The Kindergarten-primary Magazine Bertha Johnston, E. Lyell Earle, 1897 Play in Creative Problem-solving for Planners and Architects Ron Kasprisin, 2016-07-01 In Play in Creative Problem solving for Planners and Architects play is defined explored and demonstrated as a critical catalyst in creative problem solving processes The book defines the current psychological research into play and creative problem solving explores the necessary integration of the two and exemplifies for students and practitioners the use of play in creative endeavors and the role that play serves in separating linear from creative problem solving approaches Play is explored regarding its elements tools skills environment characteristics a free activity without failure and attitude as it relates to and activates the creative process with the focus on urban design planning architecture and landscape architecture The book re establishes the whole mind body thinking process of play as a means of object learning to provide designers and planners with alternative ways of design thinking and to challenge the over utilization of digital technologies in creative processes Creative problem solving requires an appreciation for ambiguity uncertainty of outcome complexity that leads to the discovery of novelty and innovation The book incorporates examples and exercises in play activities related to the design and planning fields and exercises related to play tools and skills for students and professionals It also defines terms used in play and creativity psychology provides examples and structure for play and creative problem solving activities describes the type and use of appropriate play tools contains an extensive bibliography on play and creative problem solving texts and provides significant illustrations making it fundamental reading for students and professionals in urban design and planning fields Harper's Magazine ,1895 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 The Gift Marie Agnes Foley,1921 Play, Tongues, and Liberation Power Shelby T. Boese,2021-05-13 The recent Pixar animated movie Soul illustrates what happens when we are caught up into something The movie uses the common language of being in the Zone Another word for this is being in the state of play Spiritual gifts like speaking in tongues are about normalizing a regular way to enter the zone or play of the Holy Spirit in a way that then empowers us for the rest of non play life Pentecostalism has exploded around the world in part because people have direct encounters in play that empower them to act in new ways This short work explores the nature of play and what happens in the Zone The Fiddlers' House, a Play in Three Acts, and The Land, an Agrarian Comedy Padraic Colum,1909 World of the Gift Jacques T. Godbout,Alain C. Caille,1998-10-21 The anthropologist Marcel Mauss in his famous exploration of the gift in primitive and archaic societies showed that the essential aspect of the exchange of presents involved the establishment of a social tie that bound the parties together above and beyond any material value of the objects exchanged He argued that these intangible mutual debts constituted the social fabric Godbout and Caill show that contrary to the modern assumption that societies function on the basis of market exchange and the pursuit of self interest the gift still constitutes the foundation of our social fabric The authors describe the gift not as an object but as a social connection perhaps the most important social connection because it creates a sense of obligation to respond in kind They examine the gift in a broad range of cases such as blood and organ donation volunteer work the bonds between friends couples and family Santa Claus the interaction between performers and their audience and the relation of the artist to society Written in an engaging manner The World of the Gift will appeal to anyone who is interested in how the world really operates Paul and the Gift John M. G. Barclay,2017-09-11 John Barclay explores Pauline theology anew from the perspective of grace Arguing that Paul s theology of grace is best approached in light of ancient notions of gift Barclay describes Paul s relationship to Judaism in a fresh way Barclay focuses on divine gift giving which for Paul he says is focused and fulfilled in the gift of Christ He both offers a new appraisal of Paul s theology of the Christ event as gift as it comes to expression in Galatians and Romans and presents a nuanced and detailed consideration of the history of reception of Paul including Augustine Luther Calvin and Barth Playground and Recreation ,1929 Reduction of Taxation Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America. Committee on Federal Finance,1947 Christianity Encountering World Religions (Encountering Mission) Terry C. Muck,Frances S. Adeney,2009-04-01 The current religious climate poses unique challenges to those engaged in mission Thus the authors of this book propose a new yet very biblical model for interacting with people of other faiths They term this model giftive mission as it is based on the metaphor of free gift We bear the greatest gift possible the gospel message Adopting this perspective not only has the potential for greater missionary success but also enables us to more closely imitate God s gracious activity in the world The core of the book explores eleven practices that characterize giftive mission Each practice is illustrated through the story of a figure from mission history who embodied that practice Further discussion shows how to incorporate these practices in specific mission settings      The Smith College Monthly ,1902      Spaces of Vernacular Creativity Tim Edensor,Deborah Leslie,Steve Millington,Norma Rantisi,2009-10-29 This book argues for a rethinking of what constitutes creativity foregrounding non economic values and practices and the often marginal and everyday spaces in which creativity takes shape      A Rhetoric and Philosophy of Gifts Mary J. Eberhardinger,2021-03-19 A Rhetoric and Philosophy of Gifts synthesizes a scope of rhetorical and philosophical perspectives of the gift Eberhardinger asks What is the relationship between gifts and rhetoric She contextualizes the question throughout a review of related literature analysis examples and personal anecdotes of overseas experiences Eberhardinger concludes the book by offering implications and opportunities for interpreting gifts thereby addressing why the question concerning the relationship between gifts and rhetoric matters for the larger landscape of international relations intercultural friendship and peace making Scholars of communication rhetoric and philosophy will find this book particularly interesting      The Theatre ,1879 Vol for 1888 includes dramatic directory for Feb Dec vol for 1889 includes dramatic directory for Jan May      Plays for Children Drama League of America.
