Pioneer Spirit Mary Ellen Doyle, 2006-12-01. Mother Catherine Spalding, 1793-1858, was the cofounder and first leader of one of the most significant American religious communities for women, the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth. Spalding also founded several educational institutions, Louisville's first private hospital, and the first social service agencies for children in Kentucky. In 2003, the Louisville Courier Journal selected Spalding as the sole woman among the sixteen most important persons in Louisville's history. Pioneer Spirit is the first biography of Spalding, who from the age of nineteen served the citizens of the Kentucky frontier. By the time of her death, the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth extended far beyond Bardstown, Kentucky, to over one hundred sisters in sixteen convents. Spalding's legacy of service continues today with more than six hundred members worldwide.

Sisters in the Spirit Venita Lewis, 2011-11-16. Women many times try to carry things within ourselves along with the cares of the world without taking the time out to explore what is going on inside of us. As women of God, we go about our daily lives trying to take care of our families and go about church work. We are no exception to the rule; we must also take care of ourselves. I've been led to share with the women of God poetic encouragement and inspiration to help them deal with and explore their inner selves and to become able to release some of the things that we've held on to for many years, the secret things within our hearts that have caused deep hurt, pain, and scars. I have been through many things, and through His grace, God, He has kept me without Him, they would have killed me. But thanks be unto God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 15:57. My mission is to help other sisters in the spirit see themselves through God's eyes and be released to become free in God and to live out their divine destiny.
