The Girls' Public Day School Trust, 1872-1972: Centenary Review P. R. Bodington, 1972 Women Educators, Leaders and Activists Tanya Fitzgerald, Elizabeth M. Smyth, 2014-07-23 This collection traces women educators professional lives and the extent to which they challenged the gendered terrain they occupied The emphasis is placed on women s historical public voices and their own interpretation of their selves and lives in their struggle to exercise authority in The Invention of Angela Carter Edmund Gordon, 2017-02-01 The much anticipated biography of one of the most beguiling and influential writers of the twentieth century With unprecedented access to its subject s personal records and informed by fresh unvarnished anecdotes from family friends and colleagues Edmund Gordon's biography provides the first full account of Angela Carter's amazing life and enduring work This Sporting Life Robert Colls, 2020 This Sporting Life offers an important view of England's cultural history through its sporting pursuits carrying the reader to a match or a hunt or a fight viscerally drawing a portrait of the sounds and smells and showing that sport has been as important in defining British culture as gender politics education class and religion A Game for Rough Girls? Jean Williams, 2013-03-07 Can we truly call football England's national game How have we arrived at this point of such clear inequality between men's and women's football Between 1921 and 1972 women were banned from playing in football League grounds in the UK Yet in 1998 FIFA declared that the future is feminine and that football was the fastest growing sport for women globally The result of several years of original research the book traces the continuities in women's participation since the beginnings of the game and highlights the significant moments that have influenced current practice. The text provides insight into the communities and individual experiences of players fans investors administrators and coaches examination of the attitudes and role of national and international associations analysis of the development of the professional game comparisons with women's football in mainland Europe the USA and Africa A Game for Rough Girls is the first text to properly theorize the development of the game Examining recreational and elite levels the author provides a thorough critique placing women s experience in the context of broader cultural and sports studies debates on social change gender power and global At Home in the Institution J. Hamlett, 2014-11-27 At Home in the Institution examines space and material economics culture in asylums lodging houses and schools in Victorian and Edwardian England and explores the powerful influence of domesticity on all three institutional types Inez Linda J. Lumsden, 2004-07-08 Inez Milholland was the most glamorous suffragist of the 1910s and a fearless crusader for women s rights Moving in radical circles she agitated for social change in the prewar years and she epitomized the independent New Woman of the time Her death at age 30 while stumping for suffrage in California in 1916 made her the sole martyr of the American suffrage movement Her death helped inspire two years of militant protests by the National Woman's Party including the picketing of the White House which led in 1920 to ratification of the 19th Amendment granting women the right to vote Lumsden's study of this colorful and influential figure restores to history an important link between the homebound women of the 19th century and the iconoclastic feminists of the 1970s Victorian Britain (Routledge Revivals) Sally Mitchell,2012-08-06 First published in 1988 this encyclopedia serves as an overview and point of entry to the complex interdisciplinary field of Victorian studies The signed articles which cover persons events institutions topics groups and artefacts in Great Britain between 1837 and 1901 have been written by authorities in the field and contain bibliographies to provide guidelines for further research The work is intended for undergraduates and the general reader and also as a starting point for graduates who wish to explore new fields

Victorian Britain Sally Mitchell, 2011 First published in 1988 this encyclopedia serves as an overview and point of entry to the complex interdisciplinary field of Victorian studies The signed articles which cover persons events institutions topics groups and artefacts in Great Britain between 1837 and 1901 have been written by authorities in the field and contain bibliographies to provide guidelines for further research The work is intended for undergraduates and the general reader and also as a starting point for graduates who wish to explore new fields Feminists and Bureaucrats Sheila Fletcher, 1980-06-05 This study considers the Endowed Schools Act of 1869 which empowered Commissioners to prise endowment from the old grammar schools Equality and Inequality in Education Policy Liz Dawtrey, 1995 Discusses the history and gendered nature of education policy and the impact of policies on practice in education The articles represent a range of views and approaches to education demonstrating the complexity of educational experience and the influence of class race culture and gender Science and the Secrets of Nature William Eamon, 1996-06-02 In closely examining this rich but little known source of literature Eamon reveals that printing technology and popular culture had as great if not stronger an impact on early modern science as did the traditional academic disciplines Medieval interest in the secrets of nature was spurred in part by ancient works such as Pliny's Natural History As medieval experimenters adapted ancient knowledge to their changing needs they created their own books of secrets which expressed the uncritical empiricist approach of popular culture rather than the subtle argumentation of scholastic science The crude experimental methodology advanced by the professors of secrets became for the new philosophers of the seventeenth century a potent ideological weapon in the challenge of natural philosophy Histories of Girls' Schools and Related Biographical Material Barbara Barr,1984 Women in English Social History, 1800-1914: without special title Barbara Kanner, 1990

History of Education Society Bulletin ,1974 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography: Sharp-Smiles Henry Colin Gray Matthew, Brian Harrison, 2004 55 000 biographies of people who shaped the history of the British Isles and beyond from the earliest times to the year 2002 The London Experience of Secondary Education Margaret E. Bryant, 1986 This is the first substantial account of the development of secondary education in London from the period of the Middle Ages up to the end of the nineteenth century Of importance to educationalists and to social and urban historians it throws a fresh light upon this aspect of London's historical fabric revealing for example how much the foundations of the modern educational system owe to the City of London through the livery companies Strangely this is an area of study hitherto neglected The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library,1981 Bibliography of Printed Works on London History to 1939 Heather Creaton, Tony Trowles,1994 The history of London is so important in national and indeed international terms it seems extraordinary that this is the first general bibliography of the subject to appear It contains over 22 000 selected references to books and articles on the history of London from the Dark Ages to the beginning of the Second World War The whole of the former GLC area plus the City is covered Arrangement is by subject and there is a substantial analytical index Material for the bibliography was collected from specialist libraries all over London and beyond It is a starting point for any enquiry about London's development over the centuries whether from the academic historian the amateur or the general enquirer A supplement is planned to cover new material on the period Company Archives Lesley Richmond, Bridget Stockford, 1986
