The Great Power Competition Volume 6 Adib Farhadi, Mark Grzegorzewski, Anthony J. Masys, 2025-01-13 China's Belt and Road Initiative BRI represents a monumental shift in the global power landscape. Through ambitious infrastructure projects and strategic economic investments, China has emerged as a formidable challenger to U.S. dominance in the modern Great Power Competition (GPC), leveraging a unique blend of soft power and non-interference policy. This distinctive strategy has allowed China to rapidly gain footholds in resource-rich regions such as Central Asia, South Asia, CASA, and the Middle East, compelling the U.S. to rethink its foreign policy approach in response. Given China's adept leveraging of soft power in these geostrategic regions, the critical question arises: how can the U.S. meet the nuanced challenges of the modern GPC? The Great Power Competition Volume 6: The Rise of China delves into China's calculated rise, exploring how the BRI has captivated nations spanning pivotal regions, entrenching Chinese influence across critical sectors. This edited volume brings together distinguished global experts and thought leaders to provide comprehensive analyses of China's expanding influence across economic, political, technological, and security domains. The collection of essays offers critical insights and recommendations for navigating the modern-day great power competition in an era defined by China's ascent. The book highlights China's BRI brand diplomacy and its strategic use of soft power and non-interference policy to reshape the geopolitical landscape. The authors' final analyses underscore that in the modern era of the GPC, strategic competition and soft power are deeply intertwined.

Islamic Law and Muslim Same-Sex Unions Junaid Jahangir, Hussein Abdullatif, 2016-10-03 This book is written with the objective of reasonably addressing the need of Muslim gays and lesbians for a life which involves intimacy, affection, and companionship within the confines of a legal contract. Contemporary conservative Muslim leaders unreasonably promote false marriages with straight spouses, failing which they prescribe the solution of permanent celibacy as a test. This book delves into an extensive scholarship on the same sources that conservative Muslim leaders draw on: the Qur'an, Hadith, and jurisprudence. It is argued that the primary sources of Muslim knowledge addressed sexual acts between the same gender in the context of inhospitality, exploitation, coercion, and disease, but not true same-sex unions. Past Muslim scholarship is silent on the issue of sexual orientation and Muslim same-sex unions. The arguments of contemporary conservative Muslim leaders are deconstructed, and the case for Muslim same-sex unions is made based on jurisprudential principles and thorough arguments from within the Muslim tradition.

Hellenic Roots of Justice and Inequality and a Jewish Ideological Alternative in Economic Science David

Vázquez-Guzmán, 2023-05-12 This book explores the philosophical foundations of what we today understand as justice. Here

we understand the present tendency in the world to see everything as a class struggle yet the lack of effectiveness of that view in social arrangements and for that a renewed Jewish perspective is offered instead The book argues that the classical understanding of equality as justice is tainted by an anti Semitic portrayal of richness which is completely rejected here From an economic methodology perspective it discusses how our present Hellenic view of equality does not do much to help those in need and proposes a new mechanism of poverty alleviation based on generalized responsibility to help vulnerable neighbors such as orphans widows aliens the elderly the sick and the oppressed then putting the ordinary citizen at the center of social responsibility

Journal of American Folklore ,1925 Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein,2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations. However, for friendship to advance, there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions. Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues, seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions. It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations, in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews, his closest personal friend.

Contributors: Balwant Singh Dhillon, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Ruben L. F. Habito, Ryan McAnnally, Linz Stephen Butler Murray, Eleanor Nesbitt, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sender, Johann M. Vento, and Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME TWO: This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present-day relations. Its operative notion is the healing of memory, developed by John Paul II. Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes. Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is, in some ways, a cross-religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present-day relations. At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations.

ABOUT VOLUME THREE: The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why and how it should be shared internally and externally, and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing. This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition-based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared.

Contributors: Pal Ahluwalia, Timothy Gianotti, Alon Goshen Gottstein, Sallie B. King, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sender, Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR: All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces. Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments, polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media, and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups, ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning. As religion takes on new forms, the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured. Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Yearbook of Muslims in Europe, Volume 6 Jørgen Nielsen, Samim Akgönül, Ahmet Alibašić, Egdunas Raciūnas, 2014-10-30 The Yearbook of Muslims in Europe provides an up to date account of the situation of Muslims in Europe Covering 45 countries of Europe in its broader sense the Yearbook presents a country by country summary of essential data with basic statistics and evaluations of their reliability surveys of legal status and arrangements organisations etc Data have been brought up to date from the previous volume The Yearbook is an annual reference work for country surveys on Muslims in Europe It is an important

Romantic Outlaws, Beloved Prisons Martha Grace Duncan, 1999-09

An ex-convict struggles with his addictive yearning for prison. A law-abiding citizen broods over his pleasure in violent illegal acts. A prison warden loses his job because he is so successful in rehabilitating criminals. These are but a few of the intriguing stories Martha Grace Duncan examines in her bold interdisciplinary book Romantic Outlaws, Beloved Prisons. Duncan writes, "This is a book about paradoxes and mingled yarns about the bright sides of dark events, the silver linings of sable clouds. She portrays upright citizens who harbor a strange liking for criminal deeds and criminals who conceive of prison in positive terms as a nurturing mother, an academy, a matrix of spiritual rebirth, or a refuge from life's trivia. In developing her unique vision, Duncan draws on literature, history, psychoanalysis, and law. Her work reveals a non-utopian world in which criminals and non-criminals, while injuring each other in obvious ways, nonetheless live together in a symbiotic as well as an adversarial relationship, needing each other, serving each other, enriching each other's lives in profound and surprising fashion."
