Ethnography as a Pastoral Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2023-02-28 Ethnography is a way to tap the deep undercurrents in a community through a process of gathering analyzing and sharing data Fully revised and updated for this second edition Ethnography as a Pastoral Practice has quickly become the go to textbook for those in or training for ministry who want to discover how they can use ethnography to help them hear the stories of those to whom they minister Setting forth the case for ethnography's ability to galvanize aspirations and heal communal hurt this book presents the helpful pastoral practice of ethnography in a clear step by step manner and includes many compelling case studies of transformational leadership Ethnography as a Pastoral Practice invites us to open our eyes ears and hearts to those in our congregations

Under the Oak Tree Ronald J. Allen, John S. McClure, O. Wesley Allen Jr., 2013-11-06 Two trends in the early twenty first century intersect to give this volume immediate relevance 1 The emerging postmodern ethos in North America is calling into question many things we have taken for granted including the purposes of the church and 2 our time is increasingly fractious as groups with distinct worldviews become polarized and often antagonistic Eleven noted contributors join a growing current that sees conversation as an image to refresh our thinking about the nature and purpose of the church and as a process in which individuals and communities with different perspectives come together for real understanding Under the Oak Tree employs the image of Sarah and Abraham greeting three visitors under the Oaks of Mamre as an image for the church as a community of conversation a community that opens itself to the otherness of the Bible voices in history and tradition others in the contemporary social and ecological worlds Furthermore the book shows how conversation can lead the church to action The book takes a practical approach by exploring how conversation can shape key parts of the church s life Topics include preaching worship formation evangelism pastoral care mission and ecumenism social witness and the relationship of Christianity to other religions Foundational chapters consider God as conversational the church as community of conversation and the minister as conversation leader
