Through the Panama Scholars of cultural studies history humanities Latin American studies literature and Russian studies will find this book particularly useful Malcolm Lowry: His Art and Early Life M. C. Bradbrook, 1974-07-18 This 1975 book corrects and amplifies the record of Malcolm Lowry's early life recording for the first time one of its crucial incidents Lowry was an alcoholic and wanderer who turned a failed life into a success of a different order and which has been recognised only after his death Like Lowry Professor Bradbrook was born in Wirral and writes of the scenes of early life with sympathetic understanding She also knew the Cambridge of the 1930s when Lowry read English there Bradbrook considers the critical point of knowledge of Lowry's life and the ways in which it is absorbed in his writings This enquiry broadens out into a discussion of the art itself and will serve as an excellent introduction of Lowry's life Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space Richard J. Lane, Miguel Mota, 2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry's spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book's three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry's life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry's writing Published in English The Wreath of Wild Olive Mihai Spărișu, 1997-04-24 Examines the concept of play in Western thought with special emphasis on the relationship between aesthetics and ethics and envisions literary discourse as contributing to an alternative mentality based on peace rather than power Malcolm Lowry George Woodcock, 2007 The author of four truly important novels The Recognitions in 1955 J R in 1975 Carpenter's Gothic in 1985 and A Frolic of His Own in 1995 William Gaddis is considered by many literary scholars to be one of the most outstanding novelists of the twentieth century to be spoken of in the same breath as James Joyce Robert Musil and Thomas Pynchon Hints and Guesses William Gaddis's Fiction of Longing is the first scholarly work to discuss all four Gaddis novels While not dismissing the inclination of many scholars to view Gaddis's fiction as postmodern Christopher Knight moves critical response in another direction toward a discussion of Gaddis's significance as a satirist and social critic Knight investigates Gaddis's predominant thematic interests including those of contemporary aesthetics Flemish painting forgery corporate America Third World politics and the U S legal system What Knight finds is an author not only acutely sensitive to post war social realities but also one whose critique carries with it an implied utopian dimension The Voyage that Never Ends

Sherrill E. Grace, 2011-11-01 Sherrill Grace shows how Malcolm Lowry's theme of a cyclical pattern of initiation repeated ordeals with failure and retreat followed by success and development which in turn gave way to fresh defeat influenced the structure narrative style and the symbolic pattern in his writing The author also includes an appendix in which she examines the elements of Conrad Aiken's fiction and prose that had a significant impact on Lowry's work Wandering through Guilt

Paola Di Gennaro, 2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene's The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen's Death in Rome and Oka Shōhei's Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths
