Batten,2024-07-14 Chief Heretchaa eyed his human quarry down the length of a drawn arrow shaft its unique golden tip ablaze in the midday sun A solitary bead of sweat worked its way down his forehead and across his left cheek but he ignored it the success of this undertaking his only concern The Dakota summer skies were clear and blue but letting loose this arrow would announce that a storm was coming Daniel Moss made a living as a bounty hunter and as a supplier of various desired items to the native populations on and off the reservations Many transactions were the kind you liked to keep secret Once a soldier the military had shown no appreciation for his methods of dealing with the Indians and so he now spent much of his time coveting what others had and obtaining it if he could His greed had no bounds Moss will allow nothing to come between him and what he deserves and to that end he now tracked a savage warrior that some claimed moved as a ghost and possessed such gold that he could waste the precious metal on arrowheads The newspapers glamorized him as The Golden Arrow across the continent Nonsense Moss was in pursuit of The Golden Arrow unaware that he too was being hunted by a skilled mountain man charged with bringing Moss to justice a man whose life story tied the three together In this tale of early America s insane lust for gold one Chief sends a clear message of defiance using the only weapon he feels will be understood by the invaders and defilers of the sacred Black Hills arrows made from the gold itself Will this be enough to protect the people of his tribe Is it the right decision or will it lead his people to annihilation They all looked to Heretchaa to lead them after his father s murder but was he ready and worthy of the task Would the visiting spirits of his ancestors help guide him along the way Did they wish the same revenge he sought So many questions and the answers so elusive He must find the way Approx 36 000 words The Golden Arrow Mary Webb,2004 The Golden Arrow James Plaisted Webber,1922 Pullman Profile Antony M. The Golden Arrow, Etc. [Illustrated by Norman Hepple.]. Mary Webb,1930 Towards New Goals Bjarke Olsen,2024-06-04 I have written this rollicking adventure book for older children and young adults in which the main characters travel through time and space The journey began over thirty years ago in the sauna My youngest son then aged five or six was not very keen on this Nordic recreation I told him stories to divert his attention He was soon an avid fan of the bath not because of the steam and the heat but because of the stories I was dreaming up I wondered for many years whether I should gather the stories into a book In 2018 I took the plunge and started writing It turned out to be a stimulating and engaging pastime conflating fact and fantasy mixing past and future contrasting good and evil and offering morsels of moral religious and political thought without trying to be an ethical compass The book was published in Swedish in 2022 and has met with great success This encouraged me to go further The work has now been revised beautifully illustrated and translated into English Perhaps I am Baron von M nchausen s reincarnation Enjoy the book and judge for yourself Bernardino Schwimmeltrik Meet Our Main Characters fflIB fflI Pelle Pistol and Kalle Kanon are animals but they have human characteristics and co mingle on equal footing with people fflIB fflI is a cheerful optimistic young pig He is thirsty for knowledge He spent six years in the village school in Swineburn Sweden where he was born Even though he learned to read and write it was not a very good school His thirst had to be quenched elsewhere He devoured every book in the school library and many of those from the library in the nearest big town He soon had a smattering of mathematics physics history geography anatomy and a host of other subjects When he was older he supplemented his learning by attending night school However he realised that his knowledge was superficial He had hoped to go to university but the family s finances did not allow that fflIB fflI is a shy fellow He is not very tall nor is he physically strong but what he lacks in muscle he is well compensated for by his knowledge He can contribute to any conversation with snippets of information on a host of subjects Pelle Pistol is a black and white cat He had been Master at Arms to the King of France He is always elegantly dressed in an immaculate red uniform with a wide white collar On his head he sports a broad brimmed hat with an ostrich feather which quivers in the breeze A pair of flintlock pistols nestle in their holsters at his hip The pistol on the left is accompanied by a slim rapier He has a fine lush moustache which he preens constantly He is fashion conscious and somewhat vain He enjoys fine wine and gourmet food He would rather laze in the sun than work But he is brave and is an excellent marksman Kalle Kanon is a tough sturdy bulldog with a stern demeanour and a heart of gold He had been Master of artillery in the army of the French King where he and Pelle Pistol met They have been friends through thick and thin ever since Kalle Kanon is enormously strong devoid of fear and inordinately courageous He compensates for what he lacks in intellect with practicality and pragmatism He is always ready for action a good meal and a pint or two of ale He is short tempered and quick with his fists He is no conversationalist His remarks are gruff curt and to the point No idle chatter No banal banter Only the task is important And he always gets the job done Their adventures bind these three diverse personalities together in mutual love respect and loyalty They support each other through hell and high water They become closer than brothers
