The Gathas of Zarathushtra Piloo Nanavutty,1999 The Words Of Zarathustra Prophet Of Ancient Iran Have Come Down To Us Across The Centuries Through The Gathas Seventeen Hymns Which He Composed And Which Embody The Core Of His Faith For The First Time The Background Provided By The Story Of Creation The Evangelical Dictionary of World Religions H. Wayne House,2019-02-19 With all of the different religions sects denominations and belief systems out there it can be difficult to separate the facts from mere opinion especially if one is relying solely on online sources which may or may not be vetted and which often have an ideological or political slant to them How can we truly understand if we cannot even be sure we are getting the facts straight In this comprehensive resource more than 75 evangelical scholars offer a thoroughly researched guide to Christianity other world religions and alternative religious views including entries on movements theological terms and major historical figures Perfect for pastors students and anyone who wants ready access to information on today s religious landscape Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd,2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue The Universe Within Us Jane E. Harper,2009 A provocative look at the purpose of life through a mixture of religion science and personal experience The Zoroastrian Diaspora John R. Hinnells,2005-04-28 What is the distinctive Zoroastrian experience and what is the common diasporic experience The Zoroastrian Diaspora is the outcome of twenty years of research and of archival and fieldwork in eleven countries involving approximately 250 000 miles of travel It has also involved a survey questionnaire in eight countries yielding over 1 840 responses This is the first book to attempt a global comparison of Diaspora groups in six continents Little has been written about Zoroastrian communities as far apart as China East Africa Europe America and Australia or on Parsis in Mumbai post Independence Each chapter is based on unused original sources ranging from nineteenth century archives to contemporary newsletters The book also includes studies of Zoroastrians on the Internet audio visual resources and the modern development of Parsi novels in English As well as studying the Zoroastrians

for their own inherent importance this book contextualizes the Zoroastrian migrations within contemporary debates on Diaspora studies John R Hinnells examines what it is like to be a religious Asian in Los Angeles or London Sydney or Hong Kong Moreover he explores not only how experience differs from one country to another but also the differences between cities in the same country for example Chicago and Houston The survey data is used firstly to consider the distinguishing demographic features of the Zoroastrian communities in various countries and secondly to analyse different patterns of assimilation between different groups men and women and according to the level and type of education Comparisons are also drawn between people from rural and urban backgrounds and between generations in religious beliefs and practices including the preservation of secular culture
