The German Panoramic Novel Of The 19th Century:

The German Panoramic Novel of the 19th Century Gerhard Friesen,1972 Comparative presentation of 19th century panoramic novels by Sealsfield Gutzkow and Oppermann and their influence on their successors Panoramic as a common denominator for modern novels of broad scope whose literary relationship has not been evident up to now The analysis of content technique of narration and critical perception of several novels disproves the contention of their shapelessness

The German Panoramic Novel of the 19th Century Gerhard Kurt Friesen,1968 German Encounters with Modernity Katherine Roper,2023-08-21 The novels of Imperial Berlin comprise a body of material of immense historical richness Their importance as a historical source lies in the intricate connections their authors make between the individual lives of characters a modernizing city and a newly unified nation These connections and the values and assumptions behind them are the focus of this study In creating these connections as fictional representations of their society Berlin novelists not only reflected societal values but also were molding them by contributing to the social discourse in which they evolved Taken together their works constitute a significant piece in the complicated puzzle of how the society of Imperial Germany as it underwent the social and economic upheavals of modernization transformed the rule of traditional elites into new authoritarian forms Using individual works to analyze fictional treatment of a spectrum of problems of nationhood and modernity I argue that Berlin novelists were using their works for two significant social purposes to search for a German identity that spoke to modern realities and to envision a particularly German revolution that would bring genuine national greatness As the young nation matured however these visions became increasingly elusive They were impeded I suggest by specific obstacles including traumatic historical events inherited cultural ideals powerful mythologies social anxieties and political indifference This book documents what Berlin novelists conceived as a struggle for Germany's soul and traces the stages of its defeat The Nineteenth Century, 1830-1890 George Wallis Field,1975 Discusses topics such as drama regionalism realism lyric poetry poetic realists in prose impressionism symbolism and the social novel and authors such as Grillparzer Hebbel Buchner Grabbe Raimund Nestroy Immerman Alexis Morike Auerbach Droste Hulshoff Ludwig Gotthelf Heinrich Heine Platen Lenau Schopenhauer Friedrich Nietzsche Stifter Keller Storm Raabe Conrad Ferdinand Meyer Detlev von Liliencron Richard Dehmel and others Rethinking Infrastructure Across the Humanities Aaron Pinnix,Axel

Volmar,Fernando Esposito,Nora Binder,2023-10-02 Infrastructure comprises a combination of sociotechnical political and cultural arrangements that provide resources and services The contributors to this volume show in their respective fields how infrastructures are both generative forces and the materialized products of quotidian practices that affect and guide people's lives Organized via shared conceptual foci this volume demonstrates infrastructuralist perspectives as an important transdisciplinary approach within the humanities A Pedagogy of Observation Vance Byrd,2017-11-10 A Pedagogy of

Observation argues that the fascination with learning about the past and new locations in panoramic form spread far from the traditional sites of popular entertainment and amusement Although painted panoramas captivated audiences from Hamburg to Leipzig and Berlin to Vienna relatively few people had direct access to this invention Instead most Germans in the early nineteenth century encountered panoramas for the first time through the written word The panorama experience described in this book centers on the emergence of a new type of visual language and self fashioning in material culture adopted by Germans at the turn of the nineteenth century one that took cues from the pedagogy of observing and interpreting space at panorama shows By reading about what editors newspaper correspondents and writers referred to as panoramas curious Germans learned about a new representational medium and a new way to organize and produce knowledge about the scenes on display even if they had never seen these marvels in person Like an audience member standing on a panorama platform at a show reading about panoramas transported Germans to new worlds in the imagination while maintaining a safe distance from the actual transformations being portrayed A Pedagogy of Observation identifies how the German bourgeois intelligentsia created literature as panoramic stages both for self representation and as a venue for critiquing modern life These written panoramas so to speak helped German readers see before their eyes industrial transformations urban development scientific exploration and new possibilities for social interactions Through the immersive act of reading Germans entered an experimental realm that fostered critical engagement with modern life before it was experienced firsthand Surrounded on all sides by new perspectives into the world these readers occupied the position of the characters that they read about in panoramic literature From this vantage point Germans apprehended changes to their immediate environment and prepared themselves for the ones still to come

The Western in the Global Literary Imagination, 2022-11-21 This groundbreaking collection of essays tells the surprising story of how the American Western has shaped world literature fueling provocative novels and reflections about national identity settler colonialism and violence Containing nineteen chapters spanning Asia Africa the Americas Australia Europe Israel and New Zealand as well as a guiding critical introduction this book opens an exciting new chapter in the study of popular culture literature and globalization Through this international lens the literary Western casts off the categories of juvenilia and formula to come into focus as a vital and creative statement about identity power and history Contributors are Zbigniew Bia as Manuela Borzone Flavia Brizio Skov Alex Calder Neil Campbell Christopher Conway Samir Dayal Joel Deshayes Johannes Fehrle MaryEllen Higgins Emily Hind Shelly Jarenski Rachel Leket Mor Warren Motte Andrew Nette Marek Pary David Rio Steffen W ll and Sergei Zhuk

Ideology, Mimesis, Fantasy Jeffrey L. Sammons, 2020-05-01 This study of German fiction about America in the nineteenth century concentrates in detail on three writers Charles Sealsfield Carl Postl 1793 1864 an escaped Moravian monk who came to New Orleans in 1823 and wrote the first major German novels about the United States Friedrich Gerst icker 1816 1872 who among his many experiences in America as a young man lived as a backwoodsman in Arkansas and who later produced a large body of fiction travel reportage and emigration advice and Karl May 1842 1912 who though he knew nothing about America beyond what he could read in books wrote famous adventure stories set in an imaginary West and became the best selling writer in the German language Sammons provides biographies of the authors and discusses how each differs in their mimetic and ideological approach He pays particular attention to how the authors address issues of race gender and politics in the United States Sammons interweaves his discussion of these three writers with excursions into the emergence of the German Western and anti Americanism in German fiction Narratives of America and the Frontier in Nineteenth-century German Literature Jerry Schuchalter,2000 German literature about America has consistently occupied a marginal position in both German and American studies This study attempts an overall interpretation of such nineteenth century literature by charting its most significant narratives Narratives are thus shown to be embedded and generated in a bicultural or multicultural setting derived from historical givens as well as from the possibilities inherent in fabrication The result is the illumination of an area previously neglected in literature revealing not only intricate literary creations but also significant insights about culture canonicity and the construction of national identities Die Frau Ohne Schatten by Hugo Von Hofmannsthal and Richard Strauss Sherrill Hahn Pantle,1978

Many of Strauss s and Hofmannsthal s biographers have censured the collaboration in which these two men engaged The Hofmannsthal scholars express the belief that Strauss s sensual settings inundate the libretti while the Strauss biographers tend to blame the poet for the composer s loss of pre eminence in the musical avant garde The assumption that the poet or the composer would have produced better works had he not collaborated with the other stands behind criticisms of this nature This study avoids such prejudicial methodology by basing its conclusions upon an exhaustive analysis of one opera and by confining its discussion to the soluble question of whether or not Strauss was successful in fulfilling Hofmannsthal s desires for the libretto of that opera Reflection and Action James N. Hardin,1991 The purpose of this collection of essays by eminent American European scholars is to provide an overview of the state of research on the history theory of the Bildungsromane our understanding of the term

Frontier and Utopia in the Fiction of Charles

Sealsfield Jerry Schuchalter,1986 This study examines the work of Charles Sealsfield 1793 1864 the Moravian American writer whose fiction marked the first serious literary treatment of America in the German language More specifically Sealsfield s work is discussed in the light of his experience in America and above all in the light of his change of identity from Karl Anton Postl Moravian monk to Charles Sealsfield American writer It employs two concepts frontier and utopia to show how Sealsfield was influenced by the antebellum tradition in America and how he in turn used the governing myths and symbols of his time to create an important statement about the relationship between ideology and power in the Age of Jackson Revue Canadienne Des Langues Vivantes ,1971 Monatshefte ,1972 Charles Sealsfield Walter

Grünzweig,1985 Major Figures of Nineteenth-century Austrian Literature Donald G. Daviau,1998 This volume presents

fifteen of the leading authors of the Austrian nineteenth century A comprehensive introduction provides the historical and literary background as a context for the essays on the individual writers Special attention is paid to the definition of Biedermeier to the attitudes toward women and to the question of the autonomy of Austrian literature Authors discussed are Ludwig Anzengruber Eduard Bauernfeld Jakob Julius David Karl Emil Franzos Franz Grillparzer Joseph von Hammer Purgstall Ferdinand Kurnberger Nikolaus Lenau Johann Nepomuk Nestroy Betty Paoli Caroline Pichler Ferdinand Raimund Leopold von Sacher Masoch Charles Sealsfield Adalbert Stifter 1848, the Sociology of Literature Francis Barker, University of Essex, 1978 MLN. , 1974
