The Gift Of Gab:

Bela Lugosi and Boris Karloff Gregory William Mank, 2010-03-08 Dracula and Frankenstein's Monster are horror cinema icons and the actors most deeply associated with the two roles also shared a unique friendship Bela Lugosi and Boris Karloff starred in dozens of black and white horror films and over the years managed to collaborate on and co star in eight movies Through dozens of interviews and extensive archival research this greatly expanded new edition examines the Golden Age of Hollywood the era in which both stars worked recreates the shooting of Lugosi and Karloff's mutual films examines their odd and moving personal relationship and analyzes their ongoing legacies Features include a fully detailed filmography of the eight Karloff and Lugosi films full summaries of both men's careers and more than 250 photographs some in color Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting's authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious The Gift of Gab Peter Clarke, 1983-12-01 The Gift of Gab Phyllis Bradshaw Greer, Rutgers University. Extension Service, 1959 The Gift of Gab Phyllis Page Bradshaw, Rutgers University. Extension Service, 1951 On the Mountain of Light Al Hajji Robert J. Rowland, 2008-08-01 This book of songs and poetry is a look at the world we live in Love Religion Politics Mental Awareness and Controversy of day to day life As human beings embark on the 21st century there will be some challenging times ahead But we are in control of our planet and each one of us is responsible for the impact that will change our world Whether good bad happy or sad your state of being will be very important to the contributions you will make Diamonds wars and diamond deaths when will they stop Oil wars or keeping terrorist under control in the middle east must stop We still have no cures for Aids and Cancer Oil producer and production are on a greedy path of taking money out of our pockets Alternative fuels and their production are an immediate need in our world Let us hope the next generations of our political leaders will hear the people's voice and not the lobbyist fueling millions of dollars in their campaign funds Love is the

S.LAWRENCE JAYAKUMAR, The Gift of Gab Jack Hedman,2012-04-02 The Gift of Gab A Collection of Recollections is a very appropriate choice for a title I have good reason to believe that the art of storytelling is disappearing This is my first attempt at writing a book I am hoping that in a small way I will be able to reach out to people in order to convince them that there is significant merit in being able to connect in a personal manner A few years ago I listened to a presentation on demographics The delivery was very smooth and polished The essential message was that the older generation was doing a poor job communicating with the youth This new generation makes connections in an entirely different way than their parents We were told that if we want to connect we had to become familiar with the new communication vehicle the electronic media This is a generation of instant gratitude along with instant results The use of cell phones iPads tablets computers has become second nature to our youth They can get answers very quickly simply by using Google It has reached the point where writing and spelling have lost considerable value We are encouraging a new generation that will develop muscular thumbs and a language that will be foreign to us I do not pretend to have answers nor do I believe that this change is necessarily a bad thing However I do believe that we have the power to enhance the connection with children at a very early age We have an opportunity to preserve special moments by taking some time to read or tell stories that hold meaning for children when they are still young enough to believe Sid Asselin was a master storyteller I coached a lot of high school sports while living in Fort Frances Our closest rival was one hundred kilometers away four hundred kilometers for the most distant On these trips Sid was our driver and he could stretch out a story for hours This audience probably averaged sixteen years in age They would get quite caught up in it all I had two nieces and a nephew growing up in southern Ontario who believed that Uncle Jack lived in the wild woods of Ontario When they were young every visit I made led to the same request tell us the story about how saved your life I had no idea at the time what kind of impact these stories would deliver As young adults they made a request to me to record on paper the substance and silliness that went into these tall tales Now that they have young children of their own I have a strong sense of the rationale for that request I wish I could remember more of his stories but the epic of a beaver the blind moose and the legend of Fallen Rock should adequately help fulfill my goal This book should hold appeal for parents also because it does hold a few smatterings of how our own parents took liberty in stretching the truth in order to make a point I hope that you enjoy this book and find motivation to share some stories of your own true or nonsensical with your children or grandchildren Fun With Idioms John B Smithback,2005-05 Idioms are the nuts and bolts of English They add color and zing to make the language more expressive This book with its humorous illustrations and witty definitions is almost guaranteed to make learning English idioms fun And as easy as ABC
