The Primitive Church In The Modern World:

The Primitive Church in the Modern World Richard Thomas Hughes, 1995 The New Black Gods Edward E. Curtis IV, Danielle Brune Sigler, 2009-04-23 Taking the influential work of Arthur Huff Fauset as a starting point to break down the false dichotomy that exists between mainstream and marginal a new generation of scholars offers fresh ideas for understanding the religious expressions of African Americans in the United States Fauset's 1944 classic Black Gods of the Metropolis launched original methods and theories for thinking about African American religions as modern cosmopolitan and democratic The essays in this collection show the diversity of African American religion in the wake of the Great Migration and consider the full field of African American religion from Pentecostalism to Black Judaism Black Islam and Father Divine's Peace Mission Movement As a whole they create a dynamic humanistic and thoroughly interdisciplinary understanding of African American religious history and life This book is essential reading for anyone who studies the African American experience The American Quest for the Primitive Church Richard Thomas Hughes, 1988 The dream of restoring primitive Christianity lies close to the core of the identity of some American denominations Churches of Christ Latter day Saints some Mennonites and a variety of Holiness and Pentecostal denominations But how can a return to ancient Christianity be sustained in a world increasingly driven by modernization What meaning might such a vision have in the modern world Twelve distinguished scholars explore these and related questions in this provocative book The English Bible in the Early Modern World Robert Armstrong, Tadhg Ó Hannracháin, 2018-05-01 The English Bible in the Early Modern World addresses the most significant book available in the English language in the centuries after the Reformation and investigates its impact on popular religion and reading practices and on theology religious controversy and intellectual history between 1530 and 1700 Individual chapters discuss the responses of both clergy and laity to the sacred text with particular emphasis on the range of settings in which the Bible was encountered and the variety of responses prompted by engagement with the Scriptures Particular attention is given to debates around the text and interpretation of the Bible to an emerging Protestant understanding of Scripture and to challenges it faced over the course of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The Millennial Kingdom of the Franciscans in the New World John Leddy Phelan, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1970 The New International Dictionary of Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements Stanley M. Burgess, Eduard M. van der Maas, 2010-08-03 The Definitive History of the Spirit Filled Church Encyclopedic coverage of Activities of the Spirit over 2 000 years of church history in 60 countries and regions Outpourings at Topeka Mukti Mission India Azusa Street Duquesne University and many other 20th century locations Current movements among today's 500 million plus Pentecostal and charismatic Christians worldwide The New International Dictionary of Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements sets modern Spirit filled Christianity in a context that spans two millennia and the entire Christian world Like no other resource this volume reveals in detail the full sweeping legacy of Spirit empowered movements that have touched hearts and lives both in modern America and across the centuries and continents in medieval Europe Finland in the 1700s South India in the 1800s Azusa Street at the turn of the 20th century and much more including ongoing moves of the Holy Spirit throughout the world today One thousand entries provide the most extensive information available on Pentecostal charismatic and neoevangelical movements The diverse topics covered include as a small sample glossolalia black and Hispanic Pentecostalism prophecy the role of women faith healing music sociology missions church growth and different historic and contemporary revivals With its unique international and historical perspective this completely revised and expanded second edition of the acclaimed Dictionary of Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements offers features that no other reference of its kind approaches Its extraordinary scope and detailed up to date coverage make this the definitive resource on Pentecostal and charismatic denominations and movements both in North America and worldwide Includes Exhaustive coverage of Pentecostal and charismatic movements in 60 countries and regions individual histories cultural and theological aspects and key figures and institutions Statistical section with a wealth of current information on the growth of classical Pentecostalism as well as charismatic and neoevangelical movements 1 000 articles Over 500 photos and illustrations maps and timeline Cross references bibliographies and indexes to people places and topics

Unitarianism in the Antebellum South John Allen Macaulay, 2016-07-15 Macaulay challenges the prevailing belief that religion in the south developed solely through revivalistic emotion and not by religious rationalism

Building the Old Time Religion Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2015-01-08 During the Progressive Era a period of unprecedented ingenuity women evangelists built the old time religion with brick and mortar uniforms and automobiles fresh converts and devoted prot g s Across America entrepreneurial women founded churches denominations religious training schools rescue homes rescue missions and evangelistic organizations Until now these intrepid women have gone largely unnoticed though their collective yet unchoreographed decision to build institutions in the service of evangelism marked a seismic shift in American Christianity In this ground breaking study Priscilla Pope Levison dusts off the unpublished letters diaries sermons and yearbooks of these pioneers to share their personal tribulations and public achievements The effect is staggering With an uncanny eye for essential details and a knack for historical nuance Pope Levison breathes life into not just one or two of these women but two dozen The evangelistic empire of Aimee Semple McPherson represents the pinnacle of this shift from itinerancy to institution building Her name remains legendary Yet she built her institutions on the foundation of the work of women evangelists who preceded her Their stories untold until now reveal the cunning and strength of women who forged a path for every generation including our own to follow Back cover

The Other Side of Joy Julius Rubin, 2000-03-09 This is a case study of one pietist religious group the Bruderhof A Christian brotherhood founded on Anabaptist and evangelical pietist doctrine they practice community of goods seeking to emulate the vision of the Apostolic church and fulfill the ethic of brotherhood taught in the Sermon on the Mount Rubin offers compelling accounts of the lives of Bruderhof apostates who foundered over issues of faith and relates these crises to the central tenets of Bruderhof theology their spirituality and community life

The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World Jennifer Mara DeSilva, 2016-03-09 In the Early Modern period as both reformed and Catholic churches strove to articulate orthodox belief and conduct through texts sermons rituals and images communities grappled frequently with the connection between sacred space and behavior The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World explores individual and community involvement in the approbation reconfiguration and regulation of sacred spaces and the behavior both animal and human within them The individual's understanding of sacred space and consequently the behavior appropriate within it depended on local need group dynamics and the dissemination of normative expectations While these expectations were defined in a growing body of confessionalizing literature locally and internationally traditional clerical authorities found their decisions contested circumvented or elaborated in order to make room for other stakeholders activities and needs To clearly reveal the efforts of early modern groups to negotiate authority and the transformation of behavior with sacred space this collection presents examples that allow the deconstruction of these tensions and the exploration of the resulting campaigns within sacred space Based on new archival research the eleven chapters in this collection examine diverse aspects of the campaigns to transform Christian behavior within a variety of types of sacred space and through a spectrum of media These essays give voice to the arguments exhortations and accusations that surrounded the activities taking place in early modern sacred space and reveal much about how people made sense of these transformations
