The Press and Apartheid William A. Hachten, C. Anthony Giffard, 1984-06-18
The Press and Apartheid William A. Hachten, C. Anthony Giffard, 1984-01-01
South Africa's Alternative Press Les Switzer, 1997-02-13 Collection of essays on the South African alternative press from the 1880s to the 1960s Communication and Democratic Reform in South Africa Robert B. Horwitz, 2001-04-09 The book examines the reform of the communication sector in South Africa as a detailed and extended case study in political transformation the transition from apartheid to democracy The reform of broadcasting telecommunications the state information agency and the print press from apartheid aligned apparatuses to accountable democratic institutions took place via a complex political process in which civil society activism embodying a post social democratic ideal largely won out over the powerful forces of formal market capitalism and older models of state control In the cautious acceptance of the market the civil society organizations sought to use the dynamism of the market while thwarting its inevitable inequities Forged in the crucible of a difficult transition to democracy communication reform in South Africa was navigated between the National Party's embrace of the market and the African National Congress leadership's default statist orientation
Apartheid and Anti-Apartheid in Western Europe Knud Andresen, Sebastian Justke, Detlef Siegfried, 2020-12-12 This edited collection examines how Western European countries have responded and been influenced by the apartheid system in South Africa The debate surrounding apartheid in South Africa underwent a shift in the second half of the 20th century with long held positive racist European opinions of white South Africans slowly declining since decolonisation in the 1960s and the increase in the importance of human rights in international politics While previous studies have approached this question in the context of national histories more or less detached from each other this edited collection offers a broader insight into the transnational and entangled histories of Western European and South African societies The contributors use exemplary case studies to trace the change of perception covering a plurality of reactions in different societies and spheres from the political and social to the economic and cultural At the same time the collection emphasizes the interconnections of those reactions to what has been called the last overtly racist regime George Frederickson of the twentieth century Propaganda and Mass Persuasion Nicholas J. Cull, David H. Culbert, David Welch, 2003-07-15 A truly international authoritative A Z guide to five centuries of propaganda in both wartime and peacetime which covers key moments techniques concepts and some of the most influential propagandists in history This fascinating survey provides a comprehensive introduction to propaganda its changing nature its practitioners and its impact on the past five centuries of world history Written by leading experts it covers the masters of the art from Joseph Goebbels to Mohandas Gandhi and examines enormously influential works of persuasion such as Uncle Tom's Cabin techniques such as films and posters and key concepts like black propaganda and brainwashing Case studies reveal the role of mass persuasion during the Reformation and wars throughout history Regional studies cover propaganda superpowers such as Russia China and the United States as well as little known propaganda campaigns in Southeast Asia Ireland and Scandinavia The book traces the evolution of propaganda from the era of printed handbills to computer fakery and profiles such brilliant practitioners of the art as Third Reich film director Leni Riefenstahl and 19th century cartoonist Thomas Nast whose works helped to bring the notorious Boss Tweed to justice Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This groundbreaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid
