasis in many indicator applications now includes linking actions to outcomes, making sure that the indicators are integrated, useful, and effective in helping communities address QOL issues. The use of QOL indicators to consider a full spectrum of community and regional well-being is exciting, and the focus on integration is certain to bring new and innovative applications to the forefront. This is the third book in a series covering best practices in community QOL indicators. Each volume presents individual cases, chapters of communities at the local or regional levels that have designed and implemented community indicators programs. In Volume I, we present eight chapters from a variety of contexts, from the county level in the U.S. to the large megalopolis of Sao Paulo, to looking at a cross-section of communities throughout Europe. Also included are three chapters from Canada, a leader in applying community indicator systems. Innovation, Regional Development and the Life Sciences Kean Birch, 2016-10-14 The life sciences is an industrial sector that covers the development of biological products and the use of biological processes in the production of goods, services, and energy. This sector is frequently presented as a major opportunity for policy makers to upgrade and renew regional economies, leading to social and economic development through support for high-tech innovation. Innovation, Regional Development and the Life Sciences analyses where innovation happens in the life sciences, why it happens in those places, and what this means for regional development policies and strategies. Focusing on the UK and Europe, its arguments are relevant to a variety of countries and regions pursuing high-tech innovation and development policies. The book's theoretical approach incorporates diverse geographies, e.g., global, national, and regional, and political/economic forces, e.g., discourses, governance, and finance, in order to understand where innovation happens in the life sciences, where and how value circulates in the life sciences, and who captures the value produced in life sciences innovation. This book will be of interest to researchers, students, and policy makers dealing with regional/local economic development. Life in Poverty Neighbourhoods Jürgen Friedrichs, George Galster, Sako Musterd, 2013-09-13 In contemporary European and American urban policy and politics, and in academic research, it is typically assumed that spatial concentrations of poor households and/or ethnic minority households will have negative effects upon the opportunities to improve the social conditions of those who are living in these concentrations. Since the level of concentration tends to be correlated with the level of spatial segregation, the debate on segregation is also linked to the social opportunity discussion. This book explores the central questions in urban and housing studies: Do poor neighbourhoods make their residents poorer Does the neighbourhood structure exert an effect on the residents behavioural attitudinal or psychological even when controlling for individual characteristics of the residents This issue has offered a locus for multi disciplinary investigations on both sides of the Atlantic and this volume demonstrates the rich geographical sociological economic and psychological dimensions of this issue This book was previously published as a special issue of the journal Housing Studies Aerial Life Peter Adey, 2010-09-29 NOMINATED AND SHORT LISTED FOR THE SURVEILLANCE STUDIES BOOK PRIZE 2011 This theoretically informed research explores what the development and transformation of air travel has meant for societies and individuals Brings together a number of interdisciplinary approaches towards the aeroplane and its relation to society Presents an original theory that our societies are aerial societies or aerealities and shows how we are both enabled and threatened by aerial mobility Features a series of detailed international case studies which map the history of aviation over the past century from the promises of early flight to World War II bombing campaigns and to the rise of international terrorism today Demonstrates the transformational capacity of air transport to shape societies bodies and individual identities Offers startling historical evidence and bold new ideas about how the social and material spaces of the aeroplane are considered in the modern era The Life and Letters of James Gates Percival Julius Hammond Ward, 1866

On the life and writings of Herodotus Herodotus, 1875 Land of Life Carl Ortwin Sauer, 1969 Life & Duty Les Joslin, 2014-06-04 The fact of being a citizen of the United States of America offers the opportunity not the guarantee but the opportunity to live an extraordinary life Les Joslin writes in the introduction to Life Duty an autobiography in which he proves his thesis as he relives the first seventy years of his American adventure He shares these years in twenty chapters that comprise this three part volume Part I covers his family heritage and early years from 1943 to 1967 Part II his U S Navy career from 1967 to 1988 and Part III his life in Oregon from 1988 from Part I Chapter 5 Summer 1965 on the Toiyabe National Forest That wasn't the first time I'd dealt with an armed citizen and it wouldn't be the last Some of the challenges of my fire prevention job had nothing to do with wildfire prevention but everything to do with the fact I was sometimes the only public servant around to handle a situation It had to do with that sometimes gray area between official duty and moral obligation the previous summer on my way to Twin Lakes I detoured to check the dump I'd burned a few days before Suddenly I heard shots just as the Lone Ranger and Tonto did in the opening scene of almost every episode and what I saw as I neared the dump scared me A big beefy fortyish man standing next to a late model Cadillac sedan was firing a high powered rifle He'd heard me coming and turned as I stopped the patrol truck He didn't look particularly threatening But there were serious unknowns I didn't know him I didn't know what he might shoot at I didn't know he wouldn't shoot at me from Part II Chapter 10 November 1979 aboard USS Kitty Hawk on November 28 I got up showered and shaved put on clean khakis as usual and started toward the wardroom for breakfast the usual scent of salt and jet fuel was in the air and I had a lot on my mind I descended two ladders to the hangar bay only to be brought up short by bumping my head on a helicopter that wasn't supposed to be there A quick look around revealed seven more RH 53D Sea Stallion helicopters that their HM 16 markings told me belonged to Helicopter Mine Countermeasures Squadron Sixteen not part of the ship's air wing So that's why the swing south to Diego Garcia They'd been flown there probably in C 5As and had flown aboard last night Had I actually slept through flight quarters I forgot about breakfast climbed the ladders back to the 02 level and knocked on the door of the flag N 2's office This isn't going to work I said as he opened the door We can't fly those helicopters into a city of five million hostiles and rescue fifty hostages They don't want to hear that he replied and closed the door from Part III Chapter 15 Summer 1992 on the Deschutes National Forest As I walked toward the fire I began to think Am I doing the right thing After all I'm just a contract wilderness information specialist not part of the fire organization I hadn't been to the Deschutes National Forest's fire school I didn't have fire clothing I didn't have a fire shelter Except for a canteen I didn't have any water and I'd turned in my last red card the fire qualification card that rated me as a crew boss in 1966 when I'd left the Toiyabe National Forest to go on active duty in the Navy That was twenty six years ago Should I be doing this Sure I answered my own question I'd started out in the old Forest Service where everybody did everything I'd done this many times before in the days before fire shirts and Nomex britches and fire shelters I'd had five fire seasons on the Toiyabe been on a couple big fires I knew this business I knew how to keep out of trouble About the time I resolved that little issue I was at the fire
