Seeking Salaam Sandra M. Chait, 2011-12-01 Prolonged violence in the Horn of Africa the northeastern corner of the continent has led growing numbers of Ethiopians Eritreans and Somalis to flee to the United States Despite the enmity created by centuries of conflict they often find themselves living as neighbors in their adopted cities with their children as class mates in school In many ways they are successfully navigating life in their new home however they continue to struggle to bridge old ethnic divisions and find salaam or peace with one another News from home fuels historical grievances and perpetuates tensions within their communities delaying acculturation undermining attempts at reconciliation and sabotaging the opportunity to reach the American Dream In conversations with forty East African immigrants living in Seattle Washington and Portland Oregon Sandra Chait captures the immigrants struggle for identity in the face of competing stories and documents how some individuals have been able to transcend the ghosts from the past and extend a tentative hand to their former enemies

The A to Z of Fantasy Literature Brian Stableford, 2009-08-13 Once upon a time all literature was fantasy set in a mythical past when magic existed animals talked and the gods took an active hand in earthly affairs As the mythical past was displaced in Western estimation by the historical past and novelists became increasingly preoccupied with the present fantasy was temporarily marginalized until the late 20th century when it enjoyed a spectacular resurgence in every stratum of the literary marketplace Stableford provides an invaluable guide to this sequence of events and to the current state of the field The chronology tracks the evolution of fantasy from the origins of literature to the 21st century The introduction explains the nature of the impulses creating and shaping fantasy literature the problems of its definition and the reasons for its changing historical fortunes The dictionary includes cross referenced entries on more than 700 authors ranging across the entire historical spectrum while more than 200 other entries describe the fantasy subgenres key images in fantasy literature technical terms used in fantasy criticism and the intimately convoluted relationship between literary fantasies scholarly fantasies and lifestyle fantasies The book concludes with an extensive bibliography that ranges from general textbooks and specialized accounts of the history and scholarship of fantasy literature through bibliographies and accounts of the fantasy literature of different nations to individual author studies and useful websites

Notes from the Hyena's Belly Nega Mezlekia, 2015-04-07 Winner of the Governor General's Award A Library Journal Best Book of 2001 Part autobiography and part social history Nega Mezlekia's Notes from the Hyena's Belly offers an unforgettable portrait of Ethiopia and of Africa during the 1970s and 80s an era of civil war widespread famine and mass execution We children lived like the donkey Mezlekia remembers careful not to wander off the beaten trail and end up in the hyena's belly His memoir sheds light not only on the violence and disorder that beset his native country but on the rich spiritual and cultural life of Ethiopia itself Throughout he portrays the careful divisions in dress language and culture between the Muslims and Christians of the Ethiopian landscape Mezlekia also explores the struggle between western European interests and communist influences that caused the collapse of Ethiopia's social and political structure and that forced him at age 18 to join a guerrilla army Through droughts floods imprisonment and killing sprees at the hands of military juntas Mezlekia survived eventually emigrating to Canada In Notes from the Hyena's Belly he bears witness to a time and place that few Westerners have understood

Ethiopian Americans W. Gabriel Selassie I, 2025-01-09 Explore the history culture and lived experiences of Ethiopian Americans in the USA Ethiopia in East Africa is the second most populated country in Africa home to over 125 million inhabitants For centuries many Ethiopians had little exposure to the outside world and even less to Americans However that started to change in the 1970s In 1974 a military backed government deposed Emperor Haile Selassie I and many Ethiopians emigrated to the West Today large populations of Ethiopian Americans live in cities such as Washington D C Los Angeles and Minneapolis This book offers an accessible and detailed glimpse into their everyday lives It includes an overview of Ethiopian art media and cuisine biographies of accomplished Ethiopian Americans and a revealing look into the ongoing struggle for equality and representation that many Ethiopian Americans experience literary development Entries illuminate the fiction of individual nations cultures and peoples while concise biographies sketch the careers of noteworthy authors Compiled by M A Orthofer an avid book reviewer and the founder of the literary review site the Complete Review this reference is perfect for readers who wish to expand their reading choices and knowledge of contemporary world fiction A bird s eye view of titles and authors from everywhere a book overfull with reminders of why we love to read international fiction Keep it close by Robert Con Davis Udiano executive director World Literature Today M A Orthofer has done more to bring literature in translation to America than perhaps any other individual This book will introduce more new worlds to you than any other book on the market Tyler Cowen George Mason University A relaxed riverine guide through the main currents of international writing with sections for more than a hundred countries on six continents Karan Mahajan Page Turner blog The New Yorker Burdens of Proof Susanna Egan,2011-04-20

Autobiographical impostures once they come to light appear to us as outrageous scandalous They confuse lived and textual identity the person in the world and the character in the text and call into question what we believe what we doubt and how we receive information In the process they tell us a lot about cultural norms and anxieties Burdens of Proof Faith Doubt and Identity in Autobiography examines a broad range of impostures in the United States Canada and Europe and asks about each one Why this particular imposture Why here and now Susanna Egan s historical survey of texts from early Christendom to the nineteenth century provides an understanding of the author in relation to the text and shows how plagiarism and other false claims have not always been regarded as the frauds we consider them today She then explores the role of the media in the creation of much contemporary imposture examining in particular the cases of Jumana Hanna Norma Khouri and James Frey The book also addresses ethnic imposture deliberate fictions plagiarism and ghostwriting all of which raise moral legal historical and cultural issues Egan concludes the volume with an examination of how historiography and law failed to support the identities of European Jews during World War II creating sufficient instability in Jewish identity and doubt about Jewish wartime experience that the impostor could step in This textual erasure of the Jews of Europe and the refashioning of their experiences in fraudulent texts are examples of imposture as an outcrop of extreme identity crisis The first to examine these issues in North America and Europe Burdens of Proof will be of interest to scholars of life writing and cultural studies
