The Gold Star More Words:

The Gold Star Wives of America ,1993 The Gold Star More Words Book ,1981 That Knock at the Door Holly S. Fenelon,2012 A blue star for each family member serving in America s military a gold star if that life was lost in defense of the nation s freedom IN WORLD WAR I the American tradition of the service flag began Families displayed a simple fabric banner with a blue star for each family member serving in the U S Armed Forces If a family member died in the nation s service a gold star covered that individual s blue star on the family service flag Not a symbol of mourning the gold star represented the family s pride and the honor and glory accorded to that individual for making the supreme sacrifice in defense of the America s freedom Soon the term gold star mother came to be used to identify and honor women who had lost a son or daughter in wartime military service Following the war as the nation focused its attention on those veterans who had returned whole in mind and body gold star mothers served as a constant reminder of the true cost of war In 1928 a group of these women formed American Gold Star Mothers Inc an organization created to honor those who had died by being of service to veterans and their families in need supporting gold star families and caring for veterans who had returned with physical emotional and psychological wounds From that humble beginning American Gold Star Mothers Inc has become an icon of national service opening its membership time and again to gold star mothers of later wars and conflicts including Iraq and Afghanistan Their amazing legacy of service is an important yet largely unknown chapter in American history This book presents the story of gold star mothers in America and the first comprehensive history of American Gold Star Mothers Inc drawn from nearly a century of archival materials The fascinating story of the strong women who honored their fallen sons and daughters by dedicating themselves to the service of veterans and peace is both compelling and inspiring The Gold Star Mother Pilgrimages of the 1930s John W. Graham,2015-03-14 During the first World War a flag with a gold star identified families who had lost soldiers Grieving women were Gold Star mothers and widows Between 1930 and 1933 the United States government took 6 654 Gold Star pilgrims to visit their sons and husbands graves in American cemeteries in Belgium England and France Veteran Army officers acted as tour guides helping women come to terms with their losses as they sought solace and closure The government meticulously planned and paid for everything from transportation and lodging to menus tips sightseeing and interpreters Flowered wreaths flags and camp chairs were provided at the cemeteries and official photographers captured each woman standing at her loved one s grave This work covers the Gold Star pilgrimages from their launch to the present day beginning with an introduction to the war and wartime burial Subsequent topics include the legislative struggle and evolution of the pilgrimage bill personal pilgrimages including that of the parents of poet Joyce Kilmer the role of the Quartermaster Corps the segregation controversy a close examination of the first group to travel Party A of May 1930 and the results of the pilgrimage experience as described by participants observers organizers and scholars researched through diaries letters scrapbooks interviews and newspaper accounts Wonderful Winding

Words François Pialat, 2011-08-23 WONDERFUL WINDING WORDS Touring in four languages Chinese English French German From François PIALAT Welcome to this phrase book in 4 languages Chinese English French and German which let us discover fluent words and expressions from our daily life We are at the crossing of Asian and European civilisations which intermingle with each others Each civilisation shows its spirit according to its experience A flow of ideas carries away the reader awaking his perception Funny baffling picturesque echoing A colour a fragrance a scent beyond the words gives them their own sensibility The hundred words chosen by the writer during his peregrinations and recollections are enriching our knowledge on our own vocabulary and the one of our neighbours from here and abroad We discover an unusual Anglo Saxon world and the Far East is bringing its exotic touch Each word may have a special resonance in the imaginary or in the reality Short a clever book to learn while amusing oneself confirming the maxim Truth in the Pyrenees mistake beyond After having studied in Bournemouth England Tbingen and Bochum Germany the French author discovers ethnology with the hill tribes of the Golden Triangle Thailand His passion for Asia leads him to study Asian languages and civilisations All the Gold Stars Rainesford Stauffer, 2023-06-06 From journalist and author of An Ordinary Age an examination dismantling and reconstruction of ambition where burnout is the symptom of our holiest sin the lonely way we strive Ambition the want the hunger the need to achieve is woven into America's fabric from the first colonization to capitalism From our first gold star assignment to acceptance at the right college to hustle and grinding our lives we celebrate our drive even as we gatekeep who is permitted to strive and how visibly Even as we burn out When we can't even When we know work won't love us back All the Gold Stars looks at how the cultural personal and societal expectations around ambition are driving the burnout epidemic by funneling our worth into productivity limiting our imaginations and pushing us further apart Through the devastating personal narrative of her own ambition crisis Stauffer discovers the common factors driving us all peeling back layers of family expectations capitalism and self esteem that dangerously tie up our worth in our output Interviews with students parents workers psychologists labor organizers and more offer a new definition of ambition and the tools to reframe our lives around true success All the Gold Stars provides ways for us to reject our current reality and reconceive ambition as more collective imaginative and rooted in caring for ourselves and each other Goldstar David C Lawton, 2012-05-24 Once there was nothing and out of this evolved the universe In the miasma of creation were five comets each with a golden core As the Earth evolved and cooled down human beings began to walk the Earth Then some four thousand years ago there was a poor tribe in Peru named the Macapas This was when the Creator decreed the first of these five comets should be despatched to bring golden riches to the tribe There were two provisos Six golden haired maidens must be laid out on slabs as sacrifices to the gold star atop the Cumaria Plateau to drop its wealth upon them bringing prosperity to the tribe They were also required to build a temple in which must be placed six golden columns as a tribute to the maidens who had sacrificed themselves for the benefit of all their fellow tribesmen and women A geography professor at the University of Birmingham in England hears about this unique celestial event while giving a seminar in Lima Peru It intrigues him greatly so he decides to form a small expedition to find evidence of the sacrifices made and of course locate the mystery temple A remarkable story unfolds of this search which has far reaching consequences Gas Appliance Merchandising ,1959 Bodies of War

Lisa M. Budreau,2011-11 World War I marked the first war in which the United States government and military took full responsibility for the identification burial and memorialization of those killed in battle and as a result the process of burying and remembering the dead became intensely political The government and military attempted to create a patriotic consensus on the historical memory of World War I in which war dead were not only honored but used as a symbol to legitimize America's participation in a war not fully supported by all citizens In this book the author unpacks the politics and processes of the competing interest groups involved in the three core components of commemoration repatriation remembrance and return This book emphasizes the inherent tensions in the politics of memorialization and explores how those interests often conflicted with the needs of veterans and relatives Gold Star Honor Roll Indiana Historical Commission,1921
