Evolution, Chance, and God Brendan Sweetman,2015-10-22 Evolution Chance and God looks at the relationship between religion and evolution from a philosophical perspective This relationship is fascinating complex and often very controversial involving myriad issues that are difficult to keep separate from each other Evolution Chance and God introduces the reader to the main themes of this debate and to the theory of evolution while arguing for a particular viewpoint namely that evolution and religion are compatible and that contrary to the views of some influential thinkers there is no chance operating in the theory of evolution a conclusion that has great significance for teleology One of the main aims of this book is not simply to critique one influential contemporary view that evolution and religion are incompatible but to explore specific ways of how we might understand their compatibility as well as the implications of evolution for religious belief This involves an exploration of how and why God might have created by means of evolution and what the consequences in particular are for the status of human beings in creation and for issues such as free will the objectivity of morality and the problem of evil By probing how the theory of evolution and religion could be reconciled Sweetman says that we can address more deeply key foundational questions concerning chance design suffering and morality and God s way of acting in and through creation

Those in Power Ray Buteau,2015-04-23 Many of us had lived an experience in the Roman Catholic

Institution that we couldn't find words to articulate until society created language for the experience of abuse Abuse was seen as doing something that would inspire fear but it is a form of control that can be either aggressive or subtle The church like secular society is in the midst of change Since New Testament times there has been a struggle between Gospel values and those of the world We have to come to terms with a shift from religious authority to spiritual experience We are now living in a culture of experience Many are longing for the recreation of meaningful rituals that would engage more deeply a language of the heart imagination and passion Women and gay priests are uniquely able to contribute to this recreation but both are being kept in their place and will not be able to contribute fully within the structure and limitations of the Roman Catholic Institution Power is the ability to enforce control Empowerment is the ability to do something for oneself
