Timo Laato, Bror Erickson, 2023-06-27 The author is known as a strong opponent of the so called New Perspective on Paul In this book he seeks to move beyond that debate and open new vistas in Pauline research There is a need for much revision The author first dives in to a detailed exegetical study of 2 Corinthians 3 a chapter that has a reputation of being an exegetical nightmare He examines the interpretational problems associated with the opposition between the letter that kills and the Spirit that gives life Fresh insights emerge Ultimately the whole issue turns on the question whether to understand the Old Testament ac cord ing to the literal letteral or literal spiritual sense As a consequence Paul breaks up with Ju da ism and pulls down the works of the law since he competes against the view of observing the Torah in flesh and ac cording to the literal letteral meaning of the text He regards such a reli gious pur suit as the worst form of human self righteousness and self praise despite the serious efforts to true piety On the other hand Christians have undergone a transformation in terms of re creation rege neration resusci tation resur rec tion or revitalization. The Spirit gives them life He reigns in them Hence Christians do fulfill the whole Mosaic law Yet they fulfill it in Spirit and not in flesh in other words according to the literal spiritual and not literal letteral sense of Scripture As a consequence they do not bolster their self righteousness and self praise To corroborate his the sis the author draws on similar wordings in other Pauline letters and several passages in the Old Tes ta ment from Exodus Jeremiah and Ezekiel The author concludes that the New Perspec tive on Paul has run its course A New Quest for Paul is needed Therefore this book is needed TV Guide ,1999 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc William Jerdan, William Ring Workman, Frederick Arnold, John Reading God's Story George H. Guthrie, 2011-11-01 Stories are basic to life Morley, Charles Wycliffe Goodwin, 1820 Everybody loves a good story We have been reading listening to or watching stories all of our lives so we intuitively know a lot about how they work Yet more and more Christians are unfamiliar with the stories of the Bible and how the grand narrative of God's Word fits together Indeed God gave us the stories of the Bible to reveal great truth about Himself and about our lives and He wants to draw us into the ongoing story of what He is doing in the world By focusing on the narrative framework of Scripture we can better understand what the Bible teaches and live out its instruction more effectively Reading God's Story takes that clear narrative approach to the Bible arranging the complete text into a fresh chronological reading plan developed for the Read the Bible for Life biblical literacy initiative In this plan the books chapters and verses of the Bible are thoughtfully arranged so readers can track the story of Scripture day by day from beginning to end understanding the flow of events and how all the different parts fit together to make sense Reading God's Story features two color interior page layout and is organized into 52 weeks of readings six readings per week It presents Scripture in three main acts God s Plan for All People God's Covenant People God's New Covenant People and seventeen total scenes providing an introduction for each act and scene to orient the reader to its importance in the grand story Unlike other chronological Bibles this arrangement is not date specific eq January 1 so a person can begin using this edition at any point in the calendar year
