Can Different Cultures Think the Same Thoughts? Kenneth Dorter, 2018-04-30 A welcome contribution to the burgeoning multicultural revolution in philosophy persuasively shows that ethics cannot be innocent of metaphysics Bryan W Van Norden author of Introduction to Classical Chinese Philosophy Kenneth Dorter's Can Different Cultures Think the Same Thoughts is a study of fundamental issues in metaphysics and ethics across major philosophical traditions of the world including the way in which metaphysics can be a foundation for ethics as well as the importance of metaphysics on its own terms Dorter examines such questions through a detailed comparison of selected major thinkers and classic works in three global philosophical traditions those of India China and the West In each chapter Dorter juxtaposes and compares two or more philosophers or classic works from different traditions from Spinoza and Shankara to Confucius and Plato to Marcus Aurelius and the Bhagavad Gita In doing so he explores different perspectives and reveals limitations and assumptions that might otherwise be obscure The goal of Dorter's cross cultural approach is to consider how far works from different cultures can be understood as holding comparable philosophical views Although Dorter reveals commonalities across the different traditions he makes no claim that there is such a thing as a universal philosophy. Clearly there are fundamental disagreements among the philosophers and works studied. Yet in each of the case studies of a particular chapter we can discover a shared or at least analogous way of looking at issues across different cultures. All those interested in metaphysics, ethics, Indian philosophy, Chinese philosophy, and comparative philosophy will find much of interest in this book.

Encyclopedia of Religious and Spiritual Development
Elizabeth M. Dowling, W. George Scarlett, 2006. Focuses on the developmental process of religion and spirituality across the human life span. This encyclopedia joins a recent trend in research and scholarship aimed at better understanding the similarities and differences between world religions and spiritualities between expressions of the divine and between experiences of the transcendent.

The Bloomsbury Reader in Cultural Approaches to the Study of Religion Sarah J. Bloesch, M. Cooper Minister, 2018-08-23. This is the first reader to gather primary sources from influential theorists of the late 20th and early 21st centuries in one place, presenting the wide-ranging and nuanced theoretical debates occurring in the field of religious studies. Each chapter focuses on a major theorist and contains an introduction contextualizing their key ideas, one or two selections representative of the theorist's innovative methodological approach, and discussion questions to extend and deepen reader engagement. Divided in three sections, the first part includes foundational comparative debates: Mary Douglas's articulation of purity and impurity; Phyllis Klee's methods of reading sacred texts; Wendy Doniger's comparative mythology; Catherine Bell's reimagining of religious and secular ritual. The second part focuses on methodological particularity: Alice Walker's use of narrative; Charles Long's critique of Eurocentricism; Caroline Walker Bynum's emphasis on gender and materiality. The third section focuses on expanding boundaries: Gloria Anzaldúa's work on borders and languages; Judith Butler's critique of gender and sex norms; Saba Mahmood's expansion on the critique of colonialism's secularizing demands. Reflecting the cultural turn and extending the existing canon, this is the anthology instructors have been waiting for. For further detail on the theorists discussed, please consult Cultural Approaches to Studying Religion: An Introduction to Theories and Methods, edited by Sarah J. Bloesch and Meredith Minister.

Nectar #18 Babaji Bob Kindler, Lex Hixon, Llewellyn Vaughn-Lee, Swami Ranganathananda, TS Rukmani, Annapurna Sarada, 2004-12-24. Oneness, not of a numerical content but of a homogenous, all-pervasive nature, is the theme of this journal's present issue. And whether that Oneness be encountered individually by putting forth intense inner effort while sitting in quiet retreat, or approached from the standpoint of encouraging entire cultures to realize their deeper nature or revealed by openly marking the distinctions between the diverse worlds of manifestation and that which is beyond all expression, the result is the same: Encouragement, inspiration, positivity. These things are rare today; what to speak of the Goal which they infer. And though Oneness may be less of a goal and more of a natural abiding condition, it is still the subtlest of all eternal principles, the teachings of which represent the most enigmatic pieces of information one can ever hope to ponder. Therefore the more that teachings on nonduality can be proliferated, the more chance do struggling beings have of coming in contact with it purifying their intelligence and gaining freedom As the great Advaitan Ashtavakra states A man of pure intellect realizes the Self swiftly even by instruction casually imparted A man of impure intellect gets bewildered trying to realize the Self even after inquiring over a lifetime
