The Power of Tautology Allen Thiher, 1997 Historicism occupies a central position in recent developments of literary theory exemplified by Heidegger and Foucault They are respectively right and left wing examples of the desire to define whatever occurs in history as a product of history Heidegger and Foucault also represent versions of the widespread belief that history should be viewed as a form of conspiracy Another example studied is the structuralism that has developed from Saussure through Roland Barthes Structuralism has defined all products of the human mind to be systems that can be reduced to the system of language The Nature of Difference George Ellison, Alan H. Goodman, 2006-04-19

Unprecedented advances in genetics and biotechnology have brought profound new insights into human biological variation These present challenges and opportunities for understanding the origins of human nature the nature of difference and the social practices these sustain This provides an opportunity for cooperation between the biological and s Modernism in Wonderland John D. Morgenstern, Michelle Witen, 2024-01-11 Retracing the steps of a surprising array of 20th century writers who ventured into the fantastical topsy turvy world of Lewis Carroll s fictions this book demonstrates the full extent of Carroll s legacy in literary modernism Testing the authority of language and mediation through extensive word play and genre bending the Alice books undoubtedly prefigure literary modernism at its upmost experimental The collection s chapters look beyond literary style to show how Carroll s writings had a far reaching impact on modern life from commercial culture to politics and philosophy This book shows us the Alice we recognize from Carroll s novels but also the Alice modernist writers encountered through the looking glass of these extraliterary discourses Recovering a common touchstone between the likes of T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf W H Auden and writers conventionally regarded on the periphery of modernist studies such as Dorothy L Sayers Sylvia Plath Jorge Luis Borges Flann O Brien and Vladimir Nabokov this volume ultimately provides a new entry point into a more broadly conceptualised global modernism Revels in Madness Allen Thiher, 2009-12-22 A sweeping survey of how notions of madness have been represented in medicine and literature from the Greeks to the present African American Literary Theory Winston Napier, 2000-07 The first volume to expound African American literary theory from the 1920s to present African American Literary Theory A Reader is the first volume to document the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present As the volume progresses chronologically from the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Blacks Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism and the rise of queer theory it focuses on the key arguments themes and debates in each period By constantly bringing attention to the larger political and cultural issues at stake in the interpretation of literary texts the critics gathered here have contributed mightily to the prominence and popularity of African American literature in this country and abroad African American Literary Theory provides a unique historical analysis of how these thinkers have shaped literary theory and literature at large and will be a indispensable text for the study of African American intellectual
