Hungarian Catholic Intellectuals in Contemporary Romania Marc Roscoe Loustau, 2022-06-27 Set against the backdrop of the rise of right wing Christian nationalism in Eastern Europe this book declares that Catholic theologians ought to be understood and studied as intellectuals socially and historically situated creators of national cultural traditions While the Romanian government funds thriving schools for the country's Hungarian minority NGOs founded by Transylvanian Hungarians continue to organize volunteers to supplement this formal pedagogy These volunteers understand themselves to be reviving a national tradition of serving the people by educating the region's rural Hungarian populace While this book is about the challenges Catholic educators face in teaching villagers it is just as much about their new effort to call groups of volunteers from across the border in Hungary to teach alongside them In these encounters Transylvanian Hungarian educators remake their intellectual tradition especially ideas about the basis of pedagogical authority the ethical character of the nation and the social location of selfhood When contemporary Catholic intellectuals urge teachers to manifest their national self consciousness they carry with them the assumption that selfhood emerges where humans collaborate with God While Transylvanian Hungarian intellectuals are enmeshed in constant competition by focusing on contemporary theologians New Magyar Apostles unmasks the struggle over the nature of divine presence that animates this revival of a Christian national tradition of intellectual service
