The Politics Of Memory Native Historical Interpretation In The Colombian Andes:

The Politics of Memory Michael M. Tavuzzi, Joanne Rappaport, 1997 How does a culture in which writing is not a prominent feature create historical tradition Researcher Joanne Rappaport answers the question by tracing the past three centuries of intellectual history of the Nasa a community in the Colombian Andes Originally published in 1990 but of continuing interest to all scholars of Latin America 21 illustrations The Cambridge History of the Native Peoples of the Americas Bruce G. Trigger, Wilcomb E. Washburn, Richard E. W. Adams, Frank Salomon, Murdo J. MacLeod, Stuart B. Schwartz, 1996 Library holds volume 2 part 2 only Cauca's Indigenous Movement in Southwestern Colombia Brett Troyan, 2015-06-10 Cauca's Indigenous Movement in Southwestern Colombia Land Violence and Ethnic Identity provides a vivid account of how the indigenous communities of Cauca in southwestern Colombia engaged with the Colombian central state Troyan begins with the question of how 34 percent of the Colombian population obtained legal rights to close to a quarter of the national territory Her in depth study of the correspondence between the central state and indigenous communities of Cauca reveals that the nation state played a key role in the legitimization of land claims based on ethnic identity Starting with the indigenous movement led by Manuel Quintín Lame in 1914 this book shows how in contrast to the local authorities of Cauca the central state adopted a more sympathetic albeit contradictory approach to indigenous communities grievances throughout the twentieth century Land Violence and Cauca's Indigenous Movement in Southwestern Colombia presents an examination of state initiatives in the 1930s 1950s 1960s and 1970s toward indigenous communities in Cauca which sheds light on the political and social construction of Colombian indigenous identity Troyan also reveals how violence and the representation of violence shaped the conversations between the central state and indigenous communities of Cauca the central state's inability to exert a monopoly on violence Troyan argues places indigenous communities and their leaders in jeopardy despite the discursive legitimization of land claims based on ethnic identity The Memory of the People Andy Wood, 2013-08-15 The Memory of the People is a major study of popular memory in the early modern period

Planning the Past Anita M. Waters, 2006-01-01 Planning the Past studies the way a post colonial society reconstructs its national history and grapples with its colonial past specifically in Port Royal a Jamaican village with a dramatic history of pirates naval admirals and earthquakes Anita M Waters argues that the plans for Port Royal's heritage tourism development represent a chronological record of historical revisionism and the fact that none of the plans has been realized reflects post colonial social processes and national ambivalence about piratical and naval history This interdisciplinary study will be valuable reading for students of historiography piracy Caribbean history Caribbean politics and heritage tourism

Ordinary Places/Extraordinary Events Clara Irazábal, 2008-01-17 Clara Irazábal and her contributors explore the urban history of some of Latin America's great cities through studies of their public spaces and what has taken place there The avenues and plazas of Mexico City Havana Santo Domingo Caracas Bogota São Paulo Lima Santiago and Buenos Aires have been the backdrop for extraordinary history making events While some argue that public spaces are a prerequisite for the expression representation and reinforcement of democracy they can equally be used in the pursuit of totalitarianism Indeed public spaces in both the past and present have been the site for the contestation by ordinary people of various stances on democracy and citizenship By exploring the use and meaning of public spaces in Latin American cities this book sheds light on contemporary definitions of citizenship and democracy in the Americas Spaces of the Mind Elaine Jahner,2004-01-01 Spaces of the Mind reveals how both immigrant European and modern Native communities and individuals use oral and written narratives to define and center themselves in time and space Elaine A Jahner skillfully weaves together years of fieldwork among the Standing Rock Sioux in North Dakota her own memories of growing up in a German Russian town across the Missouri River from the Standing Rock Sioux and an illuminating set of narrative concepts Spaces of the Mind proposes a theory of cognitive style that emphasizes the ways in which distinct cultural identities are expressed through the structure of a narrative and the unfolding of its performance telling or reading Themes of creativity and survival amid loss pervade the stories told by Natives about themselves and their past when discussing the inundation of the original Standing Rock Sioux village during the Oahe Dam construction in the 1950s Immigrant Germans and Alsations struggled to reconcile the hardships of the northern Plains with what they left behind in the Old World and the narratives of a German Russian community reflect and encourage survival in the face of transition Jahner also studies how two prominent novelists James Welch a member of the Blackfeet community and Mildred Walker who left her native New England for the West perceive a single landscape the state of Montana and how it has influenced their thought and narratives Spaces of the Mind provides a fresh understanding of Western literature and culture encourages a reconsideration of the formation and modern character of the American West and contributes to a fuller appreciation of the significance of narrative Fluent Selves Suzanne Oakdale,Magnus Course,2014-11-01 Fluent Selves examines narrative practices throughout lowland South America focusing on indigenous communities in Brazil Chile Ecuador and Peru illuminating the social and cultural processes that make the past as important as the present for these peoples This collection brings together leading scholars in the fields of anthropology and linguistics to examine the intersection of these narratives of the past with the construction of personhood The volume s exploration of autobiographical and biographical accounts raises questions about fieldwork ethical practices and cultural boundaries in the study of anthropology Rather than relying on a simple opposition between the Western individual and the non Western rest contributors to Fluent Selves explore the complex interplay of both individualizing as well as relational personhood in these practices Transcending classic debates over the categorization of myth and history the autobiographical and biographical narratives in Fluent Selves illustrate the very medium in which several modes of engaging with the past meet are reconciled and reemerge Race and Nation in Modern Latin America Nancy P. Appelbaum,Anne S. Macpherson,Karin Alejandra Roseblatt,2003 Based on cutting edge research these 12 essays examine connections between race and national identity in Latin America and the Caribbean in the post independence era They reveal how notions of race and nationhood have varied over time and across the region s political landscapes

Thunder Shaman Ana Mariella Bacigalupo, 2016-05-17 As a wild drumming thunder shaman a warrior mounted on her spirit horse Francisca Kolipi s spirit traveled to other historical times and places gaining the power and knowledge to conduct spiritual warfare against her community s enemies including forestry companies and settlers As a civilized shaman Francisca narrated the Mapuche people s attachment to their local sacred landscapes which are themselves imbued with shamanic power and constructed nonlinear histories of intra and interethnic relations that created a moral order in which Mapuche become history s spiritual victors Thunder Shaman represents an extraordinary collaboration between Francisca Kolipi and anthropologist Ana Mariella Bacigalupo who became Kolipi s granddaughter trusted helper and agent in a mission of historical re construction and myth making The book describes Francisca s life death and expected rebirth and shows how she remade history through multitemporal dreams visions and spirit possession drawing on ancestral beings and forest spirits as historical agents to obliterate state ideologies and the colonialist usurpation of indigenous lands Both an academic text and a powerful ritual object intended to be an agent in shamanic history Thunder Shaman functions simultaneously as a shamanic bible embodying Francisca s power will and spirit long after her death in 1996 and an insightful study of shamanic historical consciousness in which biography spirituality politics ecology and the past present and future are inextricably linked It demonstrates how shamans are constituted by historical political and ecological events while they also actively create history itself through shamanic imaginaries and narrative forms
