Dick, 2022-03-30 Beginning with The Jazz Singer 1927 and 42nd Street 1933 legendary Hollywood film producer Darryl F. Zanuck 1902 1979 revolutionized the movie musical cementing its place in American popular culture Zanuck who got his start writing stories and scripts in the silent film era worked his way to becoming a top production executive at Warner Bros in the later 1920s and early 1930s Leaving that studio in 1933 he and industry executive Joseph Schenck formed Twentieth Century Pictures an independent Hollywood motion picture production company In 1935 Zanuck merged his Twentieth Century Pictures with the ailing Fox Film Corporation resulting in the combined Twentieth Century Fox which instantly became a new major Hollywood film entity The Golden Age Musicals of Darryl F. Zanuck The Gentleman Preferred Blondes is the first book devoted to the musicals that Zanuck produced at these three studios The volume spotlights how he placed his personal imprint on the genre and how especially at Twentieth Century Fox he nurtured and showcased several blonde female stars who headlined the studio's musicals including Shirley Temple Alice Faye Betty Grable Vivian Blaine June Haver Marilyn Monroe and Sheree North Building upon Bernard F. Dick's previous work in That Was Entertainment The Golden Age of the MGM Musical this volume illustrates the richness of the American movie musical tracing how these song and dance films fit within the career of Darryl F. Army. Office of Military History, 1947 The Transportation Corps Joseph Bykofsky, Harold Larson, 1957 The Inner Life of the United States Peter Vay (grof), 1908 Francis Bacon Mark Stevens, Annalyn Swan, 2021-03-23 THE TIMES BEST ART BOOK OF THE YEAR FINALIST FOR THE PLUTARCH AWARD AND THE APOLLO AWARD There are not many biographical masterpieces but Mark Stevens and Annalyn Swan have produced one wrote the novelist John Banville of Francis Bacon Revelations By the Pulitzer prize winning authors of de Kooning An American Master this acclaimed biography contains a wealth of never before known details about one of the iconic artists of the 20th century a singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his extraordinary art whose iconoclastic charm keeps the pages turning The Washington Post Francis Bacon created an indelible image of mankind in modern times and played an outsized role in both twentieth century art and life from his public emergence with his legendary Triptych 1944 its images so unrelievedly awful that people fled the gallery to his death in Madrid in 1992 Bacon was a witty free spirit and unabashed homosexual at a time when many others remained closeted and his exploits were as unforgettable as his images He moved among the worlds of London s Soho and East End the literary salons of London and Paris and the homosexual life of Tangier Through hundreds of interviews and extensive new research the authors probe Bacon s childhood in Ireland he earned his father s lasting disdain because his asthma prevented him from hunting his increasingly open homosexuality his early design career never before explored in detail the formation of his vision his early failure as an artist his uneasy relationship with American abstract art and his improbable late emergence onto the international stage as one of the great visionaries of the twentieth century In all Francis Bacon Revelations gives us a more complete and nuanced and more international portrait than ever before of this singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his equally eruptive extraordinary art Bacon was not just an influential artist he helped remake the twentieth century figure ABC Music Shows Volume One 1956 to 1959: Featuring Marty Wilde, Billy Fury, Cliff Richard and other artists on Jack Good's Oh Boy! Kevin Mulrennan, Following the success of my previous book which dealt with the pop show Thank Your Lucky Stars I have now decided to look at the music shows that appeared on A B C Weekend Television A B C Weekend Television catered for viewers in the Midlands and the North for thirteen glorious years from 1956 to 1968 The format will be similar to my previous work I shall take a chronological view with mini biographies where appropriate trivia interesting facts pictures and opinions both my own and from the contemporary public I shall not be looking at the previous company that was called A B C that morphed into A T V Television Nor will I be looking at music shows shown on A B C but not directly produced by them Therefore shows such as Sunday Night At The London Palladium and The Jack Jackson Show will not be featured as they merit a book in their own right If a weekend is absent from the diary it probably means A B C was concentrating on sports that particular weekend In the 60 s sports such as tennis rugby league and motor racing had a high profile Sadly most of the shows mentioned here are not preserved in the archives Television was considered an ephemeral pleasure back then Preserving a show was in many cases

impossible or too expensive The powerful music unions discouraged repeat showings and many shows went out live and there was no need to record them Tapes were reused on a regular basis with shows being wiped forever within a few weeks of transmission Mercifully a handful of Oh Boys survive along with a snippet of Cliff in the anniversary show The ABC of ABC A George Formby section from a 1957 Top Of The Bill has popped up on YouTube A Chas McDevitt clip featuring a very young Jean Marsh opening a door may very well come from the same show British Pathe News have lovely features on Ship Canal Showboat showing the likes of Thora Hird rehearsing in Manchester in 1956 as well as a feature on Holiday Town Parade A few Sunday Breaks exist Sadly I could find nothing from programmes such as Bid For Fame Top Numbers After Hours and many more great shows Writing this book really struck me how viewing habits have changed over the decades Television was on just two channels Daytime shows were rare and television ended before midnight Televisions were expensive Shows tended to be on at exactly the same time each week to build up audience figures But some things never change Even back then some people moaned at the quality of the shows and were fed up of seeing the same stars week in week out Hopefully you will gain more pleasure reading the book than those killjoys

United States Army in World War II, 2003 Memories of You and Me Barnard Adams, 2016-04-14 This is the story of a young American born in Brooklyn New York on April 21 1917 just two days before the U S declared war on Germany in World War 1 the activities growing up on Staten Island the four years at NYU getting his degree as an Aeronautical Engineer his ten years with Pan American Airways in Brazil in Rio de Janeiro Belem at the mouth of the Amazon and the WWII years as a technician attached to the US Air Force forecasting weather to the Air Ferries on their flights to Africa then to Guatemala as a Flight Dispatcher for the post war expansion of PAA from New Orleans and Miami to Panama After ten years with PAA a new career in real estate from residential to commercial including leadership leading to the 1971 presidency of CAR Having kept a journal this book recounts these events along with a description of vacation trips to England France Spain Brazil and spaces in between It is a tale of the interesting events that make up a lifetime

Later Lays of Sergeant Con Norbert Lyons, 1922 Helena Rubinstein Angus Trumble, 2023-07-04 The captivating story of the first global cosmetics empire the fascinating woman who built it and the past she preferred to leave behind Because of Trumble s surgical precision his empathy and self awareness his humour his grace his exquisite visual sense in his hands the facts of Rubinstein s life take on new and startling significance Sarah Krasnostein Helena Rubinstein 1872 1965 is best known for creating the world s first global cosmetics empire At its height her name was synonymous with glamour with salons in Paris London and New York and beauty products sold at cosmetics counters around the world Much less well known are the years Rubinstein spent in Australia before she was famous Recently arrived from Poland aged twenty three and speaking little English she worked as a governess and waitress before opening her first salon in Melbourne in 1902 In this captivating and wryly entertaining portrait Angus Trumble retraces Rubinstein s forgotten Australian years Later Rubinstein worked hard to suppress key details of her early life but they reveal the origins of her extraordinary rise In the laneways of Melbourne and the dusty streets of Coleraine we see her laying the foundations of a global empire This is the fascinating story of an enigmatic woman the myth she carefully curated and the past she preferred to leave behind With a foreword by Sarah Krasnostein Angus Trumble scoured records to chart Rubinstein s progress to Sydney New Zealand and on to a global empire Rubinstein s motto Beauty is power proved a shrewd prediction Robyn Douglass The Herald Sun In International Courtship Melville Kirke,1899 Coco Chanel Linda Simon,2011-10-01 The name Chanel brings immediately to mind the signature scent of No 5 and the understated but sophisticated glamour of a simple black dress and pearls But to consider Gabrielle Coco Chanel 1883 1971 as simply a fashion designer fails to capture her social and cultural significance As Linda Simon reveals in this biography Chanel was an iconoclastic entrepreneur who rebelled against and manipulated gender expectations of her time With her menswear inspired designs her loose jersey sweaters belted jauntily at the waist and her svelte unadorned gowns Chanel changed women s silhouettes and she became known as a champion of women s freedom Chanel not only changed the shape of women s clothing but the narrative of women s lives in the early twentieth century From her very first hat shop until her death Chanel sold more than fashion she sold a myth that became as attractive for many women as her coveted outfits Simon here teases apart that myth to explore its contradictions Chanel was a self proclaimed recluse who emerged as one of the most spectacular personalities of her time she was a brilliant businesswoman who signed away ninety percent of her company and she was a genius who claimed she was nothing more than an artisan In this insightful book Simon examines the world both reflected and shaped by Chanel setting her life and work within the context of women s history in France and America from the Roaring Twenties to the profound social changes of the 1960s Drawing upon rich archival sources Simon s lively book is a clear eyed look at a woman whose influence and legend transcend the world of fashion
