The George Eliot Letters Volume 9 1871 1881:

From Author to Text Caroline Levine, Mark W Turner, 2019-06-04 First published in 1998 this volume proposes to shift the critical emphasis from a canonical author to her uncanonical text from George Eliot to her novel Romola and contends that this choice both broadens the range of interpretive possibilities and brings them into sharper focus The editors invited a variety of critics to put their different critical models to work on Romola and the results are fertile and suggestive among the issues explored here are the domestic politics of marriage the relationship between narrative and epistemology the materiality of the text the novel's relation to nineteenth century narratives of martyrdom and the gendering of space Such theoretical eclecticism when focused on a common reference point necessarily opens out into a dialogue among critical and interpretive models Theory throws light onto Romola just as Romola throws light onto theory The George Eliot letters. 9. 1871 - 1881 George Eliot, 1978 Form and Feeling in Modern Literature Isobel Armstrong, 2017-12-02 Essays short stories and poems by eminent creative writers critics and scholars from three continents celebrate the literary achievements of Barbara Hardy the foremost exponent of close critical reading in the latter half of the twentieth century and today Her work as the essays in the volume bear witness encompasses 19th and 20th century British fiction poetry and Shakespeare In addition to an introduction outlining and assessing Hardy's career and writing there is an extensive bibliography of her work Comparatively short concise essays stories and poems by twenty distinguished hands express the eclectic nature of Barbara Hardy's work and themselves form a many faceted critical creative gathering Form and Feeling moves away from the traditional festschrift to create an innovative critical genre that reflects the variety and nature of its subject's work In addition to Barbara Hardy's own writing authors and subjects treated include Anglo Welsh poetry nineteenth century fiction Margaret Atwood Wilkie Collins Ivy Compton Burnet Charles Dickens George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell G M Hopkins Wyndham Lewis George Meredith Alice Meynell Harriet Beecher Stowe Shakespeare and W B Yeats amongst others George Eliot Karen L. Pangallo, 1990 The boom in feminist criticism over the past two decades has led to a Renaissance in Eliot studies as Perlis explains in his introduction to this volume feminist interpretation is essential to understanding a writer whose fundamental theme was the constraint and trauma suffered by Victorian women Comprehensively covering Eliot scholarship published from 1972 through to 1987 this annotated bibliography is the first to affirm the sweeping changes in Eliot studies It lists and annotates many works that establish the social and personal context in which the novels were written including Haight's nine volume compilation of Eliot's letters which was a catalyst for much subsequent scholarship The Business of Beauty Jessica P. Clark, 2020-04-30 The Business of Beauty is a unique exploration of the history of beauty consumption and business in Victorian and Edwardian London Illuminating national and cultural contingencies specific to London as a global metropolis it makes an important intervention by challenging the view of those who like their historical contemporaries perceive the 19th and early 20th centuries as devoid of beauty praxis let alone a commercial beauty culture Contrary to this perception The Business of Beauty reveals that Victorian and Edwardian women and men developed a number of tacit strategies to transform their looks including the purchase of new goods and services from a heterogeneous group of urban entrepreneurs hairdressers barbers perfumers wigmakers complexion specialists hair restorers manicurists and beauty culturists Mining trade journals census data periodical print and advice literature Jessica P Clark takes us on a journey through Victorian and Edwardian London s beauty businesses from the shady back parlors of Sarah Madame Rachel Leverson to the elegant showrooms of Eugene Rimmel into the first Mayfair salon of Mrs Helena Titus aka Helena Rubinstein By revealing these stories Jessica P Clark revises traditional chronologies of British beauty consumption and provides the historical background to 20th century developments led by Rubinstein and others Weaving together histories of gender fashion and business to investigate the ways that Victorian critiques of self fashioning and beautification defined both the buying and selling of beauty goods this is a revealing resource for scholars students fashion followers and beauty enthusiasts alike
