The Glad Tidings:

The Glad Tidings E. J. Waggoner, 2023-11-21 E J Waggoner's The Glad Tidings presents a compelling theological reflection that combines exegesis with a pastoral appeal addressing the intersection of faith and the human experience. The book articulates the concept of the glad tidings, the fundamental message of salvation and hope within the Christian tradition, using a style that is both approachable and profound. Waggoner's mastery of symbolic language and allegory provides a fresh lens through which readers can engage with scriptural texts, making complex theological ideas accessible to a broad audience. The work underscores the importance of understanding the gospel's transformative power in a rapidly changing world, inviting readers into a deeper relationship with divine grace.

E J Waggoner, a prominent figure in the late 19th-century Adventist movement, was deeply influenced by the theological debates of his time, particularly those concerning law and grace. His commitment to addressing the challenges faced by believers fuels his writing, leading him to emphasize a message of inclusivity and redemption in The Glad Tidings. With an educational background in both theology and a keen awareness of contemporary societal issues, Waggoner's insights reflect his dedication to fostering spiritual growth and understanding. This book is highly recommended for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of Christian theology and the core message of salvation. Waggoner's engaging narrative serves not only to enlighten the mind but also to inspire the heart, making it an essential read for both laypersons and scholars alike.

The Glad Tidings a study of the book of Galatians was first printed in 1900 by the Pacific Press Publishing Company of Oakland, California. Originally having 265 pages, this unabridged large print 16 point edition has 304 pages. The Epistle to the Galatians, together with its companion the Epistle to the Romans, was the source through the Spirit of the Reformation of the sixteenth century, the key note of which was "The just shall live by faith." The reformation then begun is not yet complete, and the same watchword needs to be sounded now as then. If the people of God will become filled with the truth so vividly set forth in this epistle, both the church and the world will be stirred as profoundly as in the days of Luther. May this speedily be the case, and thus the times of restoration of all things be hastened. It is quite common in writing upon any book in the Bible to spend some time on an Introduction to the book, in question setting forth the nature of it, the circumstances under which it was written, and the probable purpose of the writer, together with many other things, partly conjectural and partly derived from the book itself. All such statements the reader has to take on the authority of the one making them, since not having yet studied the book, he cannot judge for himself. The best way is to introduce him at once to the study of the book, and then he will, if diligent and faithful, soon learn all that it has to reveal concerning itself. We learn more of a man by talking with him than by hearing somebody talk about him. So we will proceed at once to the study of the Epistle to the Galatians and let it speak for itself As many as walk according to this rule peace be on them and mercy and upon the Israel of God The rule of glory what a grand rule to walk by Are there two classes here mentioned No that cannot be for the Epistle has been devoted to showing that all are one in Christ Jesus And ye are complete in Him which is the Head of all principality and power in whom also ye are circumcised 263 with the circumcision made without hands in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ buried with Him in baptism wherein also ye are risen with Him through the faith of the operation of God who hath raised Him from the dead And you being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh hath He quickened together with Him having forgiven you all trespasses Col 2 10 13 We are the circumcision which worship God in the Spirit and rejoice in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh Phil 3 3 This circumcision constitutes us all the true Israel of God for this is the victory over sin and Israel means an overcomer No longer are we aliens from the commonwealth of Israel no more strangers and foreigners but fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone Eph 2 12 19 20 So we shall join the throng that shall come from the east

 Paul s Letter to the Galatians throbs like a pounding heart with the urgent message of salvation only by faith as does no other New Testament document The intrepid apostle s dynamic personality is revealed here at its finest The Letter is a crescendo of passionate expression tumbling from his heart like a rushing mountain torrent No secretary patiently transcribed Paul s labored dictation this time the urgency of the Galatinas need prompted the apostle to dash off this Letter in his own trembling hand It is perhaps the most authentically spontaneous apostolic document that has survived the early Christian era
