Nigerian Film Culture and the Idea of the Nation Tsaaio, James Tar, Ugochukwu, Françoise, 2017-09-17 Collectively the essays brought together in this book represent a discursive confluence on Nollywood as a local film culture with a global character aspiration and reach The governing concern of the book is that texts including film texts are animated by a particular sociology and anthropology which gives them concrete existence and meaning The book argues that Nollywood the Nigerian video film text is deeply rooted in the sub soil of its social and cultural milieus Nollywood is therefore engaged in the relentless negotiation and re negotiation of the everyday lives of the people against the backdrop of their cultural traditions social contradictions and the politics of their ethnic national identity longing and belonging The essays weave an intricate and delicate argument about the critical role of Nollywood to the idea of nationhood and the logic of its narration with implications for language politics and culture in Africa The book is a valuable addition to the critical discourse on the important place of film and cinema studies in national engineering processes

The Power of African Cultures Toyin Falola, 2003 An analysis of the ties between culture and every aspect of African life using Africa's past to explain present situations This book focuses on the modern cultures of Africa from the consequences of the imposition of Western rule to the current struggles to define national identities in the context of neo liberal economic policies and globalization The book argues that it is against the backdrop of foreign influences that Africa has defined for itself notions of identity and development African cultures have been evolving in response to change and in other ways solidly rooted in a shared past The book successfully deconstructs the last one hundred and fifty years of cultures that have been disrupted replaced and resurrected The Power of African Cultures challenges many preconceived notions such as male dominance and female submission the supposed unity of ethnic groups and contemporary Western stereotypes of Africans It also shows the dynamism of African cultures to adapt to foreign imposition even as colonial rule forced the adoption of foreign institutions and cultures African cultures appropriated these elements Traditions were reworked symbols redefined and the past situated in contemporary problems in order to accommodate the modern era Toyin Falola is a Fellow of the Nigerian Academy of Letters and Fellow of the Historical Society of Nigeria He is the recipient of the 2006 Cheikh Anta Diop Award for Exemplary Scholarship in African Studies and the 2008 Quintessence Award by the Africa Writers Endowment He holds an honorary doctorate from Monmouth University and he is University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin where he is also the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities His books include Nationalism and African Intellectuals and Violence in Nigeria both from the University of Rochester Press The Mazruiana Collection Revisited Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2005 Consists of 650 annotated entries covering Mazrui's books dissertations edited works about him major essays in books academic journals and conference papers This work contains essays including pamphlets magazine and newspaper articles and audio visual recordings Critical Perspectives on Culture and Globalisation Kimani Njogu, Seifudein Adem, 2017-08-08 In 1996 President Nelson Mandela described Professor Ali A Mazrui 1933 2014 as an outstanding educationist and freedom fighter In 2002 the former UN Secretary General Kofi Annan referred to Professor Mazrui as Africa's gift to the world Author of more than 35 books and hundreds of articles Professor Mazrui was an African scholar who had treated with uncommon verve and flair a wide range of themes that included globalization the triple heritage peace and social justice This volume engages with some of those themes that excited his mind for over six decades The multidisciplinary essays seek to underline the highlights of Mazrui's intellectual journey and attest to the fact that he was public intellectual par excellence Indeed in 2005 he was named one of the top 100 public intellectuals in the world This book is a product of a symposium held from 15 to 17 July 2016 in Nairobi Kenya The symposium was jointly organized by the Twaweza Communications Nairobi Kenya and the Institute of Global Cultural Studies State University of New York at Binghamton which Ali Mazrui created and presided over as the Albert Schweitzer Professor in the Humanities from 1991 to 2014 Language, Society, and Empowerment in Africa and Its Diaspora Akinloyè Òjò, 2022-09-06 Africa's diversity is best illustrated linguistically Thousands of endogenous and exogenous languages are linked to and central to the identity and reality of Africans Language is a vital lens for analyzing these multifaceted challenges in Africa where a deeper understanding of the entire linguistic landscape is germane to understanding sociopolitical and cultural systems Concentrating on instrumental and emblematic functions of language in Africa Language Society and Empowerment in Africa and Its Diaspora argues for the critical value of African languages beyond functionality into philosophical consideration of their importance for African unity and advancement Akinloyè calls for the development and empowerment of African languages to serve in various domains including the support of basic literacy and daily survival of their users j propagates ways to empower African languages for African sociocultural and economic development in the twenty first century The author productively engages works by linguists and language pedagogues to provide an ardent case for the empowerment of African languages in the renewed era of globalization the internet and an emergent Global Africa j posits and accentuates some of the notable modalities for empowering African languages in specialized domains for national and continental development
