The Divine-Human Relationship in Romans 1-8 in the Light of Interdependence Theory Yoonjong Kim, 2020-11-12

Yoonjong Kim analyses the divine human relationship in Paul's theology focusing on Paul's portrayal of the relationship in Romans 1-8. Kim stresses that previous studies of this relationship have not paid sufficient attention to the fact that it is not static but rather exhibits progression and development towards a goal. To address the significance of the human agent's role in the relationship, Kim employs a social psychological theory, interdependence theory, offering a consistent analytic framework for diagnosing the interactions in a dyadic relationship in terms of the dependency created by each partner's expectations of outcomes. Kim explores several key stages of the divine human relationship and the direction in which the relationship develops throughout Romans 1-8 in order to highlight the significance of the human partners in the course of the development. He focuses in particular on betrayal (1:18-3:20), restoration (3:21-26), the oppressive relationship with Sin (5:12-8:11), and the investment for the future (8:12-39) and concludes that although the foundation of the relationship rests on God's initiative, the divine outworking guides the relationship so that it facilitates mutual participation of the human partners in the restoration and development of the relationship toward the ultimate goal.

Christian Witness in a Globalized World

Henning Wrogemann, 2021. In most societies around the world, life in the twenty-first century is increasingly characterized by globalization, new media, and pluralization. Religions need to adapt in different ways in order to live amidst a plurality of religious worldviews, secularism, and interculturality. This collection of articles reflects the heartfelt conviction that in today's times, the Christian faith witness requires several points of reference. The author calls firstly for a contemporary intercultural hermeneutics, secondly for a doxological theology of mission, and thirdly for a theology of interreligious relations.

God the Father Riaan Engelbrecht, 2023-12-01. God is an actual, literal Father. He is the source of life. Yes, our God, the Father, created the universe and everything in it. He is a big God, but at the same time, He is a personal God who knows each person's every need. God the Father set a plan in place to save humanity from itself. Yes, He is a good Father and a loving God who wants a family and to be with His children. He is not cruel or mean, not abusive, loving and kind. But also a Father who is not pleased with wickedness, evil, or sin. He is a holy God. Unto Him, we cry, Abba Father, and He hears us. What an awesome God we serve, far better than the supposed fathers of mythology. Just as earthly fathers have an important part in contributing to the life of children, this is true with God as His spiritual children. He provides, protects, and nurtures. In this study, learn more about the Father of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Yes, He is the heavenly Father of Jews and Gentiles alike. Unto Him, comes all the glory and all the praise. He is Holy. He is almighty. Unto Him, comes all power. For He is authority. May we draw closer to Him and let God Father us in His love, beauty, and majesty.
