Parenting and Teaching the Gifted Rosemary S. Callard-Szulgit, 2010-10-16 Parents of gifted students have often experienced the frustration of trying to get an appropriate education for their children in public and private schools Teachers have equally experienced the frustration of trying to educate these students due to classroom demands Over the past two decades Callard Szulgit has accumulated well over 1 000 questions asked by parents in her gifted parenting classes her graduate students of gifted education education colleagues and gifted students themselves This user friendly book offers common sense and educationally informative answers to the questions and dilemmas that parents and teachers seek This book will be of interest to all who seek a fair and equitable education for the gifted

Goodness Personified Leslie Margolin, In Goodness Personified Leslie Margolin challenges the most common assumptions underlying gifted education His analysis of the gifted child movement shows how scholars formed the concept of giftedness in their writings how they provided detailed documentation of the characteristics such children were thought to embody and how they managed to spread that vision to a community of believers In doing so he demonstrates that social assets as well as social problems can be viewed as social constructions the products of competing claims

Thinking Nima Rezaei, Amene Sagha-zadeh, 2022-09-05 The THINKING Bioengineering of Science and Art is to discuss about philosophical aspects of thinking at the context of Science and Art External representations provide evidence that the fundamental process of thinking exists in both animal subjects and humans However the diversity and complexity of thinking in humans is astonishing because humans have been permitted to integrate scientific accounts into their accounts and create excellent illustrations for the effects of this integration The book necessarily begins with the origins of human thinking and human thinking into self and others body and life Multiple factors tend to modify the pattern of thinking They all will come into play by this book that brings thinking into different disciplines humanities natural sciences social sciences formal sciences and applied sciences The thinking demands full processing of information and therefore the book considers the economy of thinking as well The book thoroughly intends to explore thinking beyond the boundaries Specifically several chapters are devoted to discipline this exploration either by artistic thinking alone or by art and mathematics aided engineering of complexities In this manner the book models variations on thinking at the individual and systems levels and accumulates a list of solutions each good for specific scenarios and maximal outcomes
