The God Of Christians Theology And Liberation Series:

The God of Christians Ronaldo Muñoz,1990 Retrieving the Human Jose Comblin,2003-08-26 All roads in the church lead to humankind Pope John Paul II wrote in his first encyclical But what is it to be a human being And what vision does Christian theology offer for being and becoming human In the past theology has taken the role of the dominant ideology in a society claiming to present a complete vision of humankind and its place in creation Now Comblin argues we need to reestablish the primacy of the biblical message and tradition being lived today The Bible espouses a non idealized non individualized but realistic and communitarian view of what it means to be human This can be called the humanity of the two thirds world those whose humanity does not figure in the ideology of the privileged few As Comblin writes The privileged forget their bodies Those who have never been truly hungry do not understand that a human being is first and foremost a being who needs to eat Today it is the poor who live through their bodies and theology makes an option for the poor A new model of theology is emerging from Christian communities growing up all over the globe And yet it is an old model too that finds and takes much from the communities of the first Christians Retrieving the Human explores this new yet old vision examining questions of the new person and personhood soul and body humankind in relation to space and time the person in relation to science technology and work humanity before God It is among the poor particularly in the base communities that Comblin looks for models of being truly human today An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J. Plantinga,Thomas R. Thompson,Matthew D. Lundberg,2022-11-03 A journey in Christian theology through biblical historical and thematic perspectives with special attention to the context of today s world The Trinitarian Dharma Pabitra Mani

Bhandari,2025-02-25 As the gospel continues to spread to the farthest corners of the world the Christian faith encounters an array of diverse cultures religions philosophies and belief systems This encounter serves as a catalyst for transformation as Christianity both influences and is influenced by the new frontiers it reaches The book at hand endeavors to explore this dynamic process particularly focusing on the Trinitarian theology as a potent force for transformation Moreover it seeks to uncover the resonance between Christian concepts and the rich tapestry of Dharma thereby enhancing our understanding of the Trinity In essence this book serves as a pivotal example of how abstract theological ideas can be made relevant and meaningful in the context of a multicultural and multireligious world It embodies an approach to Christian theology that is both interreligious and interdisciplinary emanating from a global Christian perspective that embraces diversity and dialogue

Minjung and Process Hiheon Kim,2009 This book reconstructs the legacy of Korean minjung theology by reformulating its essential ideas in a dialogue with process thought In a minimal sense this study is a theological reinterpretation of the doctrine of the minjung messiah an idea which historically suffered from a misunderstanding that minjung theology created a messianic confusion while replacing christology and soteriology by a radical anthropology This erroneous conception occurred when the idea was placed within the philosophically dualistic framework of traditional doctrines in which the work of minjung is totally separated from the work of Christ In order to avoid such a dualistic understanding the author critically adopts process panentheism and makes minjung ideas more communicable and more comprehensive in current theological religious and philosophical debates Beyond defending the idea of the minjung messiah he also argues for an inclusive minjung hermeneutics that promotes the fundamental insight of minjung theology in philosophical clarity Through minjung hermeneutics minjung theology expands its practical concern and overcomes the theoretical nihilism in postmodern studies

Phenomenological Approaches to Religion and Spirituality Essien, Essien D., 2021-01-29 There is an interesting knowledge trajectory that God remains incomprehensible not imperceptible This lends credence to the fact that religious study since the Enlightenment has dedicated itself almost entirely to the problem of reconciling the non existence of God in the physical world with his necessary existence in the metaphysical world When seriously examined it would be discovered that these two aspects are logically contradictory and this is a problem with no solution But interpreting God not as a physical being but as a phenomenological thing changes the nature of the problem enough that a solution emerges almost automatically In this phenomenological model the crux of the matter is that God does not exist but God is real Therefore it is imperative to return to experience and verifiability hence purging it of unexamined and often hidden assumptions Phenomenological Approaches to Religion and Spirituality brings together the different disciplines and research approaches to provide a comprehensive analysis of the phenomenology of God and spirituality as well as offering an effective epistemological apparatus capable of dealing with this concept The book employs multidisciplinary approaches from religious studies theology philosophy anthropology and other segments to dissect the subject matter for efficient evaluation and all inclusive findings While covering various aspects of religion such as the testaments of the Bible the church the religious experience and various aspects of spirituality this book is intended for theologians philosophers religious leaders policymakers academicians researchers students public institutions and agencies with a special interest in religious matters values knowledge and truth

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human's infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice

The Way of the Kenotic Christ Samuel J.

Youngs, 2019-10-25 Despite his vast importance to twentieth century theology Jürgen Moltmann's Christology has yet to receive the same level of in depth exploration as other topics in his thought Samuel Youngs addresses this lacuna providing the first exhaustive analysis of Moltmann s doctrine of Christ including its key developments and controversial elements Youngs argues that Moltmann s doctrine of Christ is best understood as a unique variation of kenotic Christology This vision of Christ encapsulates not only a series of vibrant ethical and eschatological points but also serves Moltmann s overarching theological goal of empowering a church that lives and ministers under the cross Part I highlights key facets of Moltmann s theological method before unfolding the range of diverse themes that characterize his Christology Part II explores Moltmann s use of the kenosis hymn of Philippians 2 before interrogating Moltmann s relationship to christological tradition Part III engages in an original systematization of Moltmann s Christology centered on the theme of manifold relational kenosis

Pool,2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation

The Hermeneutics of

Participation Greg McKinzie, 2025-07-15 Many theological interpreters of Scripture have claimed that church practices produce well formed readers But which practices Greg McKinzie argues that missional hermeneutics challenges the church to include participation in God's mission among the indispensable components of readerly formation After a quarter century of contemporary reflection on missional theology however the meaning of participation in God's mission remains vague In order to explain why it is a critical hermeneutical experience therefore McKinzie sets out to develop a theological account of missional participation that incorporates the concepts of the sis embodied narrativity and solidarity Then in conversation with the hermeneutical phenomenology of Paul Ricoeur the study suggests how theologically recontextualizing a model of the movement from embodied commitments to textual interpretation in terms of participation in God's mission illuminates the epistemic reconstitution of the church's theological interpretation of Scripture Understanding participation in God's mission as theological interpretation's proper locus theologicus should reorient the notion of readerly formation because the formation of missional readers is the process in which God opens the reading community's embodied eyes of faith through the works of faith seeking understanding

Guzman explores the generative dimension of mission for the formation of doctrine for a church that needs to witness in a pluralistic world Guzman argues that understanding doctrinal formation and development depends on the missional dimension of doctrinal hermeneutics In other words these theological concepts and practices are justified based on the negotiation between theological sources identity markers and the context's diversity markers This book shows how perspectives arising from the structural elements in theological methodology shed fresh light on missional theology and the interconnections between the doctrinal loci in theology
