Revelation and the Gift of Faith John Brooke, 2025-04-03 If wealth and fame are really important to you you will probably find this book most disagreeable But if like William Blake you have seen the world in a grain of sand have found a heaven in some wild flower and discovered eternity in an hour then this story will be of very great interest to you The book shows the Holy Spirit at work in the lives of many disciples of Jesus scientists and missionaries medical workers and politicians soldiers and priests kings and bishops all working for God Your body was designed by God to have a long period of sleep nightly Sleep provides many benefits for both body and soul Sleep is a gift from God and as we sleep every night he speaks to us through dreams visions and that still small voice Every single person mentioned in the book received this gift Many of the people whose story is told by the author were personal friends and fellow pilgrims they enjoyed both gifts of sleep and faith indeed these gifts are always connected God has compassion upon all mankind and the true meaning of Ps 127 2 is that the Spirit visits both righteous and unrighteous in their sleep True we all make mistakes as we commit sins of commission and omission but if we ask the Lord to guide us with his eye the Spirit will lead in most amazing ways as he did for Job The Spirit teaches us that nothing happens to us unless he allows it Like the people described in this book the author has experienced God speaking through Scripture through General Revelation and in dreams for as long as he can remember Jesus tells us that we must accept him as does the child Mat 18 3 The special

The Gift of Faith Bryan Holstrom,2012-02 How does a person come to faith in Christ Is that faith a gift from God or the work of man or some combination of the two As Martin Luther wrote long ago the issue of who does what in the matter of salvation constitutes the most fundamental of questions that the believer in Christ must face It was the question at the heart of the struggle to reform the church in the sixteenth century and it has resurfaced as a source of contention within the evangelical church of our day In The Gift of Faith Bryan Holstrom offers a fresh exploration of the issues involved and the biblical basis for the traditional understanding that faith is a gift from God He lays out the relationship between grace and faith and argues that the teaching on salvation that is found in many churches today is derived more from the modern self esteem movement than from a careful reading of the Bible Most importantly Holstrom demonstrates that what is ultimately at stake in the battle over grace and faith is The Gifts of the Spirit and the Characteristics of Those Who Have Them Steve Rogers,2019-01-10 As a sergeant in the United States Marine Corps it was my sworn duty to guide teach and protect those who served in subordinate positions In this role it was critical to provide clear and concise information so that those who trusted my leadership would not be ignorant to the mission or threats The apostle Paul gives a clear warning to Christian believers pertaining to the gifts of the Spirit I would not have you be ignorant His first century warning is quite relevant in this twenty first century where doctrinal literacy is lacking and knowledge of the Holy Ghost obtained through the Word of God and experience has been replaced with choreographed programs Without clear and concise teaching the warrior in Christ is left with a butter knife rather than a sword to cut through the traditions customs and church politics that leave a believer paralyzed in ignorance The Gifts of the Spirit and the Characteristics of Those Who Have Them is a book written to be a field infantry manual for the believer that is clear and concise It provides the believer with definitions of the gifts of the Spirit and examples of how they operated both in the first century church and this present age Lastly this book will provide the believer with the information needed to examine oneself and answer the question What gift do I have This is done by describing the effect the gift has on a believer s character and behavior while operating in and out of the church
